GAMEDAY ENTRANCE

The Bryant-Denny Stadium press box is located on the east side of the stadium and is accessible via the elevators located just inside Gate 56 and is on level 5. The elevator will be in operation three hours prior to kickoff. Media Will Call is located at Ticket Window 8 located on the northwest corner of the end zone adjacent to Gate 3 of Bryant-Denny Stadium.

RADIO

Located within the press box area, there are booths for both home and visiting radio crews as well as national radio. Only those with appropriate passes will be admitted to these booths.

BROADCAST TELEVISION/COACHES

The broadcast television booth as well as coaches booths for both sides are located on the seventh level of the west side of the stadium. Only those with appropriate passes will be admitted to that level.

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials are available only to working members of the media who represent accredited outlets that are actively covering the event. All credential requests must be made through the Crimson Tide's online credentialing system. For further information, contact Roots Woodruff at rwoodruff@ia.ua.edu.

SIDELINES

Alabama follows NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines.

Credentials must be visible in order to gain access to the field.

All photographers/videographers on the sideline must have a working purpose with proper equipment.

Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines.

No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers, cutline writers, equipment carriers or radio station representatives, except for each team's broadcast originating networks.

Affiliate TV stations are not allowed the services of a grip and credentials will not be provided for grip operations.

No one under 18 years of age will be issued a credential for sideline access.

Photographers or videographers are considered working members of the media, and they are to refrain from cheering or talking to players, coaches or officials.

Photographers may send photos from the Alabama Photo Room located on the south end of Bryant-Denny Stadium at field level. Contact Roots Woodruff to reserve space.

Not conforming to any of the above listed guidelines will result in the immediate dismissal from the stadium by event management staff.

Photographers should contact Roots Woodruff for further information at rwoodruff@ia.ua.edu.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete individual and team statistics, running play-by-play, postgame coaches' quotes and game facts will be distributed via e-mail to members of the working media. Alabama's flip card will be located at each seat throughout the press box.

Alabama's game notes, opponent notes and conference notes will be provided in a PDF via e-mail on Monday evening. A pregame meal will be served beginning 90 minutes before kickoff. Soft drinks and water will be available throughout the game.

PARKING

Media parking is located in lots nearby Bryant-Denny Stadium. Because of limited space, requests for parking should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials. All media parking passes are digital and the lots open three hours prior to kick off. If you were granted parking, you will receive it via the email provided during the credential request process.

PRESS BOX CONNECTIVITY

Wireless internet is available in the Bryant-Denny Stadium press box. In addition, a limited number of ethernet lines are also available.

PRO SCOUTS

Scouts of professional football teams are issued press credentials. Credentials should be requested two weeks prior to the date of the game to guarantee availability and should be requested online. For further details contact Roots Woodruff at rwoodruff@ia.ua.edu.

SATELLITE TRUCKS

Any outlet using a satellite truck must request satellite truck access and have a truck in place at least five hours prior to kickoff (example: 2 p.m. for a 7 p.m. kickoff). Satellite trucks arriving less than five hours prior to kickoff may be denied access to the stadium. Requests for parking area for satellite trucks must be made by 12 p.m. Wednesday prior to Saturday games and must be confirmed through Roots Woodruff. No other vehicles will be allowed to park with the satellite truck and all credential needs for personnel must be included in the online request.

SEC VIDEO FEEDS/TELEVISION

Through the SEC Network, highlights of SEC events are free for use on your website. Please visit SECNetwork.com for embeddable clips of event highlights. The usage of clips is unlimited. To do so: A. Locate the video you want on the SECNetwork.com website. B. Click the "Tool" icon below the video, then click "Share"; Make sure to wait until the ad ends. C. Grab the embed code, paste it into your content management system or provide it to your website's engineer.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

All interview requests for head coach Nick Saban are coordinated through Assistant Athletics Director, Football Communications Josh Maxson at jmaxson@ia.ua.edu or (205) 348-3631. Coach Saban meets with the media each Monday preceding a game at noon CT in the Naylor Stone Media Room on the second floor of the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility. Coach Saban will participate in the SEC head coaches weekly teleconference with the other 13 league coaches each Wednesday at 10:40 a.m. CT. He also meets with the media immediately following practice on Wednesday afternoon in the Naylor Stone Media Room. In addition, Coach Saban is available on a limited basis by request between noon and 1 p.m. CT Wednesday and Thursday.

PLAYERS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the Alabama Athletics Communications Office and must be requested at least one day in advance. Several players will be available each week following Coach Saban's Monday press conference, as their class schedule permits. Player interviews should be requested through Assistant Director of Communications Alex Thompson. In addition to Monday's press luncheon, players are available prior to Tuesday's practice. Team locker rooms are off limits to media representatives at all times. Media members are not permitted to call players at any time or talk to players on Sunday, Thursday or Friday.

POSTGAME

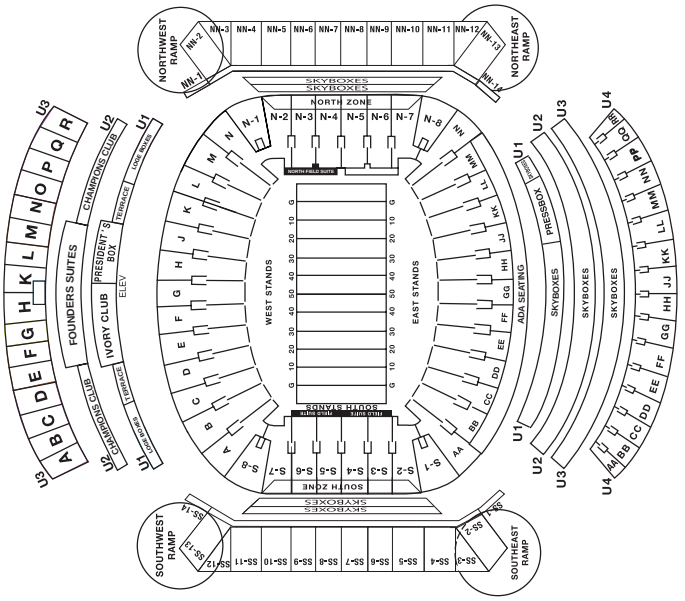

The University of Alabama observes and abides by Southeastern Conference policy regarding equal access to all members of the working media. Coach Saban will conduct his postgame press conference at home games approximately 10 minutes after the game, in the media room located on the second floor of the North End Zone. His news conference also can be heard in the press box. The Alabama locker room is closed. Requested players will be brought to the media room following Coach Saban's postgame press conference. The opposing coach will conduct his postgame news conference in the South End Zone Media Room adjoining the visiting team locker room.

PRACTICE ACCESS

Alabama football practices are open to the media on Monday through Wednesday from the beginning of practice until team or group work begins. Media members should request to have their name placed on a pass list for admission to practices.

ALABAMA HIGHLIGHT FEED

Video highlights of Alabama football are available via FTP each Monday during the regular season. Contact Alabama for times and FTP information.

BAMA

ROLL TIDE ROLL

PREVIEWING THE 2021 ALABAMA CRIMSON TIDE

The Alabama Crimson Tide welcomes back 13 starters and 50 lettermen for the 2021 season. On offense, 23 letterwinners and three starters return, while the defense will have 23 lettermen and nine starters back on the field, with one starting specialist returning. The coaching staff returns defensive coordinator Pete Golding, while former NFL and college head coach Bill O'Brien will assume the offensive coordinator role in 2021. Head coach Nick Saban enters his 15th year in Tuscaloosa, having won six national championships, seven Southeastern Conference titles and 170 games during his tenure at Alabama.

On defense, the Tide welcomes back nine starters from a unit that was playing its best football at the end of the year, while adding one impact transfer. Linebacker Christian Harris returns to anchor the middle of the defense with Tennessee transfer Henry To'oTo'o entering the fray at the other middle linebacker position. Harris logged 79 tackles with seven tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks a season ago while To'o To'o recorded 68 stops with 7.5 tackles for loss for the Volunteers. At outside linebacker, Alabama welcomes back Shaun Alexander National Freshman of the Year Will Anderson Jr. and redshirt senior Christopher Allen. The two combined for 93 tackles, 23.5 tackles for loss and 13 sacks. The outside linebacker group will be bolstered by sophomores Chris Braswell and Drew Sanders to mix with some of nation's top recruits at the position. The defensive front will be led by redshirt seniors Phidarian Mathis and LaBryan Ray. Mathis, who logged 31 tackles with five tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks in 2020, pairs with Ray, who added 12 tackles in a year marred by injury, to give the Tide a veteran presence on the line. Joining them are juniors Byron Young (29 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss), DJ Dale (22 tackles, 1.0 tackle for loss) and Justin Eboigbe (19 tackles). The Tide's secondary will be anchored by senior Josh Jobe at cornerback and junior Jordan Battle at safety. Battle was third on the team in tackles a year ago, with 66, while registering 3.0 tackles for loss and one interception to go with four pass breakups. Jobe earned honorable mention All-America recognition from Pro Football Focus in 2020 thanks to his 55 tackles, including 2.5 for loss, two sacks and 11 pass breakups. The star position features both sophomores Malachi Moore (44 tackles, 4.0 tackles for loss, three interceptions) and Brian Branch (27 tackles, two interceptions, seven pass breakups). DeMarcco Hellams and Daniel Wright bring a wealth of starting experience back to the second safety spot and Marcus Banks leads a contingent at the second cornerback position that includes incoming freshman Kool-Aid McKinstry.

The offensive side of the football will feature a mostly new cast for the 2021 season. Gone are All-Americans DeVonta Smith, Mac Jones, Najee Harris, Alex Leatherwood and Landon Dickerson. The Crimson Tide returns only three starters from last year's record-breaking squad – wide receiver John Metchie III and offensive linemen Evan Neal and Emil Ekiyor Jr. Metchie III will take the lead as the Tide's primary wide receiver in 2021 after the departure of four first round NFL Draft picks over the past two seasons at the position. Alabama landed transfer Jameson Williams from Ohio State to bolster the position with a bevy of young talent already in place, including Javon Baker, Traeshon Holden, Thaiu Jones-Bell, Agiye Hall, Ja'Corey Brooks, Christian Leary and JoJo Earle. At running back, Brian Robinson Jr. returns for his fifth year with 1,361 career yards and 15 touchdowns already in-hand. Trey Sanders, Jase McClellan and Roydell Williams join Robinson Jr. to make up one of the deepest backfields in college football. Bryce Young, Paul Tyson and Jalen Milroe competed all spring for the starting quarterback job and will look to replace first round pick Mac Jones as the Tide's primary signal-caller. Ekiyor Jr. and Neal return to anchor the offensive front. Neal enters the year as a top candidate for the Outland Trophy, an award UA has won five times in the last 14 years. Jahleel Billingsley, Cameron Latu and Major Tennison return at tight end. Billingsley led all tight ends last year with 18 catches for 287 yards and three touchdowns, averaging 15.9 yards per catch as a sophomore.

The specialist group must replace long snapper Thomas Fletcher and punter Charlie Scott. Will Reichard was a perfect 98-of-98 on kicks, including 14-of-14 on field goals, on his way to becoming a finalist for the Lou Groza Award. At punter, Ty Perine remains on the roster after starting in 2019, while a bevy of newcomers will challenge for the starting job in 2021, including James Burnip and transfer Jack Martin.

SECTION 3

NICK SABAN

15TH YEAR • HEAD COACH • KENT STATE, 1973

A man of vision who has a proven record of championship success, head coach Nick Saban has taken The University of Alabama to the top of the college football landscape and kept them there with his commitment to building the total program. After the victory over Ohio State in the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship Game, Saban passed Paul "Bear" Bryant to become the only coach to win seven national titles in the poll era of college football.

In his 15th season in Tuscaloosa, Saban's uncompromising dedication to excellence in every phase of the program has resulted in six national championships since 2009. A nine-time National Coach of the Year, Saban has achieved resounding success as a head coach and has earned a reputation as an outstanding tactician, leader, organizer and motivator. Those qualities sparked impressive turnarounds at every stop of his career. Saban's consistent approach and disciplined leadership are the reasons his teams are known for exhibiting grit, determination and resilience, often overcoming adversity to achieve victory.

The most recent example of his team's ability to overcome adversity came in a season filled with more challenges than any before it. The pandemic that gripped the world in 2020 required Saban to not only manage his typical football duties both on and off the field but required him to also manage a medical and social environment unseen in college football history.

Saban told his players when they arrived back on campus in June of 2020 that the team that could manage the distractions the best would have the best opportunity to be successful in a season that would be unlike any before. Those words proved to be prophetic as the 2020 Alabama football team managed their personal bubbles, handled their mostly virtual class work and formed a tightknit brotherhood that helped them accomplish the ultimate goal of every Crimson Tide football team – a national championship.

The 2020 season culminated with a 52-24 thrashing of No. 3 Ohio State in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla. The Crimson Tide used a 28-point second quarter to put the game out of reach and claim the program's 18th national title. The victory added to Saban's impressive career record of 16-3 in championship games (SEC/National).

In his 25 seasons as a collegiate head coach, Saban has compiled a 261-65-1 (.800) record, including a 170-23 (.881) mark in Tuscaloosa. His teams have posted a 127-12 (.914) record with five national championships in the last 10 seasons, which is the best of any major-college school over a 10-year span since Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma in the late 1940s through the late 1950s. UA's 125 wins in the 2010s were also the most for any FBS school during a decade in the Associated Press Poll era (since 1936).

Since Saban's second season in Tuscaloosa in 2008, the Tide has played just three regular-season games in which it hasn't been in contention for the national championship – the final three regular season games of the 2010 season – a staggering 151 of 154 games, while posting an astounding 163-17 (.906) record, including an 95-11 (.896) mark in regular season conference play.

In Saban's six national championship seasons at Alabama, his teams have gone 21-2 against top-10 opponents, and, since 2008, the Crimson Tide is 33-11 overall against top-10 teams. Alabama has been ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press Poll for at least one week for 13 straight years, which broke the record of seven established by Miami (1986-92).

Equally impressive is the fact that Alabama has not lost to an unranked team since 2007 and have lost just one game to a team ranked outside the top 15 in the AP Poll in the last 13 years (No. 19 South Carolina in 2010). For perspective, no team in the FBS has lost fewer than 10 games to teams outside the top 15 in that same time frame.

The 2020 season saw Saban win the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year for the second time in his career after navigating the Crimson Tide through an undefeated national championship season (13-0) while the world was in the grips of a pandemic. His team became the first in league history to win 10 SEC games in a season, defeating the 10 league opponents by a margin of 32.7 points per game. The Tide then took down No. 7 Florida 52-46 to capture the program's 28th SEC Championship and the seventh during Saban's tenure in Tuscaloosa. Alabama then overwhelmed No. 4 Notre Dame, 31-10, in the Rose Bowl, which was played at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, due to state and local COVID-19 guidelines in California.

The Crimson Tide set a bevy of offensive records in 2020, posting season-high marks for scoring (48.5 ppg), passing yards (4,656), passing yards per game (358.2) and third-down conversions (59 percent). DeVonta Smith became Alabama's third Heisman Trophy winner and the first wide receiver to win the award since 1991. The unanimous All-American, who also won the Biletnikoff Award, the Maxwell Award and the Paul Hornung Award, led the nation and shattered both the UA and SEC records for receiving yards (1,865) and touchdowns (23). Quarterback Mac Jones threw for a school-record 4,500 yards while setting the NCAA mark for completion percentage (77.4 percent) and passing efficiency (203.06). He won the Davey O'Brien Award, the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and the Manning Award as the nation's top quarterback and was a consensus All-American. Najee Harris was named the Doak Walker Award winner as the country's best running back and a unanimous All-American after rushing for 1,466 yards and leading the nation in rushing touchdowns (26) and total touchdowns (30). He finished as the SEC's career leader in touchdowns with 57, passing 2007 Heisman Trophy winner Tim Tebow.

Alex Leatherwood and Landon Dickerson were named unanimous All-Americans on the offensive line with Leatherwood winning the Outland Trophy and Dickerson securing the Rimington Trophy. The duo helped make up an offensive line unit that earned the Joe Moore Award as the top line in the nation. On the defensive side of the ball, cornerback Patrick Surtain II was a finalist for numerous national awards while earning unanimous All-American honors. Joining Surtain was linebacker Dylan Moses who led the team in tackles and was named a first team All-American by the AFCA. Long snapper Thomas Fletcher won the Patrick Mannelly Award to round out the award winners. The 2020 senior class finished with a 51-4 record that included two national championships and a pair of SEC titles.

The 2019 team finished the season with an 11-2 record after a 35-16 victory over the Michigan Wolverines in the Citrus Bowl. Injuries to quarterback Tua Tagovailoa, Moses and defensive lineman LaBryan Ray devastated the Tide throughout the season, forcing nine true freshmen – including six on the defensive side of the football – into starting action. That said, only a five-point loss to eventual national champion LSU and a three-point defeat on the road at No. 11 Auburn derailed the Crimson Tide's championship hopes.

Even after the loss of Tagovailoa, the Alabama offense continued to produce record-setting numbers, averaging 47.2 points per game that ranked second nationally while cranking out 510.8 yards of total offense per contest. Tagovailoa and Jones, who was then the backup, combined to throw for 4,449 yards and 49 touchdowns against only six interceptions. Harris produced 1,224 rushing yards and 20 total touchdowns while Smith caught 68 passes for 1,256 yards and 14 touchdowns to go with Jerry Jeudy's 77 grabs for 1,163 yards and 10 more scores.

Saban's 2018 team compiled a 14-1 record, just his third team to go undefeated through the regular season at the time (2009, 2016) and his fourth to reach the 14-win plateau (2009, 2015-16). He won the Walter Camp National Coach of the Year Award and the Tide also qualified for its fifth straight appearance in the College Football Playoff, earning the No. 1 seed and a trip to the Capital One Orange Bowl to play No. 4 Oklahoma. The Crimson Tide cruised past the Sooners in the Semifinal by a score of 45-34, using an early 28-0 lead to ensure the victory. Alabama produced its most potent offense to date, finishing the 2018 campaign as the national leader in passing efficiency (197.34). The Tide also wrapped up 2018 ranked third in scoring offense (45.6 ppg) along with sixth in both total offense (522.0 ypg) and passing offense (323.6 ypg). The 2018 senior class also broke the NCAA record for wins, eclipsing the Tide's 2017 class with a record of 55-4 to match Clemson's 2018 senior class for the most wins in a four-year period.

As a sophomore, Tagovailoa quarterbacked the offensive unit, winning the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year and The Sporting News Player of the Year while finishing runner-up in Heisman Trophy voting. Jeudy won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's best wide receiver while Quinnen Williams earned the Outland Trophy and led the country's No. 12 scoring defense (18.1 ppg). Alabama finished with six first team All-Americans (Tagovailoa, Jeudy, Q. Williams, OT Jonah Williams, S Deionte Thompson and C Ross Pierschbacher). Both Jonah and Quinnen were recognized as unanimous All-Americans while Jeudy, Tagovailoa and Thompson were consensus All-America selections.

The 2017 Crimson Tide earned its fourth straight trip to the College Football Playoff and defeated No. 1 Clemson, 24-6, in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. The Tide finished the season with a 13-1 record and a share of the SEC Western Division title. Alabama had 10 players earn first team All-SEC honors while Minkah Fitzpatrick captured the Bednarik Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year and the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. Fitzpatrick and linebacker Rashaan Evans earned first team All-America honors. Saban's defense led the nation in scoring (11.9 ppg), total defense (260.4 ypg) and rushing defense (94.7 ypg) while ranking second in pass efficiency defense

AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

Only four coaches in the modern poll era of college football have won four or more national championships during their careers.

COACH	SCHOOL(S)	CHAMPIONSHIP YEARS
Nick Saban	LSU & Alabama	2004, 2009, 2011-12, 2015, 2017, 2020 (7)
Paul "Bear" Bryant	Alabama	1961,1964-65,1973,1978-79 (6)
Frank Leahy	Notre Dame	1943, 1946-47, 1949 (4)
John McKay	USCifornia	1962, 1967, 1972, 1974 (4)

(96.78). The offensive side of the ball finished 13th nationally in rushing (250.6 ypg) and 15th in scoring (37.1 ppg). The senior class posted a then-NCAA-record 53-5 mark from 2014-17 and a 64-7 mark over the a five-year span.

Saban's 2016 squad completed an undefeated regular season for the first time since 2009 and secured the program's 26th SEC Championship – the third straight for the program – and the fourth across five years. The Tide defeated Washington in the Semifinal of the CFP in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl (24-7), before dropping a 35-31 game to Clemson in the CFP National Championship Game in Tampa, Fla. Alabama finished with a 14-1 record after defeating nine ranked teams and 11 teams that qualified for bowl games during the 2016 season.

Saban, who was named the SEC Coach of the Year and Munger Award National Coach of the Year (presented by the Maxwell Football Club), had five players earn first team All-America honors – Jonathan Allen, Fitzpatrick, Reuben Foster, Marlon Humphrey and Cam Robinson. Allen also captured the Nagurski Trophy and the Bednarik Award, both of which go to the national defensive player of the year, and the Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end, while Foster won the Butkus Award that is given to the nation's best linebacker, and Robinson captured the Outland Trophy.

The 2015 team secured the Crimson Tide's fourth national championship in seven years. They became the first team to win back-to-back SEC Championships in 17 years (Tennessee, 1997-98) and were the only program to earn an invitation to each of the first two College Football Playoffs. Saban led his team to victories in the final 12 games of the season, including wins at No. 8 Georgia, at No. 9 Texas A&M, vs. No. 4 LSU, at No. 17 Mississippi State, against No. 18 Florida in the SEC Championship Game, vs. No. 3 Michigan State in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl and over No. 1 Clemson in the CFP Championship Game. The senior class won 50 games (50-6) over their four years with three SEC Championships and two national titles.

The 2015 Crimson Tide featured Heisman Trophy winner Derrick Henry, who also captured the Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year and Doak Walker Award. Ryan Kelly won the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center. Linebacker Reggie Ragland was a finalist for the Butkus Award, Nagurski Trophy and the Bednarik Award, while A'Shawn Robinson was a finalist for the Outland Trophy. The offensive line was also awarded the Joe Moore as the award's inaugural recipient. All four of the Tide's finalists garnered first team All-America honors, while Eddie Jackson was a second-team selection.

Henry set school records for rushing yards (2,219), rushing touchdowns (28), rushing attempts (395) and all-purpose yardage (2,310). A trademark of Saban-coached teams, the Tide ranked among the nation's best on both sides of the ball, checking in at No. 1 in the country in rushing defense, No. 3 in total defense and scoring defense, and eighth in pass efficiency defense while averaging 199.9 rushing yards and 227.1 passing yards per game on offense. Saban's on-side kick call in the national championship game proved key, propelling the Crimson Tide to the program's 16th national title. In the classroom, the numbers were just as astounding, as UA had a nation-leading 29 graduates on the roster for the bowl game including three players with their master's degree in hand.

Saban became the first coach to win back-to-back BCS national championships at the end of the 2012 season, and he is one of three college coaches in the poll era (since 1936) to win three national championships in four years (2009-2012), joining Frank Leahy of Notre Dame (1946-47, 1949) and Tom Osborne of Nebraska (1994-95, 1997). He is also just the second (Leahy) to win four titles in seven years, a feat he has now accomplished twice (2009-12 and 2011-17).

The 2014 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year, Saban led the Crimson Tide to the top seed in the first College Football Playoff at the 2015 Allstate Sugar Bowl, UA's 24th SEC Championship and a 12-2 record. The Crimson Tide featured Heisman Trophy finalist and UA's first-ever Biletnikoff Award winner Amari Cooper along with Nagurski Trophy and Thorpe Award finalist Landon Collins. In addition to Cooper and Collins, Ray Guy Award finalist punter JK Scott, linebacker Trey DePriest and offensive guard Arie Kouandjio garnered first team All-America honors. SEC Championship Game MVP Blake Sims set then-school records for total offense (3,837 yards) and passing yards (3,487), while Cooper established UA marks in every receiving category. The Tide checked in at No. 6 in the country in scoring defense and 15th overall in scoring offense. In the classroom, Alabama had 22 graduates on the roster for the bowl game (tied for the most in the nation) and seven players with their master's degree in hand (first in the nation).

Saban led the 2013 Alabama team to the Allstate Sugar Bowl, making a sixth straight New Year's Six bowl appearance and the third straight in a BCS bowl. That senior class posted a remarkable record of 60-7 over their five years with four bowl wins and three national titles. Their record in the classroom was just as impressive as 28 Crimson Tide graduates took the field for the bowl matchup with Oklahoma. Senior quarterback AJ McCarron was named a first team All-American, won the Maxwell and Unitas Award, and finished as the runner-up in the Heisman Trophy voting. On the other side of the ball, senior linebacker C.J. Mosley took home Alabama's third Butkus Trophy and earned All-America honors for the second straight year.

Alabama remained at the forefront of the college football world in 2012 with an explosive offense and a retooled defense that maintained its place as one of the most dominant units in the nation. The Crimson Tide won the program's 23rd SEC championship (the most in league history) with a victory over Georgia that propelled Alabama into the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game, where they soundly defeated Notre Dame by a score of 42-14 to earn the school's 15th national title. For his efforts following the season, Saban was named the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year, his third such honor in his previous four years.

The Alabama defense in 2012 led the nation in rush defense (76.4 ypg), total defense (250.0 ypg) and scoring defense (10.9 ppg). The Tide offense ranked 12th nationally in scoring at 38.7 points per game, 16th nationally in rushing at 227.5 yards per game and set a school record with 542 points scored in 2012. The Crimson Tide featured four first team All-Americans in 2012, including center Barrett Jones and left guard Chance Warmack. A pair of defensive standouts also earned All-America honors in cornerback Dee Milliner and Mosley. Jones captured the Rimington Trophy and the prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy, as the student-athlete who best combined performance on the field, success in the classroom and service away from the field. The 2012 senior class set then-school and SEC records for wins, while garnering a 49-5 record since 2009, a mark that tied Nebraska's NCAA record 49 wins from 1994-97.

The 2011 squad produced one of the most dominant defenses in the history of college football and captured Alabama's 14th national championship with a 21-0 victory over LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. The Tide defense led the nation in all major categories, becoming the second team since national statistics have been compiled, and the first since 1986 (Oklahoma), to accomplish that feat. UA allowed only 8.2 points per game, 183.6 total yards, 72.2 rushing yards, 111.5 passing yards and an 83.7 pass efficiency defense. Alabama finished with a 12-1 record.

Seven members of the 2011 Crimson Tide (including five on defense) were recognized as first team All-Americans by major media outlets, while Jones took home Alabama's third Outland Trophy and Heisman Trophy finalist Trent Richardson received the Tide's first Doak Walker Award. The team was recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team's response in the community following a tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. Jones also received the ARA Sportsmanship Award and the Wuerffel Trophy. Saban's efforts earned him the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (a league record) and produced one Academic All-American in Jones.

Despite a young roster that listed only eight scholarship seniors, the 2010 Alabama team finished with its third consecutive 10-win season following a dominant 49-7 win over Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl. Two players (quarterback Greg McElroy and Jones) were named first team CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans, which marked two consecutive years in which Alabama boasted two of the three CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans in the SEC. McElroy, the ESPN Academic All-American of the Year, was named a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete as a finalist for the Campbell Trophy.

The 2009 season at Alabama turned out to be one of the most memorable in program history, as the Tide compiled a perfect 14-0 mark and won the 2009 BCS National Championship by defeating Texas, 37-21, at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. Alabama earned a spot in the title game with a resounding 32-13 win over defending national champion Florida in the SEC Championship Game, as the Tide moved to No. 1 in both major polls. The SEC championship was the program's 22nd.

On Dec. 12, 2009, more history was made for both Alabama and Saban when running back Mark Ingram became the first Heisman Trophy winner for both. Saban's 2009 squad captured numerous other honors, as Rolando McClain received the Butkus Award and six players earned first team AP All-America status.

After the perfect 2009 season concluded, Saban was presented with the first Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. In addition to the on-field success, the 2009 Tide active roster featured a nation's-best 13 players who had already graduated. That number increased to 22 players with degrees for the bowl game.

Saban's first Alabama team finished 7-6 in 2007, but the 2008 season saw a vastly improved squad take the field. Saban's influence had taken hold in Tuscaloosa and – behind a small and united senior class along with a talented group of newcomers – the Tide returned to national prominence. Alabama developed a reputation as the most physical football team in the country and methodically dominated the competition. Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history, as the Tide went from a seven-win team in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008.

Alabama swept through the 2008 regular season schedule with a 12-0 record, moving to No. 1 in all of the polls and capturing the SEC Western Division Championship before falling late to Florida in a hard-fought SEC Championship Game. The team's efforts earned them a trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl for the 13th time in school history. Saban was named the 2008 Home Depot Coach of the Year at the ESPN College Football Awards Show and won several other national coach-of-the-year honors including the FWAA/Eddie Robinson, AP, The Sporting News, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Liberty Mutual.

Lessons learned from the 2007 season – which was capped with a win over Colorado in the Independence Bowl – no doubt carried into spring and summer preparations for the 2008 run. The win also continued an impressive streak for Saban as he has yet to have a losing season as a college head coach. Of the six losses in 2007, none was by more than seven points. In addition to an improvement in the win column from the year prior, the 2008 signing class was rated by many analysts as the best in the country.

Saban took over the Alabama program after serving two seasons at the helm of the Miami Dolphins. Saban's teams showed marked improvement over the unit he inherited. Taking over a team that finished 4-12 in 2004, Saban led the 2005 Dolphins to a 9-7 record, the third-biggest turnaround in the NFL that season and the second-highest victory turnaround for a Dolphins team in any non-strike season. Most impressively, the Dolphins finished 2005 on a six-game winning streak to end the year, the longest streak in the NFL that season.

Before arriving in Tuscaloosa, Saban's most recent college head coaching stint was a five-season run at LSU that produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC Western Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games with two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. LSU constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the AP and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by The Birmingham News in 2001 and by the AP in 2003) while at LSU.

Named head coach at LSU on Nov. 30, 1999, Saban led an immediate turnaround of a program that had suffered through seven losing seasons during the 1990s. His 48 victories over five seasons ranked third among Division I-A head coaches during that time. Saban, Paul Dietzel and Les Miles are the only coaches in the program's history to post multiple 10-win seasons. Saban, Dietzel and Bernie Moore are the only head coaches in Tiger history to win two SEC titles.

Saban's 2000 Tigers rebounded from two straight losing seasons to post an 8-4 record, capped by a 31-20 win over No. 15 Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. Victories over Tennessee and Mississippi State highlighted that season, along with a key road win at Ole Miss.

The 2001 Tigers improved to 10-3 overall and won the program's first outright SEC title since 1986 with a 31-20 win over second-ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game. An impressive second half against the Volunteers was a trademark of Saban's coaching acumen, as LSU outscored the Vols 21-3 in the final half to erase a 17-10 deficit. They won the game despite the absence of starting quarterback Rohan Davey and running back LaBrandon Toefield.

Sparked by one of the most prolific offenses in the nation, a unit that averaged 451.5 yards per game, the Tigers capped the 2001 season with a 47-34 defeat of Big Ten champion Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, LSU's first victory in a New Year's Day bowl game since 1968.

Stifling defense was the trademark of the 2002 Tigers. LSU posted an 8-5 record and a second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance. The Tigers, who faced Texas in the Cotton Bowl, held opponents to under 275 yards per game through the season's first six games and scored a school-record 30 or more points in six straight games. LSU just missed winning a second consecutive SEC West title, as a last-minute comeback by Arkansas in the regular-season finale prevented LSU from another appearance in the SEC Championship Game. That LSU team overcame the midseason loss of starting quarterback Matt Mauck, free safety Damien James and Toefield in successive weeks to make a run at an SEC Western Division title.

Saban's philosophy of "out of yourself and into the team" paid huge dividends in 2003. The Tigers produced a 13-1 record, won their second SEC championship and earned the school's second national championship with a squad that was among the nation's most dominant on both sides of the line of scrimmage. The LSU offense scored a then-school-record 475 points (33.9 per game) while holding 13 of 14 opponents to fewer than 20 points. LSU's defense ranked first nationally in points allowed per game (11.0) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). After a 7-1 start, LSU ended the season with six dominating victories by an average margin of 35-10. An impressive 34-13 victory over Georgia in the 2003 SEC title game paved LSU's way to an appearance in the BCS Championship Game against top-ranked Oklahoma. The Tigers produced a dominant defensive effort against the Sooners in the Sugar Bowl, limiting OU to 154 yards of total offense in a 21-14 victory.

Saban's final LSU team in 2004 overcame the loss of 13 players from the 2003 squad who went on to NFL rosters, posting a 9-3 record while producing the SEC's best rushing offense (200.7 yards per game). The Tiger defense ranked third nationally during the regular season in total defense (249.9 yards per game) and passing defense (145.4 yards per game), allowing only 15.9 points per contest.

Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in only one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record.

Saban was the first coach in school history to put the Spartans in postseason bowl games in each of his first three seasons – as he led Michigan State to the Independence Bowl in 1995, the Sun Bowl in 1996 and the Aloha Bowl in 1997.

In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking, finishing in a tie for second place in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season.

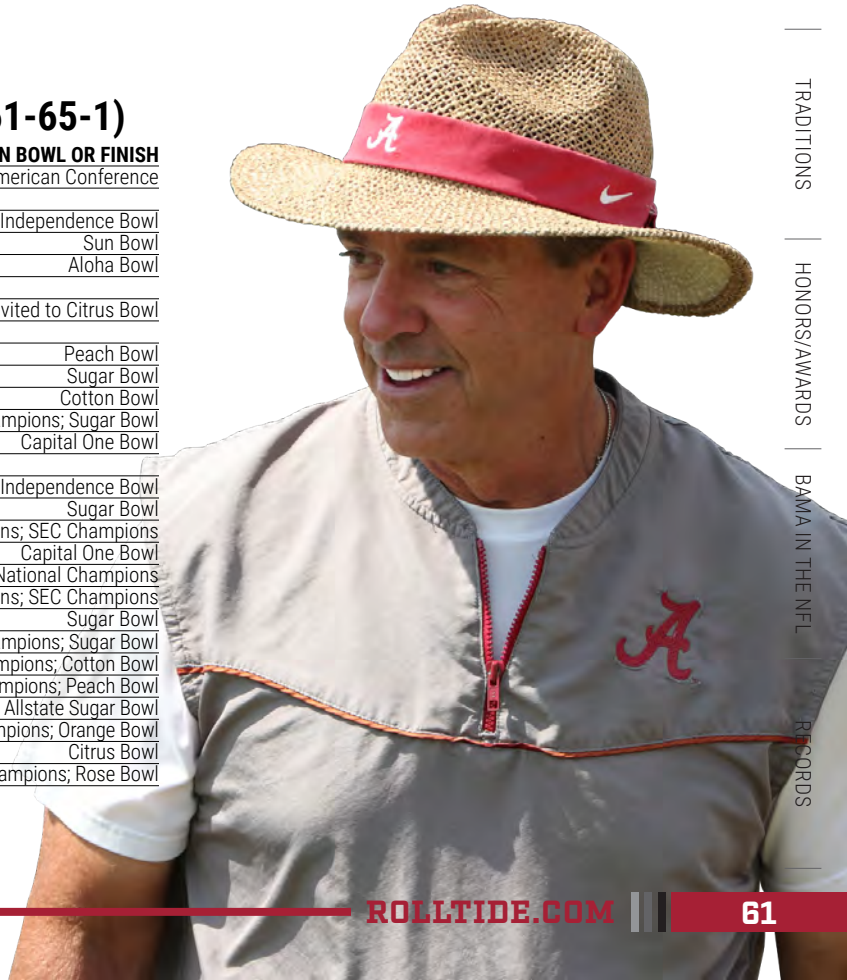

Before Michigan State, Saban spent four seasons (1991-94) as defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns under head coach Bill Belichick. The Browns went from allowing the most points (462) in the NFL prior to Saban's arrival to allowing the fewest points (204) in the league in 1994, the sixth-fewest points surrendered in NFL history at the time. In each of Saban's four years guiding the Browns defense, they never permitted an average of more than 19.2 points per game. He built a reputation as one of the finest defensive coaches in the league and was also heavily involved in the team's player personnel and scouting process.

Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a 9-2 record, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 ypg) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 ppg) and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

Saban joined Toledo after serving as secondary coach with the Houston Oilers for two seasons under Jerry Glanville (1988-89), his first NFL coaching position. He quickly made an impact on the Oilers defense, as the team's secondary tied for fourth in the AFC in 1988 with 21 interceptions and then tied for second in the conference in 1989 with 22 picks.

In his first stint at Michigan State, Saban served as secondary coach and defensive coordinator under George Perles from 1983-87.

A native of Monongah, W. Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born Oct. 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen. They have been married for 49 years and are enjoying the company of their granddaughter, Amélie, son-in-law Adam Setas and grandson, James.

Saban co-authored "Tiger Turnaround" in 2001, documenting his first two years at LSU. He then co-authored "How Good Do You Want to Be?" in 2005, a book that offers real-life principles for success at work and at home.

Saban is a member of the SEC Council on Racial Equity and Social Justice, which is comprised of a diverse group of representatives from across the 14 SEC campuses and organized into panels. It provides ongoing guidance to the SEC office and its members while identifying resources, outlining strategies and assisting with implementation of efforts that promote racial equity and social ustice.

At Michigan State, the Sabans started the Nick's Kids Foundation, which they have continued in Tuscaloosa, a vibrant example of their continuing concern for disadvantaged children. Since Nick and Terry arrived in Tuscaloosa, almost $10 million has been distributed to students, teachers and children's causes at over 150 charities through the Nick's Kids Foundation.

The Sabans also have played a big role in tornado relief efforts in Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas. Immediately following the devastating storm on April 27, 2011, Nick and Terry visited shelters where they paid for and served meals to those in need. Through Nick's Kids, the Sabans joined with Habitat for Humanity in helping to rebuild 17 homes, one for each of the Tide's national titles. With the most recent championship, the Sabans are once again joining forces with Habitat for Humanity to build their 18th home in the fall of 2021.

With support and donations from the Sabans, St. Francis Catholic Church in Tuscaloosa built the Saban Catholic Student Center, which opened in August of 2016. In receiving the 2008 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, Saban was awarded a $50,000 gift at the A-Day Game. He designated the gift for Nick's Kids, as well as an additional $20,000 gift for The University of Alabama scholarship fund. In June of 2008, the Sabans announced a $1 million gift to benefit Alabama's first-generation scholarship program. The gift has a special meaning to the Sabans, as both Nick and Terry were first-generation graduates.

Most recently, the Sabans announced plans for The Saban Center in Tuscaloosa, which create a learning center on the Black Warrior River that brings together the Children's Hands-On Museum, Tuscaloosa Public Library and the Tuscaloosa Children's Theater. The Sabans made a personal gift of $1 million to the project and the Nick's Kids Foundation contributed another $250,000.

ROBERT GILLESPIE

Running Backs

FLORIDA, 2005

Robert Gillespie joined Alabama head coach Nick Saban's staff in January of 2021 to coach the Crimson Tide's running backs.

Known as one of the country's top recruiters, Gillespie arrives at the Capstone after three years coaching running backs at North Carolina for then-head coach Larry Fedora for a season followed by two years for head coach Mack Brown.

Over the course of his 17-year career in coaching, Gillespie has produced 10 NFL running backs, including 2017 Offensive Rookie of the Year Alvin Kamara. He will add two more to that list with UNC's Javonte Williams and Michael Carter declaring for the 2021 NFL Draft. Including Kamara, Gillespie mentored three NFL backs at Tennessee, three at Oklahoma State and two each at South Carolina and West Virginia.

Gillespie guided two of the nation's finest running backs in 2020 as Carter and Williams both recorded 1,000-yard seasons. Carter led the way with 1,245 yards on the ground and nine touchdowns while Williams scored 19 times on the ground and finished with 1,140 yards. In 2019, his running backs helped the Tar Heels rank 12th nationally in total offense while rushing for 188.2 yards per game. The backfield trio of Carter, Javonte Williams and Antonio Williams combined to rush for 2,258 yards (5.8 ypc) and 11 touchdowns, while catching 40 passes for another 334 yards and three scores. UNC averaged 193 rushing yards per game and 5.3 yards per carry in 2018, ranking 19th nationally.

He joined the Carolina staff after five seasons at Tennessee, where he served as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator in addition to working with the Vols' running backs. While in Knoxville, Gillespie coached several talented backs, including Kamara, Jalen Hurd, John Kelly and Rajion Neal.

During his time on Rocky Top, Gillespie directed a rushing attack that scored a rushing touchdown in a school-record 32 straight games. The Vols scored 31 rushing touchdowns in 2016 alone to go along with 2,668 rushing yards as a team, marking the first time since the 1992, 1993 and 1994 seasons that UT had topped 2,000 rushing yards in three consecutive years.

Prior to his time at UT, Gillespie tutored running backs at West Virginia for two years (2011-12), where he helped the Mountaineers to the 2011 BIG EAST title. The Mountaineers rushed for an average of 171.8 yards per game in 2012, a marked improvement of almost 50 yards per game.

Gillespie spent a pair of seasons as the running backs coach at Oklahoma State (2009-10) where he coached future NFL running backs Kendall Hunter, Joseph Randall and Keith Toston. Hunter was an All-American for the Cowboys in 2010, ranking ninth nationally with 1,548 rushing yards, and went on to play in Super Bowl XLVII for the 49ers. Gillespie coached three All-Big 12 runners at Oklahoma State in Hunter, Toston and fullback Bryant Ward. The Pokes averaged 187.8 yards on the ground in 2009 and followed that up with 174.4 rushing yards per game in 2010, which ranked 36th in the country.

Before his stint in Stillwater, Gillespie spent four seasons at South Carolina (2005-08), beginning his tenure as a graduate assistant in 2005 before being elevated to running backs coach in 2006 where he mentored Cory Boyd, who ended up being the first USC running back drafted since 1998. As a senior, Boyd piled up 1,308 yards from scrimmage and scored 10 touchdowns.

Gillespie was a four-year letterman at the University of Florida from 1998-2001, where he played running back for the Gators. He totaled 1,854 career rushing yards and was also a reliable receiver out of the backfield. Gillespie still ranks second all-time for the Gators in receptions (96) and receiving yards (1,091) by a running back. He served as team captain in 2001, helping lead the Gators to a 56-23 Orange Bowl victory over Maryland and a No. 3 final national ranking in the Associated Press and Coaches' polls. He also helped Florida win an SEC Championship in 2000.

Following his collegiate playing career, Gillespie played in the NFL for the Washington Redskins (2002-03) and the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003). A native of Hattiesburg, Miss., Gillespie earned his undergraduate degree from Florida in 2005. He and his wife, Crystal, have two daughters, Nola and Sadie, and a son, Wynston.

4TH YEAR

PETE GOLDING

Defensive Coordinator/Inside Linebackers

DELTA STATE, 2005

Pete Golding is in his fourth year on head coach Nick Saban's staff coaching the inside linebackers and his third as the Crimson Tide's defensive coordinator after serving as the co-defensive coordinator in 2018.

His 2020 defense led the SEC in scoring (19.0 ppg) and got better as the season progressed, allowing just 15 points per game over the final nine contests. The Tide ranked third in the league in total defense and rushing defense while the pass efficiency defense also led the league and ranked 18th nationally. Middle linebackers Dylan Moses and Christian Harris paced the Crimson Tide with 80 and 79 tackles, respectively, while combining for 13.5 tackles for loss and six sacks. Moses garnered first team All-America honors from the AFCA while Harris was a semifinalist for the Butkus.

Golding's unit was devastated by injuries in 2019 and forced the first-year coordinator into starting two true freshmen at the mike and will positions in the Tide's base 3-4 scheme. Expected starters at middle linebacker, Joshua McMillon and Moses, both suffered torn ACLs in fall camp. Those setbacks forced two true freshmen into the lineup in a trial by fire scenario that saw Shane Lee finish second on the team in tackles with 86, including 6.5 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks, and Harris ranked fourth in tackles with 63 and 7.5 tackles for loss.

The inside linebackers at Alabama in 2018 were led by a pair of second team All-Americans in junior Mack Wilson and Moses. Both players started all 15 games at the mike and will spots, combining for 157 tackles. Moses was a finalist for the Dick Butkus Award in 2018 and led all tacklers with 86 stops that year. He added 10 tackles for loss (-41 yards), 3.5 sacks, a pass breakup and a forced fumble. Wilson, who was a semifinalist for the Butkus, registered 71 tackles, two interceptions, five pass breakups and six quarterback hurries.

Alabama's defense finished the 2018 season ranked third nationally in scoring (18.1 ppg) and 16th in total defense (319.5 ypg). The rushing defense was 19th nationally (121.3 ypg) while the pass efficiency defense ranked 23rd. Alabama also ranked 10th nationally in sacks per game at 3.0.

He came to Tuscaloosa after coaching defensive backs and handling the defensive coordinator duties at the University of Texas-San Antonio in 2016 and 2017. Golding's 2017 defense at Texas-San Antonio ranked seventh in the Football Bowl Subdivision, allowing just 287.8 yards per game. The Roadrunners finished eighth in scoring defense (17.0 ppg), second in first downs defense (166) and 19th in pass efficiency defense (112.19). UTSA's improvement during Golding's tenure were evident as the defense allowed 156 less yards per game and 16.8 less point per game in 2017 compared to the year prior to his arrival in 2015.

In his first season with the Roadrunners in 2016, Golding helped lead the program to six wins and its first bowl game – the 2016 Gildan New Mexico Bowl. His defense set several school records, including single-season standards for tackles (934), tackles for loss (77), sacks (27) and quarterback hurries (38). Individually, linebacker Josiah Tauaefa broke UTSA's season record for tackles with 115 on his way to becoming the program's first Freshman All-American (Football Writers Association of America) and collecting Conference USA Freshman of the Year and first team all-conference honors.

Golding joined the UTSA staff after spending two years as an assistant at Southern Miss where he coached the safeties. The Golden Eagles posted a six-win improvement in his second season, finishing 9-5 overall with a trip to the Heart of Dallas Bowl while winning the Western Division of Conference USA.

Prior to his time in Hattiesburg, Golding was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Southeastern Louisiana for two seasons (2012-13). He helped guide the Lions' program to a school-record 11 wins and its first conference title (Southern) since 1961 with a 7-0 league record. Southeastern Louisiana advanced to the quarterfinals of the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs in its first appearance and Golding's defense led the Southland in both total and scoring defense.

Before heading to Hammond, he was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater Delta State from 2010-11, leading the Statesman to the 2010 NCAA Division II National Championship Game and the Gulf South Conference title.

He also spent three years on staff at Tusculum coaching the defensive backs while coordinating the defense the final two years as the Pioneers developed into a record-setting defensive unit under his direction. In 2007, Tusculum intercepted a program-record 14 passes and produced conference-leading marks in sacks and forced turnovers on their way to an appearance in the NCAA Division II playoffs.

Golding tutored six All-Americans during his 10-year coaching career before his time in Tuscaloosa, including 2012 FCS Defensive Player of the Year and 2013 second round National Football League draft pick Robert Alford, who was a cornerback under Golding during his senior season. He coached 18 Delta State players to All-Gulf South Conference and All-South Region teams during his tenure, while six Tusculum defenders received All-South Atlantic Conference accolades.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Delta State in 2006 after starting four seasons at safety for the Statesmen (2002-05).

A native of Hammond, La., Golding and his wife Carolyn have three children, Braxton, Bentley and Bailey. Golding graduated from Delta State in 2005 with a degree in business.

3RD YEAR

CHARLES KELLY

Assoc. Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

AUBURN, 1990

Charles Kelly brought his defensive expertise to Alabama head coach Nick Saban's defensive staff in 2019 as the associate defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

Kelly, a native of Ozark, Ala., joined the Crimson Tide's staff after one season as the special teams coordinator and safeties coach at Tennessee. Prior to Knoxville, he coached five seasons at Florida State (2013-17), including the final four years as the Seminoles' defensive coordinator. Kelly has coordinated defenses and coached the secondary at Jacksonville State (1994-98), Henderson State (1999), Nicholls State (2005), Georgia Tech (2012) and Florida State (2014-17). He has a decorated background on special teams, directing those units at Georgia Tech (2006-07), Florida State (2013) and Tennessee (2018). Overall, Kelly has coached 16 All-Americans and won five conference championships, including three ACC titles and a SEC Championship in his career. As a special teams coordinator, he has coached a Ray Guy Award winner and a Lou Groza Award winner.

In 2021, Kelly returns three safeties with extensive experience, including Jordan Battle, DeMarcco Hellams and Daniel Wright along with Malachi Moore and Brian Branch who each saw extensive action at the star or nickelback position in 2020. Battle, Hellams and Wright finished third, fourth and fifth, respectively, on the team in tackles in 2020, combining for 188 stops, three interceptions and 10 pass breakups. Moore led the team in interceptions with three while Branch added two picks and seven pass breakups.

Xavier McKinney and Jared Mayden roamed the safety positions in 2019 under Kelly's direction. McKinney led the team with 95 tackles and added three interceptions while Mayden paced the defense with four interceptions to go along with 59 tackles. Alabama ranked fourth nationally while leading the SEC in pass efficiency defense (109.75) during Kelly's first year in Tuscaloosa.

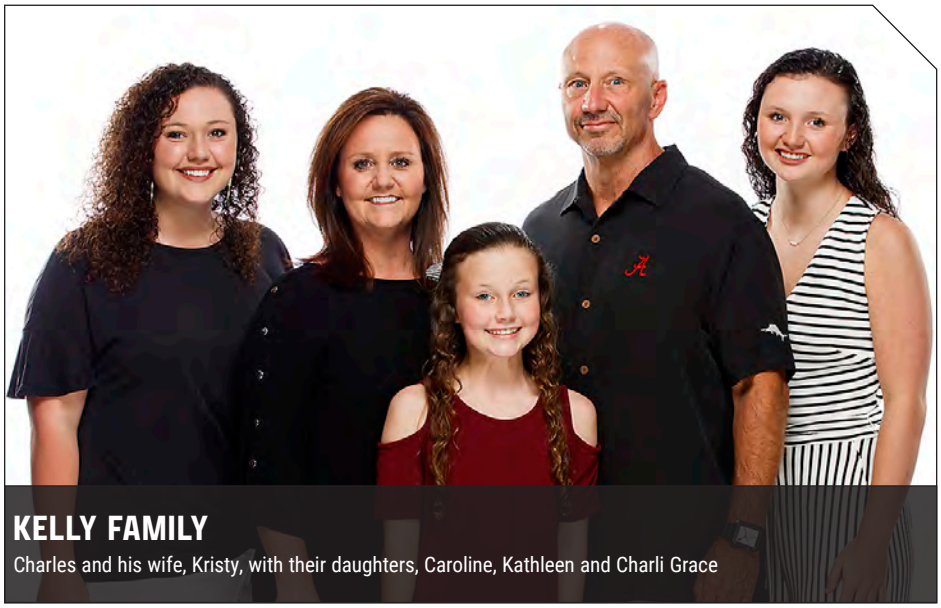

While at Tennessee, Kelly's special teams were solid, blocking five kicks (No. 5 nationally), ranking fourth in the country in punt return defense (2.00 yards per return) and fourth in the league in punt returns (12.80 ypr). His safeties Nigel Warrior and Micah Abernathy turned in solid seasons with Warrior finishing second on the team at 64 tackles while Abernathy made 38 stops with three tackles for loss.

Kelly spent five years at Florida State, serving as the defensive coordinator the final four years on Jimbo Fisher's staff after taking over for former Alabama defensive coordinator Jeremy Pruitt in 2014. His defenses in Tallahassee ranked in the nation's top 25 across his final three years, including No. 18 in 2017 after allowing only 331.1 total yards per game. FSU finished 22nd nationally in total defense in 2016 (349.1 ypg) and his 2015 unit ranked ninth in scoring defense (17.8 ppg).

He coached 10 NFL Draft picks as the coordinator for the 'Noles, including first round defensive backs Jalen Ramsey (No. 5 overall) and Derwin James (No. 17). He also mentored several first team All-Americans, including Tarvarus McFadden and Ramsey.

The Seminoles led the nation in sacks in 2016 (3.92 per game) behind 16 sacks from defensive end DeMarcus Walker. FSU also finished 22nd nationally in total defense (349.1) that season. The 2015 unit ranked ninth in the nation in scoring defense (17.8 points per game) and No. 19 in total defense (336.9). Kelly's defense in 2014 led Florida State to the first-ever College Football Playoff and helped the Seminoles produce a program-record 29-game win streak.

Kelly traveled to Florida State after seven seasons at Georgia Tech, where he coached special teams, defensive backs and served as the interim defensive coordinator during his tenure. He was elevated to defensive coordinator for the Yellow Jackets in the sixth game of the 2012 season when Georgia Tech had a 2-4 record. Kelly helped GT finish out the season 5-3, including a Sun Bowl victory over Southern Cal, where Kelly's defense held the high-powered Trojans' offense to just 205 yards and seven points.

KELLY FAMILY

In 2011, Kelly's defensive backs led a pass defense that finished No. 2 in the ACC. Two years prior in 2009, Kelly's unit helped Georgia Tech win the ACC Championship and go to the Orange Bowl, finishing 11-3. He served as the Yellow Jackets' special teams coordinator in 2006 and 2007, coaching punter Durant Brooks to the Ray Guy Award in 2007.

Kelly coached at Nicholls State from 2002 to 2005, serving as defensive backs coach for two seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator. They captured the Southland Conference title in 2005 and ranked No. 17 in the nation (FCS) in total defense. He was instrumental in developing two-time All-America cornerback Chris Thompson, who went on to be drafted by Jacksonville in 2004.

He spent two years at Eufaula (Ala.) High School after five years as a defensive coordinator at Jacksonville State (1994-98) and Henderson State (1999). He coached running backs and defensive backs at JSU and defensive backs at Henderson State. Kelly began his coaching career at Phenix City (Ala.) Central High School (1990-92) before returning to Auburn as a graduate assistant in 1993.

He is a 1990 graduate of Auburn with a degree in secondary math education. He then earned his master's degree in education from Troy in 2002. Kelly and his wife Kristy have three daughters, Caroline, Kathleen and Charli Grace.

1ST YEAR

DOUG MARRONE

Offensive Line

SYRACUSE, 1991

Doug Marrone joined the Alabama coaching staff in January of 2021 to coach the Crimson Tide's offensive line.

He will welcome back two regulars –Emil Ekiyor Jr. and Evan Neal – from Alabama's Joe Moore Award winning 2020 line while having to replace Outland Trophy winner Alex Leatherwood and Rimington Trophy recipient Landon Dickerson.

Marrone comes to Alabama after four-plus seasons as head coach of the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. He guided the Jags to the AFC Championship Game at the end of the 2017 season after finishing with a 10-6 record. His 2017 team was tied for the NFL's biggest win/loss improvement (plus-seven) among first-year head coaches and earned him AFC Coach of the Year recognition from the NFL 101 Awards.

During Marrone's tenure in Jacksonville, the Jags were among the NFL leaders in rushing yards, ranking 10th in combined rushing yards with 7,212. In four seasons as the head coach of the Jaguars, Marrone coached six players to nine Pro Bowl selections and five players to six All-Pro selections. He coached the Jags offensive line for two years prior to becoming the head coach. His 2016 offensive line allowed 17 fewer sacks than the previous season while the 2016 unit helped former Alabama running back T.J. Yeldon become the first Jaguars rookie to surpass 1,000 yards from scrimmage since Maurice Jones-Drew in 2006.

Marrone also spent two years as the Buffalo Bills head coach from 2013-14, winning 15 games over two seasons, including a 9-7 record and a second-place finish in the rugged AFC East in 2014. The 9-7 mark in 2014 was the Bills first winning record since the 2004 season. He became only the third coach in Bills history to win 15 games in his first two seasons (Marv Levy, 19; Wade Phillips, 21). His 2013 Bills team led the AFC and finished second in the NFL in rushing (144.2 ypg) while also leading the league in red zone efficiency.

Prior to joining the Bills, Marrone spent four seasons (2009-12) as the head coach of his alma mater, Syracuse, where he led the program to a 21-17 record in his final three seasons. He guided the Orange to an 8-5 mark in 2010 and 2012 with both seasons culminating with victories in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Marrone earned AFCA Region 1 Coach of the Year honors in 2011 and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award.

Marrone spent seven seasons in the NFL (2002-08) before becoming a collegiate head coach. From 2006-08, Marrone served as the offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. He directed an offense that led the NFL in total offense (391.5 avg. in 2006; 410.7 avg. in 2008) and passing yards per game (281.4 avg. in 2006; 311.1 in 2008) in two different seasons (2006-08). The Saints' offensive line held their opponents to the fewest sacks allowed in the NFL in 2006 (16) and tied for the fewest sacks in the NFL from 2006-08 with 52 despite leading the NFL with 1,868 passing attempts during that span. Quarterback Drew Brees captured the NFL passing title in 2006 (4,418 yards) and 2008 (5,069) and became just the second passer in NFL history to eclipse 5,000 passing yards (Dan Marino, 1984).

Before his time in New Orleans, Marrone was the offensive line coach of the New York Jets from 2002-05 and the team made two postseason appearances (2002, 2004) with him on the staff and Curtis Martin led the NFL in rushing in 2004. Before arriving in New York, Marrone served as tight ends/tackles coach at the University of Tennessee in 2001. He spent the 2000 season at the University of Georgia as offensive line coach after spending the previous five seasons (1995-99) at Georgia Tech where he was part of three consecutive bowl appearances. He was director of football operations for the Yellow Jackets in 1995 before coaching the tight ends in 1996 and offensive line from 1997-99.

Marrone began his coaching career in 1992 at Cortland (N.Y.) State as the school's tight ends coach before stints as the offensive line coach at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy (1993) and Northeastern University in 1994. A native of the Bronx, Marrone was a sixth-round draft pick of the Los Angeles Raiders in 1986 and played two years in the NFL. He played with the Miami Dolphins in 1987 and with the Saints in 1989. He also had playing stints with Pittsburgh, Dallas and Minnesota before closing his career with the NFL Europe's London Monarchs from 1991-92. Marrone was a three-year letterman at Syracuse. He returned to Syracuse and graduated in 1991 with a degree in liberal arts.

Doug and his wife, Helen, have two daughters, Madeline and Annie, and a son, Mack.

1ST YEAR

BILL O'BRIEN

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

BROWN, 1992

Bill O'Brien joined head coach Nick Saban's staff in January of 2021 to serve as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after six-plus years as the head coach of the NFL's Houston Texans.

O'Brien inherits an Alabama offense that will have to replace Heisman Trophy winner DeVonta Smith, record-setting quarterback Mac Jones and Doak Walker Award winning running back Najee Harris along with two unanimous All-American offensive linemen. John Metchie III returns to anchor the receiver room while Emil Ekiyor Jr. and Evan Neal return on the offensive line to help open holes for running back Brian Robinson Jr.

In addition to his role as head coach, O'Brien was also the Texans general manager for one season (2020) and compiled a 52-48 (.520) record with four AFC South titles, four playoff appearances and two appearances in the AFC Divisional Round. Houston was one of just three teams in the NFL to win four division titles from 2015-2019 (Kansas City and New England), and its 21 wins over the 2018 and 2019 seasons were the second-most in a two-year span in franchise history (22 wins from 2011-12).

O'Brien's offenses in Houston proved to be balanced and potent with the Texans ranking in the top 10 in the league in rushing yards to pair with quarterback Deshaun Watson, who threw for 4,165 yards in 2018 and 3,852 yards in 2019. The 2019 team featured a 3,500-yard passer (Watson), a 1,000-yard rusher (Carlos Hyde) and a 1,000-yard receiver (DeAndre Hopkins) for just the fourth time in franchise history. Under O'Brien, Watson grew into a two-time Pro Bowler and the only player in NFL history to record consecutive seasons (2018-19) with at least 25 passing touchdowns and five rushing touchdowns.

The Texans won the division in 2018 with an 11-5 mark, going 11-2 over the team's final 13 games with another potent offense and six Pro Bowlers. Under O'Brien's tutelage in 2017, Watson put together a historic rookie season despite playing in just seven games before sustaining a season-ending injury. He set NFL records for the most passing touchdowns (19) through a player's first seven career games and for the most passing touchdowns (18, Weeks 3-8) by a rookie over any five-game span in league history. At the time of his injury, the Texans featured the league's highest-scoring offense (30.7 points per game).

In his first three years (2014-16), O'Brien led the Texans to three straight winning seasons for the first time in franchise history and back-to-back AFC South division championships. He became just the 14th coach since 1978 to begin his NFL head coaching career with three consecutive winning seasons.

Prior to joining the Texans, O'Brien took on one of the tallest tasks in college football history when he was named head coach at Penn State on Jan. 6, 2012. He spent two years leading the Nittany Lions program, posting a 15-9 overall record and a 10-6 mark in the Big Ten, while garnering national and conference Coach of the Year awards.

Penn State won eight of its final 10 games to finish the 2012 season with an 8-4 record. O'Brien, who also served as offensive coordinator for the Nittany Lions, was named the Bear Bryant, Maxwell Football Club and ESPN National Coach of the Year after winning more games than any other first-year head coach in the program's previous 125 seasons.

A member of the Patriots' coaching staff from 2007-11, O'Brien helped lead New England to a pair of Super Bowl berths. He rose from offensive assistant to wide receivers coach in 2008 and then quarterbacks coach from 2009-10 prior to being named offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2011. The Patriots earned the top seed in the AFC with a 13-3 record and advanced to Super Bowl XLVI with O'Brien coordinating the offense in 2011. New England led the AFC in scoring with 32.1 points per game and was second in the NFL in total offense (428.0 yards per game) and passing (317.8). Quarterback Tom Brady threw for a career-high 5,235 yards (second in NFL) and 39 touchdowns during that 2011 campaign.

In O'Brien's second season as quarterbacks coach with the Patriots in 2010, Brady was selected as the first unanimous Associated Press NFL MVP after leading the team to an NFL-best 14-2 mark. While O'Brien was his position coach from 2009-11, Brady led the AFC in attempts (1,668), completions (1,096), touchdown passes (103), interception percentage (1.7) and passer rating (104.0) while ranking second in the conference in passing yards (13,533).

He last served as a college offensive coordinator at Duke during the 2005-06 seasons. Prior to his time with the Blue Devils, O'Brien was the running backs coach at Maryland (2004) after spending eight years at Georgia Tech in a myriad of roles, including graduate assistant, running backs, offensive coordinator/quarterbacks and assistant head coach (1995-2002). O'Brien started his career at Brown, coaching the tight ends in 1993 and the inside linebackers in 1994.

The native of Dorchester, Mass., O'Brien played linebacker and defensive end at Brown from 1990-92 and graduated with a double concentration in political science and organizational behavioral management in 1992. O'Brien and his wife, Colleen, have two sons, Jack and Michael.

2ND YEAR

FREDDIE ROACH

Defensive Line

ALABAMA, 2008

Freddie Roach was named the defensive line coach at his alma mater by Alabama head coach Nick Saban in February of 2020. He returned to Tuscaloosa after spending the previous three seasons at Ole Miss where he tutored a defensive line unit that anchored the Rebels' defense.

In Tuscaloosa, Roach inherited a young but talented defensive front that steadily developed throughout the Crimson Tide's march to an undefeated national championship season. Redshirt sophomore Christian Barmore led the team and was second in the SEC with eight sacks while recording 37 tackles to lead all defensive linemen. He was named the Defensive MVP of the College Football Playoff Championship Game with five tackles, including two key sacks. Phidarian Mathis stepped up along the defensive front in 2020 as well, finishing with 31 tackles, five tackles for loss, three pass breakups and three quarterback hurries. Byron Young added 6.5 tackles for loss while DJ Dale finished with 22 tackles and Justin Eboigbe had 19.

In his final season in Oxford, Roach's 2019 Ole Miss defensive line was led by nose tackle Benito Jones and defensive end Josiah Coatney. Jones recorded 10 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks while Coatney added 46 total tackles, four quarterback hurries, 3.5 tackles for loss and two sacks.

In 2018, Coatney (63) and Qaadir Sheppard (48) combined for 111 tackles and three forced fumbles. Sheppard produced a season-high 10 tackles for loss, while Markel Winters (4.0) and Jones (3.0) solidified the defensive front. During his first season at Ole Miss, Roach developed a pair of NFL Draft picks in Breeland Speaks (2nd round) and Marquis Haynes (4th round). The two combined for 14.5 sacks while earning second team All-SEC accolades. Haynes finished as Ole Miss' career leader in sacks (32.0) and tackles for loss (47.5).

Roach was previously at Alabama from 2015-17 as the Tide's director of player development where his primary focus was the off-the-field activities of Crimson Tide's football student-athletes, serving as a resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He also served as a liaison for high school coaches while assisting with Alabama camps and clinics. During his time in that role, Alabama won back-to-back SEC titles and played for national championships in both years, winning the crown after the 2015 and 2017 seasons.

Before his return to Tuscaloosa, Roach spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons as the defensive ends and outside linebackers coach at South Alabama under head coach Joey Jones. Roach helped the Jaguars end the 2013 season ranked third nationally in sacks per game and 21st in tackles for loss per contest while finishing second in the Sun Belt in pass, total and scoring defense. The 2014 defense was second in the Sun Belt in total defense.

In 2012, Roach coached Murray State's defensive line while also assisting with the strength and conditioning program. The previous fall, he coached the defensive line and was the director of strength and conditioning at East Mississippi Community College, helping lead the Lions to the NJCAA National Championship.

Roach's first stint on the Alabama coaching staff came from 2008-10 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach, during which time the Crimson Tide won both the BCS national championship and Southeastern Conference title in 2009.

As a player, Roach was a four-year letterman at linebacker for the Crimson Tide from 2002-05. During his time at the Capstone, he was named the National Freshman of the Year in addition to earning freshman All-America accolades and was twice tabbed as a second team All-SEC honoree. He was also named to Alabama's All-Decade Team for the 2000s. Following his time in Tuscaloosa, Roach signed as a free agent with the New England Patriots in 2006.

A native of Killen, Ala., he made 194 tackles with 23 tackles for loss and six forced fumbles as a senior at Brook High School. Roach earned his bachelor's degree in human environmental sciences from The University of Alabama in 2008Roach and his wife, Ashley, have three daughters, Mattie, Addison and Alexandria, and a son, Freddie III.

6TH YEAR

SAL SUNSERI

Outside Linebackers

PITTSBURGH, 1982

Sal Sunseri, a former All-American linebacker at Pittsburgh, returned to the Alabama coaching staff in 2019 after seven years away and is set to begin his sixth year coaching outside linebackers for head coach Nick Saban.

Sunseri's 2020 unit was led by redshirt junior Christopher Allen and true freshman Will Anderson Jr. with the duo combining for 23.5 tackles for loss (-100 yards) in 13 games while registering 13 sacks (-72 yards). Anderson, who earned the starting job at outside linebacker coming out of fall camp, became the first Alabama player to win the Shaun Alexander National Freshman of the Year Award in 2020 and was a consensus Freshman All-American. He led the nation in total pressures (hits, pressures and hurries) according to Pro Football Focus with 60 in 13 games, including seven sacks, 16 hits on the quarterback and 37 pressures. Allen finished with 44 tackles and six pass breakups.

In 2019, outside linebackers Anfernee Jennings and Terrell Lewis combined to make 114 total tackles with 24 tackles for loss, 14 sacks and 24 quarterback hurries. Alabama ranked sixth in the SEC for sacks (2.46 pg) and tackles for loss (6.0 pg) that season. Under Sunseri's guidance, Jennings earned first team All-SEC accolades in his fifth year in Tuscaloosa while both players would go on to be third round picks in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Sunseri returned to Tuscaloosa after making an immediate impact on the Florida defensive line in 2018. His front wreaked havoc on opposing teams' backfields as the Gators forced 11 fumbles and totaled 37 sacks in 2018, marking the first time the program achieved those combined totals since 2015. He helped Jachai Polite to an All-America caliber season with 45 tackles, 17.5 tackles for loss and 11 sacks, while Jabari Zuniga added another 45 tackles, 11 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks. He arrived in Gainesville after three seasons as the Oakland Raiders' linebackers coach (2015-17) tutoring the likes of Navarro Bowman, Bruce Irvin and Malcolm Smith.

Prior to Oakland, he worked on Jimbo Fisher's staff at Florida State in 2013 and 2014. Sunseri coached defensive ends and was promoted to defensive head coach in 2014. The Seminoles were 28-1 during Sunseri's tenure, winning the BCS national title at the end of the 2013 season and qualifying for the CFP in 2014. The 2013 defense led the nation in scoring defense and ranked No. 3 in total defense.

Sunseri left Alabama following the 2011 season to serve as Tennessee's defensive coordinator. With the Vols, Sunseri coached two of the nation's top defensive players in linebacker A.J. Johnson and corner Byron Moore. Johnson was fourth in the nation and led the SEC with an average of 11.5 tackles per game while Moore led the SEC in interceptions and ranked 11th nationally in that category.

The Crimson Tide's 2011 defense proved to be one of the best in college football history, leading the nation in numerous defensive categories, while Courtney Upshaw was named a finalist for the Butkus and Lombardi awards. Sunseri was also named a finalist for the Broyles Award, presented annually to the nation's top assistant coach. In 2010, linebacker Dont'a Hightower played several roles on his way to earning second team All-SEC honors while Upshaw led the Tide with 14.5 tackles for loss and seven sacks.

In first season at Alabama, Sunseri helped guide the Crimson Tide to the national championship behind a dominant defense that ranked second nationally in four major categories – rushing defense, pass efficiency defense, total defense and scoring defense.

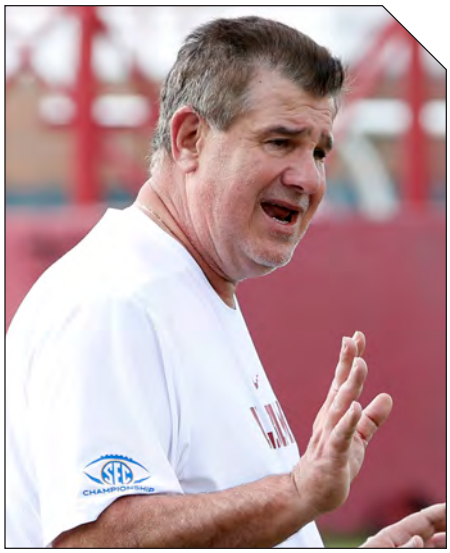

Before his time with the Crimson Tide, Sunseri coached a defensive line with the Carolina Panthers that was regarded as one of the best in the NFL from 2002-08. Defensive ends Julius Peppers and Mike Rucker along with defensive tackle Kris Jenkins earned Pro Bowl honors during Sunseri's tenure. He produced at least one Pro Bowl defensive lineman in five of his six seasons as defensive line coach. The Panthers were among the top 10 in the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed in four of his seven seasons and made three playoff appearances.

Prior to his time at Carolina, Sunseri worked as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Michigan State in 2001 after spending 2000 at LSU under head coach Nick Saban in the same capacity.

SUNSERI FAMILY

Sal and his wife Roxann, with their daughter Ashlyn and her husband Andrew Cain, daughter Jaclyn and grandson Anthony Joseph, sons Tino and Vinnie and Vinnie's fiancé, Kaci Annexstad

He coached at Alabama A&M in 1998 and 1999 as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach following three seasons from 1995-97 at Louisville as linebackers coach.

Working his way up the coaching ladder, Sunseri spent one year each at Illinois State as defensive coordinator in 1994 and Iowa Wesleyan as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and special teams coach in 1993. He broke into coaching at his alma mater, Pittsburgh, in 1985 and coached the defensive line and linebackers before being named assistant head coach in 1992.

Sunseri was a walk-on at Pitt in 1978 and ended his career as a team captain and consensus All-American in 1981. He was drafted in the 10th round by the Pittsburgh Steelers but had his pro career cut short by a knee injury in training camp. He received a bachelor's degree in communications from Pittsburgh in 1982.

He is married to the former Roxann Evans, who was a varsity gymnast at Pittsburgh. The couple has two daughters, Jaclyn and Ashlyn, and two sons, Santino and Vinnie. Santino (Tino) is the quarterbacks coach at James Madison while Vinnie begins his second year as a defensive assistant with the New England Patriots.

1ST YEAR

DREW SVOBODA

Special Teams Coordinator/Tight Ends

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN, 1999

Drew Svoboda was hired in March of 2021 by Alabama head coach Nick Saban to coach tight ends and coordinate special teams for the Crimson Tide.

After a successful run as a high school coach in the Houston area, Svoboda is beginning his fourth year in the collegiate ranks after three seasons at Rice. He spent the 2018 campaign as the Owls running backs coach before two years as the special teams coordinator (2019-20). Before joining the Crimson Tide, Svoboda coached at Memphis in the spring of 2021 as the Tigers' special teams coordinator.

At Alabama, Svoboda will inherit tight ends Jahleel Billingsley, Major Tennison and Cameron Latu along with incoming freshmen Caden Clark and Robbie Ouzts. On special teams, the Tide returns Lou Groza Award semifinalist Will Reichard, who was a perfect 98 for 98 on field goal and PAT attempts last season.

At Rice in 2020, Svoboda's Owls played five games in the middle of the pandemic with the special teams producing at a high level. The place-kickers connected on 9-of-12 field goals while the punting unit averaged 42.8 yards per punt. Rice ranked 14th nationally in total special teams rankings in 2020 by Pro Football Focus.

Faced with the challenge of replacing the C-USA Special Teams Player of the Year (Jack Fox) as well as kicker Haden Tabola in 2019, Svoboda's replacements surpassed their efforts. Former walk-on Chris Barnes earned second team all-conference honors while averaging 44.8 yard per punt and he combined to grad transfer Adam Nunez to rank fourth nationally in special teams grades from Pro Football Focus. Rice was second in the conference and 18th nationally in ESPN's specialty teams efficiency rankings and their 63.1 rating was the third highest in program history. They were second in C-USA in both net Punting and punt return defense, finishing 17th and 14th nationally in both categories. Austin Trammell ranked fourth in C-USA in punt and kick returns and the Owls ranked fourth in punt returns the conference overall with a 9.2-yard average while long snapper Cameron Riddle earned honorable mention All-Conference USA honors.

In 2018, he coached the Rice running backs and saw his runners top 100 yards four times, capped by Juma Otoviano's freshman record 224-yard effort against Old Dominion in the season finale. Senior Emmanuel Esukpa topped 100 yards in two of the first three games, including 173 yards in the season opener vs. Prairie View A&M, the most by an Owl in an opener since Trevor Cobb had 191 in 1991. Fellow senior Austin Walter concluded his career joining Cobb as the only players in school history to have 1,500 yards rushing, 500 yards receiving and 1,000 kick return yards in their career before signing as a free agent with the San Francisco 49ers.

Svoboda made the jump to collegiate coaching in 2018 after guiding Klein Collins High School to five district championships, eight playoff appearances and a 93-24 record in 10 seasons as head coach of the Tigers. His .795 winning percentage ranked sixth among active Texas 6A head coaches at the end of the 2017 season.

SVOBODA FAMILY

Drew and his wife, Kristi, with their children, Austyn an Jack

He took over a program that was 1-9 the season prior to his arrival (2008) and two years later led them to a 12-1 mark and a district championship. For his efforts, he earned the first of five Touchdown Club of Houston Coach of the Year finalist awards as well as five District 15 6A Coach of the Year honors and the Houston Texans NFL High School Coach of the Year honors.

Svoboda was named Dave Campbell's Texas Football Preseason 6A Coach of the year in 2017 after leading Klein Collins to the state semifinals in 2016. He was also tabbed by VYPE Magazine as its Houston Football Coach of the Year in 2016. Prior to that season, he coached the East Team in the Bayou Bowl High School All-Star game.

He served on the President of the Greater Houston Greater Houston Football Coaches Association and was on the Board of Directors for the Texas High School Coaches Association (THSCA), serving as the Region Five Director.

Svoboda was a three-year starter at tight end and fullback and two-time Academic All-Southland Conference at Stephen F. Austin. He helped lead the Lumberjacks to the 1999 Southland Conference title. He is a 1995 graduate of Tomball high school, where he lettered in football and track.

Svoboda and his wife, Kristi, are the parents of two children, daughter Austyn and son Jack.

1ST YEAR

JAY VALAI

Cornerbacks

WISCONSIN, 2010

Jay Valai (Vuh-LYE) was added to head coach Nick Saban's Alabama coaching staff in February of 2021 to coach the Crimson Tide's cornerbacks.

The Texas native is a former All-Big Ten defensive back at Wisconsin who boasts both collegiate and NFL coaching experience. He must replace All-American Patrick Surtain II in the Alabama defensive backfield in 2021 but welcomes back senior Josh Jobe at the other cornerback spot with both sophomores Malachi Moore and Brian Branch returning at the star or nickel corner.

Jobe recorded 55 tackles with 39 solo stops, two sacks and 11 pass breakups. Moore posted 44 tackles with four tackles for loss and a team-high three interceptions while also scoring a touchdown on a fumble recovery. Branch added 27 stops and two interceptions.

Valai arrives in Tuscaloosa after one season coaching cornerbacks at the University of Texas for then-defensive coordinator Chris Ash. During his time in Austin, Valai helped the Longhorns' Josh Thompson earn second team All-Big 12 honors after making 28 tackles, with three tackles for loss and an interception. At the opposite corner, D'Shawn Jamison recorded 31 tackles with six pass breakups as Texas ranked third in the league in yards per completion (13.5) and fourth in pass efficiency defense (128.7).

Valai served as cornerbacks coach at Rutgers in 2019 after spending the 2018 season with the Kansas City Chiefs, serving as defensive quality control and assistant defensive backs coach. The Chiefs ranked fifth in the NFL with 16 interceptions and fifth in completion percentage (62.7) while ranking 10th in the league in pass efficiency defense.

He spent the 2016 and 2017 seasons at Georgia as defensive quality control coach, helping the Bulldogs' win the Rose Bowl at the end of the 2017 season and earn a spot in the CFP National Championship Game.

Valai was a four-year letter winner at Wisconsin, where he captained the Badgers 2010 Rose Bowl team. He earned second team All-Big Ten (coaches) honors in 2008 and 2009. He totaled 153 tackles, four forced fumbles and a pair of interceptions in 48 career games. He appeared in four bowl games with the Badgers, including winning the 2010 Big Ten Championship and advancing to the Rose Bowl that same season.

Following his playing career, Valai opened a sports-performance training facility and for six years (2011-16), he worked with professional athletes from the National Basketball Association (NBA) and National Football League (NFL), as well as high school student-athletes.

Valai lettered in football, basketball and track at Colleyville Heritage High School. As a senior in 2005, he was a PrepStar All-American, first-team All-District 5-5A selection and district special teams player of the year. A team captain that year, he was also named the team's co-defensive MVP and its special teams MVP.

A native of Euless, Texas, Valai and his wife Courtney have two daughters, Jayla and Kenzli, and a son, Jaxon.

3RD YEAR

HOLMON WIGGINS

Asst. Head Coach Offense/Wide Receivers

NEW MEXICO, 2003

Holmon Wiggins is in his third season at Alabama on head coach Nick Saban's staff as the Crimson Tide's wide receivers coach and his first as the assistant head coach of the offense.

Wiggins came to Tuscaloosa after three years (2015-18) coaching wide receivers at Virginia Tech under head coach Justin Fuente. He also worked for Fuente at Memphis for four seasons (2012-15).

His first two seasons in Tuscaloosa have produced a Heisman Trophy and Biletnikoff Award winner, two All-Americans and four first-round NFL Draft picks. DeVonta Smith turned in arguably the best season by a wide receiver in college football history in 2020 on his way to winning not only the Heisman and Biletnikoff but the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year and the Paul Hornung Award. He caught 117 passes for 1,856 yards and 23 touchdowns, setting SEC marks for yards and receiving touchdowns, while finishing his career with SEC records for receptions (235), yards (3,965) and touchdowns (46). Jaylen Waddle got off to and even hotter start than Smith before an ankle injury caused him to miss eight games leading up to the national title contest, finishing with 28 receptions for 591 yards and four touchdowns in just five games at wide receiver. Sophomore John Metchie III also produced a breakout season, hauling in 55 catches for 916 yards and six scores.

His first season in Tuscaloosa did not disappoint as he helped the vaunted Crimson Tide receiving corps improve on already stellar careers. Smith turned in an impressive season with 68 receptions for a team-best 1,256 yards and 14 touchdowns. Jerry Jeudy led the team in receptions with 77 while recording 1,163 receiving yards and 10 more touchdowns to finish his career with 26 (third-most in school history). Henry Ruggs III added 40 catches for 746 yards and seven touchdowns while Waddle added six more scores, 33 receptions and 560 receiving yards.

Before coming to Tuscaloosa, Wiggins oversaw the development of Virginia Tech's wide receivers for three years, highlighted by Cam Phillips, who established himself as Tech's career leader in receptions and receiving yards. Phillips caught 76 passes for 983 yards as a junior and then followed that with 71 catches for 964 yards as a senior.

A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Wiggins had four wide receivers catch at least 26 passes in 2018. Damon Hazelton led the group with 51 catches for 802 yards and eight touchdowns while Eric Kumah caught 42 balls for 559 yards and seven scores. Tre Turner averaged 20.6 yards per catch while Hezekiah Grimsley hauled in 31 passes for 382 yards.

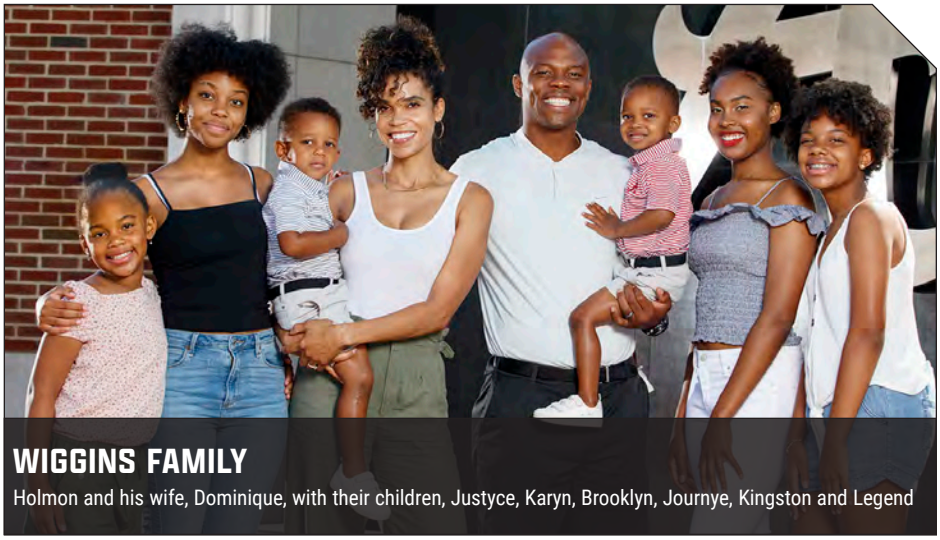

The 2017 corps at Tech was led by senior Cam Phillips who caught 71 passes for 964 yards and a career-best seven touchdowns. Phillips garnered first team All-ACC honors in 2017 and earned a spot on the Buffalo Bills roster in 2018. Phillips became Virginia Tech's career leader in receptions and receiving yards by the end of his time in Blacksburg.

Wiggins was part of a staff that helped guide Tech's offense to 10 single-season records during their first year in 2016, including points (490), passing first downs (172), touchdown passes (31), total offense (6,223), completion percentage (62.1 percent), passing yards (3,660) and pass completions (279).

He helped continue the ascent of Isaiah Ford, who broke his own Tech single-season record with 79 receptions in 2016, registering 1,094 yards and seven touchdowns in the process. Phillips, who earned Belk Bowl MVP honors in 2016, concluded his junior campaign by setting personal bests in receptions (76) and receiving yards (983).

Wiggins was an integral component of Fuente's staff that helped lead Memphis to 19 victories and back-to-back bowl appearances in 2014-15. Memphis receivers registered 148 receptions, 1,687 yards and four touchdowns in 2013 and upped that total to 205 receptions for 2,422 yards and 14 scores in 2014 before hauling in 255 passes for 3,277 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2015.

He drastically improved the production of the wide receivers corps at Memphis when he arrived in 2012, with the receivers accounting for 125 receptions and 1,417 yards. The Tigers registered 53 receiving touchdowns in 2014-15, compared to only 24 in the two seasons before Wiggins' arrival.

WIGGINS FAMILY

Holmon and his wife, Dominique, with their children, Justyce, Karyn, Brooklyn, Journye, Kingston and Legend

Wiggins joined the Memphis program after a one-year stint tutoring the running backs at Tulsa in 2011. The TU running backs combined for 2,006 rushing yards, while H-Back Willie Carter led Tulsa with 868 receiving yards that season, meriting a spot on the All-Conference USA second team.

Prior to Tulsa, Wiggins enjoyed a five-year stint coaching running backs at Illinois State from 2006-10, helping guide the Redbirds to the FCS quarterfinals in his initial season on the staff. Under his tutelage in 2006, running back Pierre Rembert earned All-America accolades and rushed for a school-record 1,743 yards. From 2006-08, Illinois State averaged 187.7 rushing yards per game and racked up 76 rushing scores.

Wiggins began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of New Mexico, after an outstanding playing career with the Lobos. He was a three-year starter at running back, finishing his career with 1,833 rushing years while setting the Lobos' single-season record for punt returns (46) and punt return yards (392). He is a 2003 graduate of the University of New Mexico.

Wiggins and his wife Dominique have four daughters, Justyce, Karyn, Brooklyn and Journye and two sons, Kingston and Legend.

2ND YEAR

DAVID BALLOU

Director of Sports Performance

INDIANA, 2001

Regarded among the best in the field, David Ballou joined the Alabama program in March of 2020 as the Director of Sports Performance after two years at Indiana University where he was the Director of Athletic Performance.

Ballou brings a scientific approach to the Crimson Tide's tradition of hard work and dedication that is put towards getting faster and stronger. Working alongside Dr. Matt Rhea, the Tide's director of sports science, Ballou implements Coach Saban's offseason program, which includes the well-known "Fourth-Quarter Program."

Ballou and his entire strength and conditioning staff work in unison with athletic training and performance nutrition to create the optimal environment for training and development. At Alabama, Ballou oversees the Crimson Tide's 37,000-square-foot weight room that was updated in the spring of 2020 with 20 Elite Form Power Trackers and three 1080 Sprint devices from 1080 Motion.

The $9-million Alabama weight room opened in 2013 and features 21,000-square feet on the first level and 16,000-square feet on the second floor. The ground level is comprised of a weight room that is highlighted by 24 combination racks that feature platforms built into the ground for a level surface that provides a safer training environment. The weight room also has a state-of-the-art performance nutrition center to fuel Alabama student-athletes, plus physicians' offices and strength and conditioning offices.

While overseeing the Hoosiers, 11 players earned All-Big Ten honors in 2019 as Indiana went 8-5 and played in the Gator Bowl, the team's first Florida bowl game. IU's eight wins were also its most since 1993. Four IU standouts moved on to the NFL under Ballou, including Washington Redskins fourth-round pick Wes Martin. In total, Ballou has trained 31 NFL draft picks in his career.

Prior to Indiana, Ballou spent 2017 as Notre Dame's co-director of football strength and conditioning. In his lone season in South Bend, the Fighting Irish went 10-3 with a victory over LSU in the Citrus Bowl. Notre Dame had posted a 4-8 record prior to his arrival. During his time with the Fighting Irish, Ballou helped develop a Joe Moore Award-winning offensive line, honoring the best line in the country. Two of those linemen, guard Quenton Nelson (6) and tackle Mike McGlinchey (9), were drafted in the Top 10 of the 2018 NFL Draft while four ND players were selected overall.

Before his time in college, Ballou worked as the head football strength and conditioning coach at IMG Academy in Bradenton, Fla., for two years, helping both the 2015 and 2016 teams go undefeated. In 2016, seven IMG players were laser-timed at under 4.5 seconds in the 40-yard dash one year after having no players reach that mark. Twenty-one of the 22 starters to open the 2016 campaign also started in the final game of the season.

Ballou's longest tenure was at Avon (Ind.) High School from 2002-14. During his time as the strength and conditioning coach, the teams won six state championships in multiple sports and seven others were finalists. He assisted in the development of 80 Division I athletes. In 2014, Ballou was a finalist for the NSCA National High School Strength Coach of the Year.

A graduate of Indiana in 2001, Ballou played fullback for the Hoosiers from 1997-99 and was recognized as the Hoosier Strength Challenge Champion. Ballou earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology while in Bloomington and obtained a master's degree in human movement from A.T. Still University in 2009.

Ballou has been a certified strength and conditioning specialist since 2001. He is married to the former Leah Horn, a Bloomington, Ind., native who was a pole vaulter and graduate at Indiana. The couple has two daughters, Mallory and Aubrey.

2ND YEAR

MATT RHEA

Director of Sports Science

SOUTHERN UTAH, 1998

Dr. Matt Rhea joined the Crimson Tide in March of 2020 as the Football Director of Sports Science.

Rhea brings a scientific approach to the Crimson Tide's tradition of hard work and dedication that is put towards getting stronger and faster. Working alongside David Ballou, the Tide's director of sports performance, Rhea dives into the science of sports training that helps strip away pre-existing impediments to help Alabama's student-athletes reach their fullest athletic potential.

In his role, Rhea utilizes Alabama's Sports Science Center that opened in July of 2020. The structure features state-of-the-art recovery technology that will be a perfect complement to the objective data that Dr. Rhea collects during practices and workouts. This data will help Alabama's strength and conditioning staff, along with athletic training and nutrition, determine exactly what recovery strategies each player needs to create the optimal environment for training and development on a personalized level.

Rhea has worked as a football strength and conditioning coach for 13 years, including five years with NFL Combine training, five in high school football and three at the collegiate level. He came to Alabama from Indiana University, where he spent the previous two years as IU's High-Performance Coordinator while working with the Hoosiers' football program.

Prior to his time in Bloomington, he was the head of sport science at IMG Academy from 2016-17. There, he contributed to the optimal development of athletes through innovative assessments and advanced strength and conditioning.

Rhea launched a consulting company in 2001 and helped NFL, NBA, MLB and NHL teams, International Olympic programs and college athletic departments. He provided direction to his clients in areas like speed training, injury prevention and performance optimization.

He advanced to a full professor of kinesiology at A.T. Still University where he taught courses in sports conditioning and exercise physiology. Rhea has published nearly 100 studies in sports performance enhancement, as well as lecturing in seven different countries.

While attending school, he played football for three years at both UNLV and Southern Utah University. He received his bachelor of science degree in physical education from Southern Utah in 1998, a master of science in exercise science and physical education from Arizona State in 2001, and a master of science in sports management from American Public University in 2016.

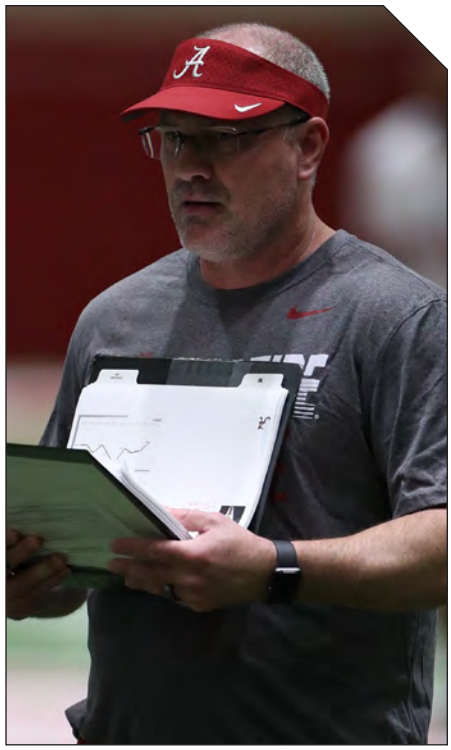

He went on to earn his doctorate of philosophy in 2004 from Arizona State with an exercise and sport science academic focus and an athletic performance enhancement research focus.

Rhea and his wife Kellie have five sons, Isaac, Jake, Ethan, Kelen and Karsten.

JEFF ALLEN

Associate AD, Sports Medicine

GEORGIA SOUTHERN (1993)

Associate athletics director for sports medicine Jeff Allen is in his 15th season at The University of Alabama and his 33rd consecutive season working as an athletic trainer in college football.

In his role at Alabama, Allen oversees a staff of 27 athletic trainers that are responsible for the medical care of all Alabama teams. Jeff is also a member of Coach Saban's original staff from 2007 and has been a part of all six national championships during Coach Saban's tenure at the Capstone.

Before joining the Crimson Tide, Allen was the head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida. At UCF, Allen was responsible for all the sports medicine needs for the entire department.

One of the most respected athletic trainers in the country, Allen was honored with National Athletic Trainers Association's Division I Head Athletic Trainer of the Year Award at their 2018 symposium for his work during the 2017 season. Through collaborations with the College of Engineering, Allen was the original inventor of the SidelinER, a medical tent that is now used on almost every sideline in college football and in the NFL.

He has authored several published articles and is a regular speaker at national and state athletic training conferences. His work has been published by The Journal of Athletic Training and Athletic Therapy Today. Allen has served as a featured speaker at conferences held by the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association, as well as state meetings in Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Prior to his post at UCF, Allen was head athletic trainer at Chattanooga from 2000-04, overseeing the athletic training operations for 16 varsity sports while handling all of the duties associated with the football program.

Allen was an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky from 1997-2000 and earlier served as an assistant athletic trainer from 1995-97 at Valdosta (Ga.) State, where he was head athletic trainer for the football and baseball teams.

He earned a master's degree at Valdosta State University in 1995 and a bachelor's degree from Georgia Southern University in health and physical education in 1993. Jeff's wife Mary is a professor in the University of Alabama Speech-Language pathology program. They have one daughter, Makennah, who is a Crimsonette with the Millon Dollar Band.

7TH YEAR

ELLIS PONDER

Assoc. AD, Football/Football COO

ALABAMA (2010)

Ellis Ponder is in his fifth year as Alabama's Associate Athletics Director, Football Chief Operating Officer and his seventh year with the program. He was elevated to the director of football operations role in February of 2017 after spending the 2015 and 2016 seasons as the Crimson Tide's associate director of football operations.

His primary role with the Crimson Tide is to oversee all day-to-day organizational and operational aspects of the Alabama football program. Ponder provides oversight and direction for the football program in all off-field areas including the management of football operating budget, operations and all team travel. Ponder also serves as the football program's liaison to athletic administration.

During his two years as associate director of football operations, Ponder also assisted with all team travel, logistics and the day-to-day operations of the football program.

A native of Fairhope, Ala., he spent the previous four years as an event director for the Bruno Event Team in Birmingham, Ala. Ponder helped manage a wide array of sporting events during his time with the Bruno Event Team, including the Regions Tradition, which is a major on the PGA Champions Tour, and the PGA Tour's BMW Championship.

`During his time with the Bruno Event Team, he also helped organize and run the SEC Baseball Tournament, the SEC Women's Golf Championship, the SEC and NCAA Gymnastics Championships, the NCAA College Cup, CrossFit Games, the Honda Indy Grand Prix of Alabama, the Magic City Classic and a wide range of Alabama High School Athletic Association events across the state.

While in school at the Capstone, Ponder served as a student assistant in the Crimson Tide football equipment room from 2006 through the spring of 2011. His last four years in the role he was assigned to offensive line coach Joe Pendry, assisting at daily practices while also working the 2006 and 2007 Independence Bowls, the 2009 Sugar Bowl, 2010 BCS National Championship Game at the Rose Bowl and the 2011 Capital One Bowl.

Ponder holds two degrees from The University of Alabama, finishing his undergraduate degree in business administration in 2010 before completing his master's degree in marketing in 2011.

1ST YEAR

TODD WATSON

Special Asst. to the HC

UNIVERSITY OF MOBILE (1993)

Todd Watson is in his first year as a special assistant to head coach Nick Saban.

At Alabama, Watson will assist the head coach with a myriad of responsibilities, including high school relations, offensive and special teams game preparations and breakdowns while also assisting with camps and clinics.

Watson joins the Alabama staff after three seasons at the University of Tennessee where he spent two of those years as the Director of Football Operations and his final season as the Director of Football Programming.

Prior to his time in Knoxville, Watson served as the Director of Operations and High School Relations at Troy from 2015-17. The Trojans combined to go 20-5 over his final two seasons and shared the Sun Belt Championship with Appalachian State in 2017, earning a berth in the New Orleans Bowl. The Trojans finished 10-3 in 2016, including a victory over Ohio University in the Dollar General Bowl.

Watson was one of the most successful high school coaches in Alabama before joining the staff at Troy. He posted a record of 80-36 in 10 seasons as the head coach at Foley High School, where he coached former Alabama standout and Atlanta Falcons' All-Pro Julio Jones along with future NFL players such as Robert Lester and D.J. Fluker.

A native of Mobile, Ala., Watson spent five seasons (2000-04) as the defensive coordinator at Hoover High School where he helped lead the Buccaneers to a 70-4 record and four Alabama 6A state titles. He compiled a 24-2 record in two seasons (1998-99) as the defensive coordinator at Bryant High School after five years as an assistant coach at Alba High School from 1993-97.

Watson's teams at Foley made the playoffs each of the 10 years he was at the helm of the program and reached the third round of the playoffs twice. He guided his team to a 16-14 victory over rival Daphne in 2007 in a game that was televised live by ESPN.

A 1993 graduate of the University of Mobile with a bachelor's degree in health & physical education, Watson is married to the former Christie Mallory of Mobile. The couple has two daughters, Micah and LeighAshton, a Troy University graduate who is married to Seth Nuss.

4TH YEAR

BOB WELTON

Director, Player Personnel

ADRIAN (MICH.) (1991)

Bob Welton joined the Alabama staff in May of 2018 as the Director of Player Personnel.

Welton's responsibilities with the Crimson Tide include the organization of all recruiting efforts while also working with compliance regarding initial eligibility and assisting with coaching clinics, camps and other on-campus events.

He came to Alabama after a brief stint as Nebraska's director of recruiting operations during the spring of 2018. Welton also brought several years of SEC experience to Tuscaloosa, serving as the director of player personnel at Tennessee for five seasons (2013-17). With the Volunteers, he helped Tennessee put together five top-25 recruiting classes, including two top-10 classes according to 247Sports.com, finishing No. 7 in 2014 and fourth in 2015.

A nine-year veteran of the NFL, Welton served as a college scout with the Browns from 2004-13 before moving on to Knoxville. Prior to joining the Browns, he spent seven years as a high school football coach.

His final stop in high school was at Coloma (Mich.) High School where he guided the team to its first undefeated season and first playoff victory in school history. After the season, he was named the Lakeland Conference and MHSFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year. He led South Haven (Mich.) High School for six years (1997-2002) where he helped revive the program and rebuild the school's football stadium.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, who grew up in Luna Pier, Mich., Welton graduated from Erie-Mason High School. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education/health at Adrian (Mich.) College in 1991, where he played quarterback and was part of two MIAA championship teams. Welton and his wife Laura, have a son, Tye, and a daughter, Brooke.

AMY BRAGG

Director, Performance Nutrition

Amy Bragg is beginning her 12th season as The University of Alabama Athletics Department's director of performance nutrition, a role that spans all 21 of the Crimson Tide's sports.

A registered and licensed dietitian (RD, LD) and board certified specialist in sports dietetics (CSSD), Bragg came to Tuscaloosa after seven seasons as director of performance nutrition for Texas A&M University Athletics.

A recognized leader in collegiate sports nutrition, Bragg has presented at numerous professional conferences. She was a founding board member and served as president of the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitians Association (CPSDA), and is a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (AND), Sports Cardiovascular and Wellness Nutrition (SCAN) and Behavioral Nutrition (BN) practice groups. Amy was given the Trailblazer Award by CPSDA in 2015 honoring her role in the advancement of the sports nutrition field, and named University of Houston College of Technology Distinguished Alumni in 2011.

Bragg uses a more hands-on approach in working with athletes, and has championed the changes allowing liberalized fueling for student athletes in NCAA athletics.

She developed Alabama's Performance Nutrition program from one full-time position to three full-time registered dietitians, one full-time performance chef, three full-time interns and 20-plus graduate and undergraduate student workers. She oversees and manages team meals, snacks and recovery nutrition, while meeting the demand for nutrition coaching and education, which are drivers for growth in nutrition services. Bragg and other members of the UA performance nutrition staff prioritize mentoring future sports nutrition practitioners in order to continue the advancement of RDs in sports.

Bragg earned a bachelor's of business administration from the University of Texas in 1995 and a bachelor's of science in human nutrition and foods from the University of Houston in 2000.

Bragg and her husband Bobby have a daughter, Rebecca, and a son, Beau.

DANIEL BUSH

Director, Recruiting

Daniel Bush joined the Alabama football staff in March of 2018 as the Crimson Tide's director of football recruiting.

He arrived in Tuscaloosa after a short stint as the director of player personnel at Colorado State. Prior to that, he served four seasons as Arkansas' director of personnel and assistant director of recruiting.

Bush's responsibilities at Alabama include the marketing and branding of the Crimson Tide program relative to recruiting as well as serving as a liaison between the football staff and creative media team. He is also charged with helping identify and evaluate potential prospects along with overseeing all aspects of the recruiting specialist students and management of the recruiting calendar.

During his four seasons at Arkansas, Bush maintained all recruiting boards and roster management charts and oversaw the staff of 15 quality control interns and students. He also aided in prospect identification and prospect evaluation. Bush also helped create and oversee the execution of the Razorbacks year-round recruiting marketing calendar while planning and executing on-campus recruiting events.

He came to Fayetteville after serving as a football operations and recruiting specialist at Alabama from 2011-2014. Bush worked with assistant coaches to maximize productivity in evaluating and recruiting prospects while updating prospect information and maintaining personnel boards.

He also spent the summer of 2013 with the San Francisco 49ers where he served as a research assistant. He conducted in-depth studies on both sides of the football while also analyzing results and creating presentations for the coaching staff.

Bush holds three degrees from The University of Alabama, including two masters. He graduated summa cum laude in mathematics from the honors college in 2011 and followed that with a masters in mathematics and then earned a master's of business administration in 2014.

Daniel and his wife Ashley have one son, Caleb.

JOSH CHAPMAN

Director, Player Development

Josh Chapman was named one of Alabama's directors of player development in February of 2020 after spending the previous four years working as a strength and conditioning assistant in the Crimson Tide's weight room.

In his role working as one the Tide's directors of player development, Chapman's main focus is the off-the-field activities of Alabama football's student-athletes, and he serves as an important resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He also serves as a liaison for high school coaches while assisting with Alabama camps and clinics.

Chapman originally joined the Crimson Tide staff in February of 2016 as part of the strength and conditioning staff. He returned to Tuscaloosa following a four-year stint in the National Football League with the Indianapolis Colts. The former defensive tackle helped lead the Colts to three consecutive playoff appearances, including the conference championship in 2014.

He was selected by the Colts in the 2012 NFL Draft after a standout career at Alabama. While with the Crimson Tide from 2008-11, UA went 48-6 overall and claimed the 2009 and 2011 national championships. He played in 44 total games while at the Capstone.

A native of Hoover, Ala., Chapman helped Hoover High School to the state title game as a senior. He was rated as the No. 12 prospect in Alabama coming out of HHS after recording 97 tackles, including 22 for loss and two sacks, with an interception as a senior.

Chapman earned his bachelor's degree in human and environmental sciences from The University of Alabama in 2011. He is married to the former Kourtney Ancar. The couple has three sons, Abram, Joshua Jr. and Jru.

DENZEL DEVALL

Director, Player Development

Denzel Devall was named Alabama's director of player development in February of 2017 after a year as the associate director of player development in 2016.

In his role as the Tide's director of player development, Devall's main focus is off-the-field activities of Alabama football's student-athletes, and he serves as an important resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He also serves as a liaison for high school coaches while assisting with Alabama camps and clinics.

He joined the Crimson Tide staff in July of 2016 as the associate director of player development after an outstanding four-year career on the field for the Crimson Tide. He was part of two national championship teams (2012 and 2015) and helped win three SEC titles (2012, 2014 and 2015).

During his playing career, Devall saw time in 50 career games with 25 starts at outside linebacker while making 84 tackles with 14 tackles for loss and six sacks. He was a Freshman All-American in 2012 by the Sporting News.

A native of Bastrop, La., he was a 2011 Louisiana Sports Writers Association 4A All-State selection as a senior at Bastrop High School. Devall earned his bachelor's degree in human and environmental sciences from The University of Alabama in 2015.

Devall has one daughter, Peyton.

DR. GINGER GILMORE-CHILDRESS

Director, Behavioral Medicine

Dr. Ginger Gilmore-Childress serves as the Director of Behavioral Medicine, where she oversees the behavioral and mental health care of the student athlete population. In addition, Ginger serves as certified athletic trainer for football.

Coach Saban hired her from a successful career with Alabama baseball program in 2007. He introduced the idea of joining his staff to create an awareness of and manage the mental wellbeing of student-athletes. Her focus is on the health and well-being of the student-athlete, on and off the field.

She facilitates the process of understanding the mental makeup of each athlete and modification of the approach to coaching, academics, and social aspects based on the individual's needs.

With degrees in Athletic Training (UA), Sports Administration (NSU), and Integrated Behavioral Health (ASU), Dr. Gilmore-Childress uniquely blends resources for the physical, mental, and behavioral health care needs of today's student-athlete. Her model of integrated behavioral health care for collegiate athletes serves as a benchmark for other collegiate and professional programs. She is called upon for speaking engagements, program consultation and development, and is considered an expert on the successful implementation of mental health resources in athletics.

Dr. Gilmore-Childress has over 28 years of practice as a Certified Athletic Trainer. She is a forerunner, paving the way for female athletic trainers in Division I football and baseball. Her athletic training experience includes women's basketball, the Olympic Games, and volunteer work overseas. Gilmore-Childress also serves on several boards and committees including appointment to the Graduate Faculty at UA.

Away from work, she competes as an equestrian on a national championship level in the discipline of Dressage. Her current pony, Red Zone, is competing for his first title. She is from Bay St. Louis, Miss.

JEREMY GSELL

Director, Football Rehabilitation Services

Jeremy Gsell is in his 16th season as an athletic trainer for the Alabama football program and his sixth as director of rehabilitation services.

In his primary role at Alabama, Gsell is charged with facilitating the long-term injury and post-surgical care and rehabilitation for all football student-athletes. This includes serving as the direct liaison to the Crimson Tide's weight room and team physicians.

He is the direct supervisor to the assistant football athletic trainers Bobby Feeback and Paige Ruden as well as performance analyst Clay Keith.

Prior to his arrival at Alabama, Gsell served as an athletic trainer at the University of Southern Mississippi for two seasons (2005 & 2006) where he was the Golden Eagles' primary trainer for men's basketball while assisting with football.

His first stint at Alabama came as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Crimson Tide football program from 2003-05. During his time at the Capstone, Gsell completed his master's degree in sports management in 2005.

Gsell spent a year interning with the NFL's Indianapolis Colts in 2002-03 where he covered practices, workouts and games while also overseeing inventory management. He assisted with the Colt's daily rehab and athlete treatment.

He is regular speaker at athletic training conferences, including the SEC Athletic Trainers Association, the Alabama state conferences for ALATA, ASMI and The University of Alabama Athletic Training Program. He serves as an adjunct professor at Alabama, teaching lab classes for principles of rehabilitation and reconditioning in athletic training.

Gsell is a 2002 graduate of Salisbury University with a degree in physical education, concentrating in athletic training.

A native of Rock Hall, Md., Gsell and his wife Dana have one son, Brayden.

DANIEL LYERLY

Assistant AD, Technology Operations

In his role as assistant athletics director of technology operations, Daniel Lyerly oversees technology operations for all sports at The University of Alabama.

He is in his 17th season with the University and continues to ensure that Alabama Athletics is at the forefront of innovative IT solutions to remain among the top universities in the nation in sports technology.

Lyerly not only administers all video and technology for Alabama's football coaching staff, but he also produces selected segments for the "Nick Saban Show" and facilitates all production aspects of public service announcements and commercials featuring Nick Saban. Additionally, he offers coaches the most up-to-date recruiting technologies in order to attract top talent to the University.

Before moving to Tuscaloosa, Lyerly spent two years as a student assistant at Coastal Carolina University in 2002 and 2003 working in the video and equipment departments, helping them form their first football team. Following that, he transferred to Alabama and received his undergraduate degree in political science with a minor in computer science.

Originally from Conway, S.C., Lyerly is an Eagle Scout member of Troop 804 and a Vigil Honor Member of Santee Lodge 116, Order of the Arrow, Pee Dee Area Council, BSA. He is married to the former Brandy Moore. They have one son, Benjamin.

SAM PETITTO

Director, Personnel Operations

Sam Petitto is in his sixth year as Alabama's director of personnel operations. He arrived in Tuscaloosa after two years as Georgia's director of player personnel.

At Alabama, Petitto assists the Crimson Tide's director of player personnel and director of recruiting while identifying and evaluating future prospects. He is also charged with updating prospect boards and assisting with the coordination of all on-campus recruiting events while working camps, junior days and clinics.

During his two seasons (2014-15) at Georgia as the director of player personnel, Petitto evaluated high school players from across the country while serving as the program's NFL liaison. He also coached defensive backs for the Bulldogs in the 2015 Tax Slayer Bowl.

Petitto's first stint at Alabama came during the 2008 season, working as a defensive analyst. Prior to that, he spent the 2007 campaign at North Carolina under Butch Davis where he worked as a defensive graduate assistant before becoming the Tar Heels' director of player personnel under the direction of associate head coach John Blake.

Petitto spent three seasons (2004-06) as an assistant coach at Grambling where he coached defensive backs and served as the Tigers' recruiting coordinator. He helped Grambling to the 2005 Black College National Championship and his secondary ranked first in the Southwestern Athletic Conference in five categories.

Before his first stint at Southeastern, Petitto had success in the Louisiana high school ranks with stops at Class 1A Kentwood (1998), Class 3A Amite (1999) and Class 4A Salmen High (2000). During his first three seasons in the high school ranks, Petitto helped each school to the Louisiana state championship, with identical 15-0 records at Kentwood and Amite – his alma mater.

Petitto earned his degree from the University of Louisiana Monroe in 1998 after attending Southwest Mississippi Community College on a baseball scholarship. He has one daughter, Malia.

JEFF SPRINGER

Associate Athletics Director, Equipment Operations

The all-important role of associate athletics director for equipment operations is coordinated by Jeff Springer, now in his 11th season with the Crimson Tide. Springer joined the Alabama staff in 2011 after serving four years (2007-10) as the head athletic equipment manager at Louisiana Tech.

Prior to his time at Louisiana Tech, Springer held the same position at The Citadel in Charleston, S.C., from 2006-07.

A native of Slidell, La., Springer spent three years (2003-05) as the first assistant equipment manager at Louisiana State University. He worked primarily with LSU's football program while also managing women's soccer, women's gymnastics, cheerleading, track and field/cross country and swimming and diving.

In the summer of 2001, Springer interned with the Miami Dolphins. He spent the next two seasons working as an intern in his home state at LSU and Tulane University.

Springer earned a kinesiology degree from LSU in 2001. He is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and the American Football Coaches Association.

Springer is married to the former Anna Bannister and the couple has one daughter, Bailey.

J.T. SUMMERFORD

Director, Football Operations

J.T. Summerford is in fourth year as Alabama's director of football operations and his 10th season with the program. He was elevated to the director's role in February of 2018 after spending the 2017 season as the Crimson Tide's assistant director of football operations.

His primary role with the Crimson Tide is to help oversee the day-to-day organizational and operational aspects of the Alabama football program in consultation with associate athletics director Ellis Ponder. During his lone season as the assistant director of football operations in 2017, Summerford also served as an assistant to the director of player personnel and operations, while helping oversee the organization and execution of the recruiting department. He assisted with team travel, logistics and day-to-day operations.

Summerford began his career with the Crimson Tide as a recruiting specialist in May of 2012 before being promoted to head recruiting specialist in April of 2013 where he served for two seasons. He was promoted to recruiting analyst in 2015 and spent two seasons in that role.

A native of Tuscaloosa, Ala., Summerford holds two degrees from The University of Alabama, completing his bachelors of science in accounting and management in 2013 and then finishing his masters of business administration from the Manderson Graduate School of Business in 2015.

He has been a part of three national championship teams at Alabama (2012, 2015 and 2017) along with four SEC titles teams and trips to four national championship games, three Sugar Bowls, a Cotton Bowl and a Peach Bowl.

Summerford is married to the former Kelsey Cameron. His grandfather, Tom Danner, played football at Alabama from 1951-54 and also earned All-SEC recognition as part of the Crimson Tide's track and field program. Summerford's father, John, also served as a trainer at Alabama from 1976-79.

PRESIDENT
DR. STUART R. BELL

Dr. Stuart R. Bell became the 29th president of The University of Alabama on June 18, 2015. Currently in his 7th year of leading the University, Dr. Bell previously served the Capstone for 16 years as a faculty member and then department head of mechanical engineering.

Under his leadership, the University developed and implemented a strategic plan, Advancing the Flagship, which promotes institutional progress with scholarship and teaching, research and creative activity, inclusion and diversity and the recruitment and retention of highly qualified faculty and staff. Since the plan's launch, UA has seen an increase in both student retention and graduation rates; has increased faculty headcount to support the University's instruction, research and service goals; has witnessed the growth of sponsored program awards crucial to direct learning and experience opportunities for students; and has benefited from three consecutive historic fundraising years. New interdisciplinary research centers have also been established and join many other programs on campus focused on solving critical, real-world challenges.

Prior to becoming UA's president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University and served as both the chief academic officer and the chief operating officer. Before his time at LSU, Dr. Bell served the University of Kansas as dean of the School of Engineering.

With research concentrations in combustion engines, Dr. Bell has expertise in fuels for engines, innovative engine designs and modeling of engine and engine processes. He founded and directed UA's Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies, an interdisciplinary research center producing new generations of engineers and scientists. Dr. Bell was also inducted as an Engineering Department Fellow by UA's department of mechanical engineering. He was awarded the Society of Automotive Engineer's Ralph Teetor Award for Outstanding Contributions to Research and Teaching and the T. Morris Hackney Faculty Leadership Award for the College of Engineering.

Dr. Bell was also honored with the Richard S. Woodbury Award from the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, was selected as a recipient of the Dwight Look College of Engineering Outstanding Alumni Award from Texas A&M University and was elected to the Academy of Distinguished Alumni in Mechanical Engineering at his alma mater. He also recently joined the 2021-2022 SEC Executive Committee

An Abilene, Texas native, Dr. Bell earned a degree in nuclear engineering from Texas A&M in 1979. He earned his master's and doctoral degrees in mechanical engineering from the same university in 1981 and 1986, respectively.

It was also at Texas A&M that Dr. Bell met his wife, Susan. They are the proud parents of three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen and three delightful granddaughters and a grandson. Both of Dr. Bell's sons followed in his footsteps and are engineers. His daughter Stacy is a UA alumna.

ON CAMPUS

NOT ALL LEGENDS WEAR HELMETS

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

The University of Alabama knows a thing or two about legends.

Legends have been made in our academic halls, on our athletic fields and courts, and through our endeavors to shape a better world through our teaching, research and service.

UA legends earn prestigious honors, such as Pulitzer Prizes, Emmy Awards, Heisman Trophies and Medals of Honor. They wear names like inventor, entrepreneur, best-selling author, pioneer, CEO, founder and national champion.

Here are just a few of our legends:

Best-selling authors: Harper Lee, “To Kill a Mockingbird”; Winston Groom, “Forrest Gump”; Kathryn Stockett, “The Help”; Mark Childress, “Crazy in Alabama”; and T.S. Stribling, “The Store.”

CEO/Chairman of the Board/Executive Chairman/President/Senior Vice President/COO/Senior Director: Marillyn Hewson, Lockheed Martin (retired); W.W. Clements, Dr Pepper Company (retired); Sam DiPiazza, Mayo Clinic; Thom Rainer, Lifeway Christian Resources (retired); Vicki Hollub, Occidental Petroleum; Marie Robinson, Sysco Corporation; Nan Boden, Google.

Science: Dr. Edward O. Wilson, biologist, researcher and two-time Pulitzer Prize-winning author; Robert Jemison Van de Graaff, scientist and inventor.

Film and Television: Chuck Gordon, producer of “Die Hard” movies and “Field of Dreams”; Sela Ward, television and film actress; Joe Scarborough, talk show host; Sonequa Martin-Green, actress; Jim Nabors, actor; Tom Cherones, director of “Seinfeld”; Rece Davis, sports television journalist; Michael Luwoye, Broadway actor.

Journalism: Howell Raines, Pulitzer winner at The New York Times; John Cochran, prize-winning television journalist; Rece Davis, ESPN journalist.

It matters where you go to college. The University of Alabama is a leader among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars. The Fulbright Student Program recognizes UA as a top producer of Fulbright recipients. And for more than a decade, UA has ranked among the top six institutions for Goldwater Scholars.

Learn more about how you can become a legend at admissions.ua.edu. Read more about our legends at legends.ua.edu.

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

GREG BYRNE
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

With more than 25 years of experience in sports administration, Alabama Director of Athletics Greg Byrne has built an impressive career highlighted by consistent competitive success, innovative strategies, vigorous fundraising and a strong emphasis on academic excellence and student-athlete enhancement.

Named Alabama's 17th Director of Athletics on January 17, 2017, he made an immediate impact on the Crimson Tide, developing and implementing both The Standard, a strategic plan outlining the mission statement and core values of Alabama Athletics, and The Crimson Standard, a 10-year, $600 million capital initiative focused on the renovation of facilities and development of infrastructure.

Additionally, The Standard provides benchmarks in the areas of academics, student-athlete welfare, athletics success, financial resources, facilities, staffing and operating with integrity, while The Crimson Standard is designed to provide the foundation for future success in all aspects of the collegiate experience.

Under Byrne's leadership, the Crimson Tide has:

- Posted its highest finish in program history in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup at the conclusion of the 2020-21 season, placing seventh, as well as its second-highest finish at 14th following the 2017-18 season
- Added high-impact coaches Nate Oats (men's basketball), Brad Bohannon (baseball), Lindsey Devine (volleyball), Glenn Putyrae (rowing) and Margo Geer (men's and women's swimming & diving) to the Tide's lineup, all five of which made immediate impacts in lifting their respective programs up the national ladder
- Won the 2021 and 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship, earned a place in the CFP Championship Game in 2018, 2019 and 2021 and collected Southeastern Conference titles in football (2017, 2020), men's basketball (2021), gymnastics (2021), softball (2021, 2019) and men's indoor track & field (2018)
- Brought home individual and relay national titles in cross country, gymnastics, swimming & diving and track & field and produced more than 100 All-Americans in 12 different sports
- Earned over 40 CoSIDA Academic All-America certificates as well as some of the nation's top academic honors, including the NCAA Top 10 Award, the NCAA Elite 90 Award, CoSIDA Academic All-America of the Year, NCAA and SEC Postgraduate Scholarships
- Earned the H. Boyd McWhorter Male SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2017 and produced 14 SEC Scholar-Athletes of the Year in 10 different sports, including a conference-record eight during the 2019-20 academic year

Another hallmark of Byrne's career has been both building and enhancing facilities to championship levels. In his first four years at Alabama, the Tide:

- Raised more than $300 million toward The Crimson Standard capital campaign, with over half of the 10-year goal completed in a little over two years
- Added a state-of-the-art, first-of-its-kind Sports Science Center featuring advanced treatment services and technology with spaces dedicated to cryotherapy, chiropractic care, stretch, massage, relaxation, recovery and mental health services
- Improved and renovated Bryant-Denny Stadium, including enhancements to all team and recruiting areas, renovations of multiple fan areas, including new Loge and sky boxes and a trio of club areas and an added student plaza
- Renovated and expanded the football team locker room, training room, equipment room and lobby within the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility
- Added and renovated multiple areas of the John and Ann Rhoads Softball Stadium, with upgrades to the press box and clubhouse, the addition of a new umpire locker room, new restrooms and a new concessions building, as well as new hardscape for the plaza and entryway along first base
- Revitalized the Alabama Aquatic Center with a renovation that included the addition of an outdoor pool

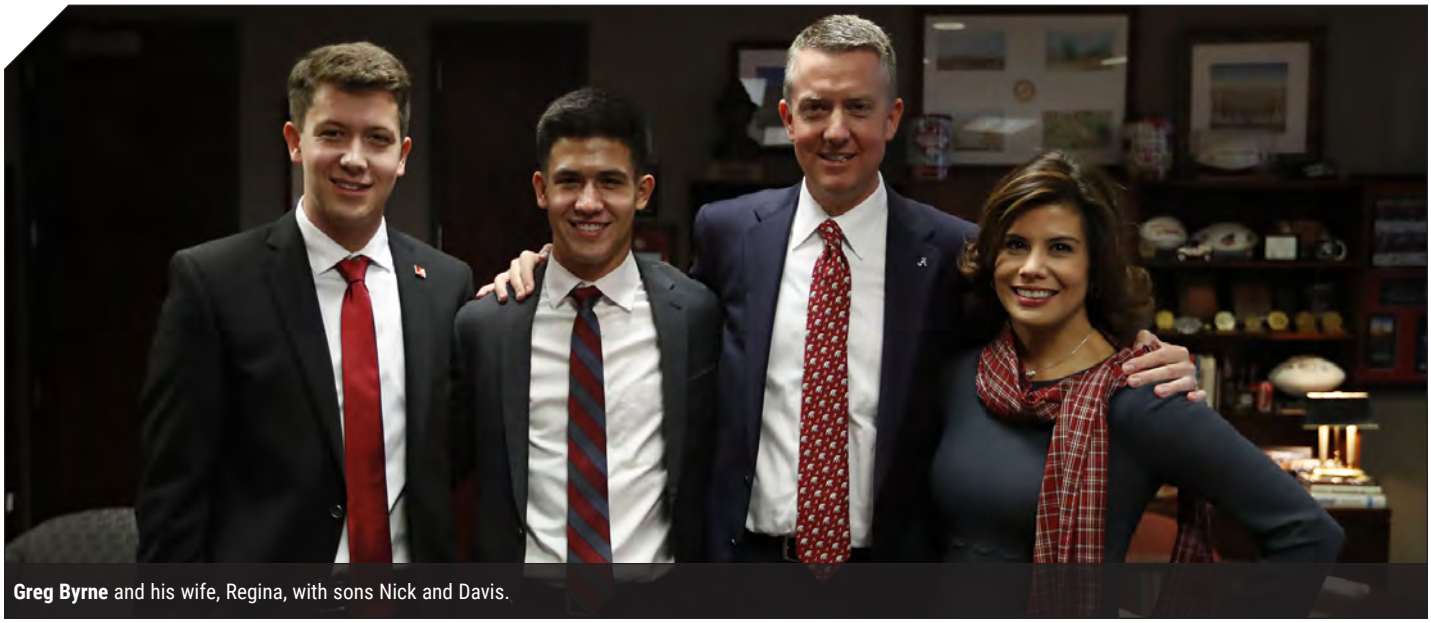

In addition to his role as Director of Athletics, Byrne serves on several committees at both the conference and national levels including:

- United States Olympic & Paralympic Committee Collegiate Advisory Council
- Division I Men's Basketball Committee
- National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches Coalition Academy
- Served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in 2020

The son of Bill Byrne, whose long and highly successful career included 30 years as an athletics director, Greg Byrne has spent a lifetime around major college athletics. That background has allowed the younger Byrne to consistently develop and grow as a dynamic and impactful administrator with each new role he has undertaken, with career highlights prior to Alabama that include:

- Serving as the University of Arizona's Vice President for Athletics (2010-17) and Mississippi State University's Director of Athletics (2008-10), making Alabama the third NCAA Division I program he has led
- Fostering major improvements across the spectrum of sports at both Arizona and MSU, raising the bar to new heights when it came to student-athlete enhancement and academic success in preparation for life after sports
- More than $140 million in construction and renovation of athletics facilities at Arizona
- Serving as the youngest athletics director in the SEC and the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level while at Mississippi State where he oversaw the hiring of head football coach Dan Mullen and former head baseball coach and current Director of Athletics John Cohen
- Experience in the Southeastern Conference, having spent 2002-05 at the University of Kentucky as Associate Athletics Director for Development and Fundraising prior to serving as Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at MSU from 2006-08 before becoming the Bulldogs' Director of Athletics
- Working at the Fiesta Bowl (1994-95), Oregon (1995-98) and Oregon State (1998-2002)

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994 and his master's degree from Mississippi State University in 2009. Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons, Nick and Davis.

"We want to be successful as students. I always tell players there's two things that we want you to do here, you've got two careers: one on the field, one off the field. The one off the field means you've got to graduate from college. That's the one that's going to have the greatest impact on the quality of your life forever. We want to have a great academic support program. We want our players to succeed as students."

BUILT FOR BAMA

The Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility is always a hub of activity, housing athletics administration, football operations and the Athletics Dining Facility, along with the Bill Battle Athletic Performance Center. The start of the 2020 season marked the most recent expansion and renovation to one of the nation's elite football facilities.

The renovation included a new Sports Science Center, a renovated and expanded football team locker room, training room, equipment room and lobby. The changes bolstered the Crimson Tide's ability to provide the best amenities and facilities in the nation, which spoke to the commitment of the Alabama administration and coaching staff to the health and welfare of our student-athletes.

The upgraded Sports Science Center supports the athletic training needs of our student-athletes, helping to speed recovery and prevent injury. The addition gives our student-athletes access to advanced treatment services and technology with spaces dedicated to cryotherapy, chiropractic, stretch, massage, relaxation, recovery and mental health services.

The Crimson Tide's improved locker room was expanded with 135 larger and more private lockers. Each locker includes a personal Zero Gravity chair and storage space with wireless charging for tablet, phone and watch. Each locker features technology for increased drying capacity for shoes and shoulder pads and updated magnetic player graphics and nameplates. The locker room integrates a color-changing LED lighting system, integrated laundry chutes and the newest audio-visual components.

The equipment room and laundry room were expanded, and an equipment display added. The equipment room features a new issue window with ELITE gear display and specialty storage compartments, new automated high-density storage systems, new laundry lockers and increased capacity.

"The health and safety of our student-athletes is a top priority. The new Sports Science Center will take our medical care to the next level and help separate us from our competition." -- Jeff Allen, Associate Athletics Director for Sports Medicine

PAUL W. "BEAR" BRYANT
Alabama Head Coach, 1958-82

LEGEND HAS IT

A young Bryant goes to the Fordyce Theatre in Arkansas where anyone who will wrestle a bear can win a dollar. Bryant wrestles the bear but the owner and the bear escape without paying. Bryant didn't get the buck that day, but he earned a nickname, Bear.

Paul William Bryant retired from coaching as the game's all-time winningest coach with a 323-85-17 (.780) overall record. He spent 25 of his 37 years on the sidelines at The University of Alabama, where he returned the Crimson Tide football program to national prominence.

During his time in Tuscaloosa, Bryant compiled a 232-46-9 (.824) record and directed Alabama to six national championships. He also led the Crimson Tide to 13 SEC titles, was the national coach of the year three times and the SEC coach of the year on eight occasions.

In 1958, Bryant returned to his alma mater and the rebuilding process was underway. In his second year back at the Capstone, he beat Auburn and took the Tide to its first of 25 straight bowl appearances. In 1961, Bryant's first recruiting class, highlighted by quarterback Pat Trammell, linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and lineman Billy Neighbors, helped the Tide capture the first of Bryant's six national titles.

Two more titles followed in 1964 and 1965 and despite an 11-0 record the Tide missed out on a third in 1966. Bryant installed the "wishbone" offense in 1971 to revamp the Tide program. Over the next 10 years, Alabama dominated the college football scene, winning 108 games, three more national titles and placing Bryant atop college football's all-time leaderboard for career wins.

In 1934, the first year of the Southeastern Conference, Bryant helped the Crimson Tide win the initial SEC championship and a national championship as a player. Bryant became known in football folklore as the 'other end' to Don Hutson as Alabama went 10-0 and knocked off Stanford 29-13 in the Rose Bowl to claim the school's fourth national crown.

Bryant's head coaching career began in 1945 at Maryland. The following year he made the move to Kentucky for eight years and followed that with a four-year stint at Texas A&M. Bryant guided teams to 15 conference titles, including 13 at Alabama, across his illustrious coaching career.

BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM

"Bryant-Denny Stadium is one of the most iconic football facilities in the nation and certainly one of the crown jewels of The University of Alabama campus. The passion, support and excitement provided by all Crimson Tide supporters is second to none, making for a truly special experience for all in attendance."

Greg Byrne
Director of Athletics

Bryant-Denny Stadium is not only one of the most iconic facilities on The University of Alabama campus, but it is also often one of the most visited destinations in the state. The current seating capacity of 100,077 makes Bryant-Denny Stadium one of the nation's largest on-campus football stadiums.

Entering the 2020 season, the venue went through a $107 million renovation that included updating and expanding multiple seating areas with three new club areas and the addition of 3,826 new premium seats, loge boxes, the Terrace Club, the Champions Club and Founders Suites on the west side, new skyboxes on the east U1 level, as well as renovation of existing skyboxes. Improvements were made to all team areas including the locker room and tunnel, and the recruiting room was expanded to nearly double in size. A student plaza was added on the south side as well as larger videoboards in the four corners, and the press box was relocated to the east side.

The latest renovation marked the fifth since 1988 and the eighth time overall Bryant-Denny Stadium has had significant upgrades since it was originally constructed in 1929. Other renovations and expansions were completed in 1946, 1961, 1966, 1988, 1998, 2006 and 2010.

Since those early games, a number of projects have taken place to get Bryant-Denny Stadium to its current state. When Alabama and Hawai'i met to open the 2006 season, a sellout crowd marked the largest crowd to view a college football game in the state of Alabama. That record fell when 101,821 fans filled the seats for the Crimson Tide's 2010 season opener against San Jose State.

The 2010 renovation pushed capacity to 101,821, with an additional 36 skyboxes, to bring the total to 159, and 1,700 club seats. Other additions included a club level area and traditional upper-deck seating. Office space was included, as well as a home team locker room located in the north end zone.

In 2006, three levels of premium seating and 38 luxury skyboxes were added in addition to a pair of large video scoreboards in the north end zone, and state-of-the-art, wrap-around display boards situated on the facades of the east and west upper decks.

One of the unique aspects of Bryant-Denny Stadium is a plaza connecting the stadium with University Boulevard. The plaza, which quickly became a focal point on game day Saturdays, honors Alabama's national championship coaches and commemorates the Tide's 18 national and 28 SEC titles.

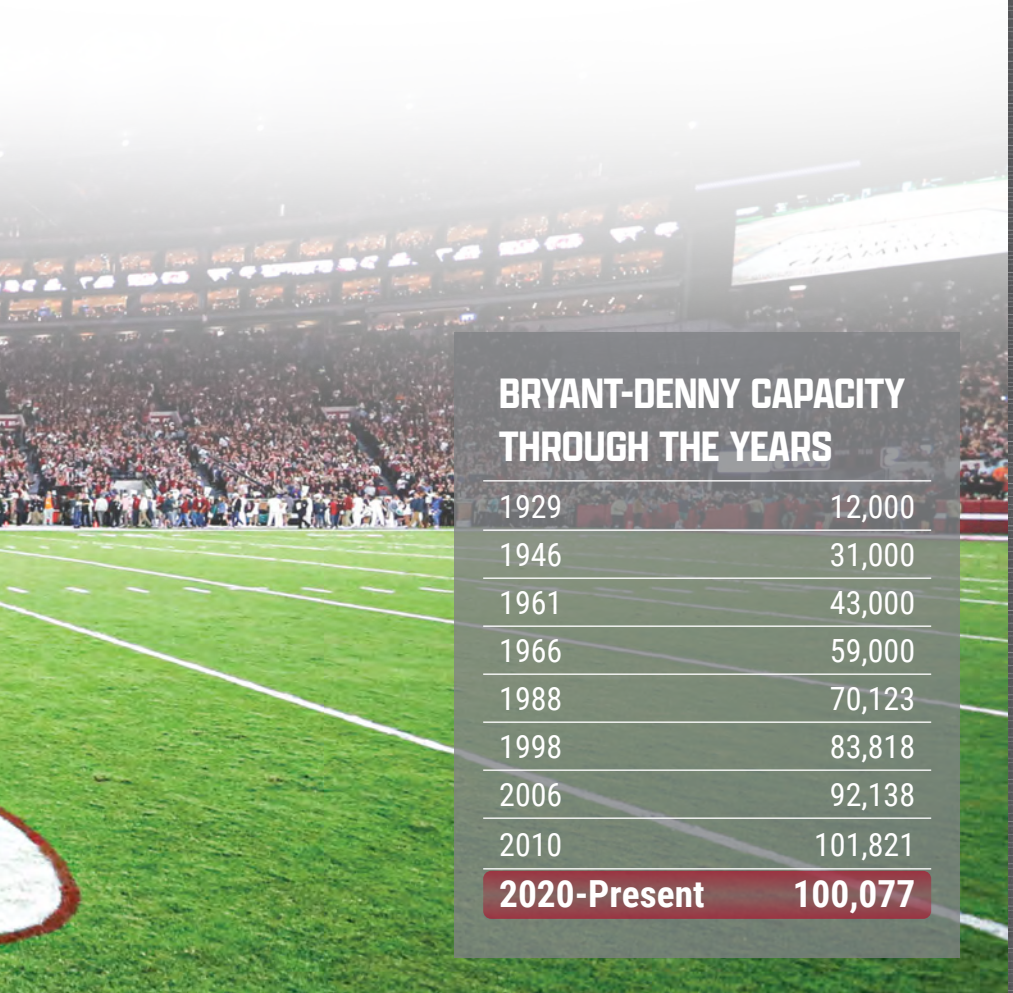

Another unique aspect of Bryant-Denny Stadium, while not part of a renovation or expansion, was the installation of a state-of-the-art LED light system in 2019. The lights feature instant on/off capabilities, are fully dimmable and are connected to a system that allows them to function in different colors, scenes and effects.

The 1998 east side expansion added 10,000 bleacher seats and two spiral walkways to give the stadium a more symmetrical appearance. A total of 81 skyboxes, on two levels, also were added. The skyboxes were built in two sizes, 24-seat capacity (18) and 16-seat capacity (64).

In 1999, four additional skyboxes were added and a scoreboard with video replay capabilities was installed in the south end.

Other additions to Bryant-Denny Stadium include two east side reception areas for Scholarship and A-Club level patrons. These areas are located above the center entrance on the east side and include rooms large enough to host receptions and pre-game meal functions. A bank of lights was also added on the east side.

The Crimson Tide owns an impressive 277-54-3 (.829) all-time record at Bryant- Denny Stadium and a 363-67-3 (.838) mark in all games played in Tuscaloosa. Dating back to the 1988 renovation of Bryant-Denny Stadium, more than 18.5 million fans have witnessed the Crimson Tide play in 225 home games over the past 33 seasons.

TOP BOWL TEAM

The Crimson Tide played in the Rose Bowl in 2020. It was Alabama's 17th straight bowl game, a streak that is second only to the school record of 25 straight bowl appearances from 1959-1983.

The Crimson Tide has been to more bowl games (68) than any other team in the country

The Alabama football team has made an NCAA-leading 68 bowl appearances. The Crimson Tide has played in more bowl games (68) and earned more bowl wins (40) than any team in college football history. Alabama capped off the 2020 season with its seventh Rose Bowl appearance all time and its first since 1946. The Tide's 16 Sugar Bowl appearances are the most of any program in the bowl's storied history. Alabama has also appeared in eight Cotton Bowls and seven Rose Bowl games in its history. The Crimson Tide has been bowling for 17 consecutive seasons, something that has not happened since Alabama played in 25 straight bowl games from 1959-83.

THE BEST IN THE SEC

ALABAMA OWNS 28 SEC TITLES

ALABAMA HAS A WINNING RECORD AGAINST EVERY SCHOOL IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference begins its 90th season of play in 2021. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virtue of its 5-0-1 conference record, and has won a total of 28 SEC titles in the school's illustrious history.

Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season, while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season, and Texas A&M and Missouri began play in 2012.

The No. 1/1/1 Alabama football team won its 28th SEC Championship with a 52-46 victory over No. 7/11/11 Florida in Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Saturday, Dec. 20, 2020.

ALABAMA HAS BEEN A FORCE IN THE SEC OVER THE PAST 13 SEASONS

Alabama dominated the 2008 and 2009 seasons in Southeastern Conference play with a 16-0 combined mark in the regular season, capturing back-to-back Western Division championships and the 2009 SEC championship. The 2011 season saw the Crimson Tide win the program's 14th national championship but finish second in the SEC West to LSU, who the Tide would later defeat 21-0 in the Allstate BCS National Championship Game. Alabama won its 23rd SEC championship in 2012, followed by its 15th national championship. In 2013, UA tied for the Western Division crown with a 7-1 record.

Alabama secured the program's 24th, 25th and 26th SEC titles in 2014, 2015 and 2016 becoming the first team to earn three consecutive SEC Championship Game victories since Florida won four in a row from 1993-96. In 2014, the Tide captured the trophy with a 42-13 win over Missouri, while the 2015 victory came against Florida, 29-15. Alabama defeated the Gators for the second consecutive year in 2016 by a score of 54-16. In 2017, the Crimson Tide tied for the Western Division crown with a 7-1 record on the way to an NCAA-record 17th national championship.

The 2018 season saw the Tide finish a perfect 8-0 once again on the way to a 27th SEC title thanks to a thrilling 35-28 comeback win over Georgia. The Tide followed that up with their 28th SEC title and 18th national championship in a unique 2020 season, posting a perfect 13-0 record after dominant performances against Notre Dame (31-14) in the College Football Playoff Semifinal and Ohio State (52-24) in the CFP Championship Game.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992, at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala. The SEC Championship Game moved to the Georgia Dome in 1994 and was staged there through 2016. The game moved next door to Mercedes-Benz Stadum in 2017.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL CAPITAL OF THE NATION

"When it comes to spring football spectacles, it doesn't get any bigger than Tuscaloosa, Alabama."

CHRIS FOWLER
ESPN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

A-DAY PHENOMENON

Spring games across the country have taken on a whole new meaning since Alabama's A-Day Game sparked a new phenomenon in 2007 when an amazing 92,138 fans packed Bryant-Denny Stadium. Even more impressive were the 5,000-plus fans that were turned away at the gate and spent the afternoon tailgating around the stadium just like a fall Saturday when the stadium was deemed at capacity. Schools across the nation have followed the Tide's lead and begun working to make their spring games a focal point. ESPN has taken notice of the spring game excitement and started making it part of the college football coverage each spring. The ESPN family of networks have televised nine of the last 11 A-Day Games nationally on ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU. The 2012 game was televised by Comcast. The last 14 spring games have seen an average of 78,251 fans pack Bryant-Denny Stadium. The official attendance at the 2021 Golden Flake A-Day Game was 47,218 at Bryant-Denny Stadium, the 15th-largest attendance mark for an A-Day football game, despite capacity limits because of COVID-19. The 2008 game had 78,200 with 84,050 showing up in 2009. A crowd of 91,312 came out in 2010 and a school-record 92,310 in 2011. The 2012 game had 78,526 in attendance; 78,315 fans witnessed the 2013 event; 73,509 in 2014; 65,175 in 2015; 76,212 in 2016; 74,326 in 2017; 74,732 in 2018; and 62,219 in 2019. Over the past 14 years the Crimson Tide has drawn a mind-boggling 1,067,519 fans for its annual A-Day Game. Prior to the start of Alabama's A-Day Game each spring, the Crimson Tide's permanent team captains from the previous year are forever captured at the base of Denny Chimes. The captains have their handprints and footprints placed in cement to recognize their roles as team leaders. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, for the first time, the ceremony at the 2021 A-Day Game featured two classes of captains. The 2020 permanent team captains - center Landon Dickerson, quarterback Mac Jones, offensive tackle Alex Leatherwood and wide receiver DeVonta Smith - and the 2019 permanent team captains - linebacker Anfernee Jennings, safety Xavier McKinney, quarterback Tua Tagovailoa and Smith (two-time captain) - had their hand and foot prints placed in cement at the base of Denny Chimes.

THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Alabama has proven to be one of the top television draws in college football due to its history, tradition, personalities and fans. The Crimson Tide was televised nationally 13 times in 2019 and in 2020, and has played in 163 nationally televised games since 2008. Further evidence was the presence of ESPN GameDay at Alabama's games, with four in 2008, 2012, 2013, 2015 and 2018, three games in 2009, 2011, 2016 and 2017, two games in 2010, 2014 and 2020, along with one appearance in 2019. Alabama's popularity also has been a draw for national publications. The Crimson Tide has been represented on the covers of many of those publications in recent years. The Tide has appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated 27 times since 2009, including four times in 2012 and 2017, three times in 2009, 2011 and 2015, two times in 2013, 2014, 2016 and 2018, and once in 2010 and 2021, thus far. In 2008, head coach Nick Saban was featured on the cover of Forbes. Saban became the first college football coach to be featured on the cover of Forbes since the publication began in 1917.

NATIONAL TITLES

From the roaring 1920s and Wallace Wade, through legendary coach Frank Thomas, on to the dynasty that was the Paul "Bear" Bryant era, through Gene Stallings' 1992 national championship team and, finally, Nick Saban's six titles in Tuscaloosa, the Alabama Crimson Tide has helped define college football for nearly a century. Alabama has captured a college football-best 18 national championships and an impressive 32 conference titles, including a conference-best 28 SEC titles.

Bryant led the Tide to six national championships during his 25 years roaming the sidelines with national titles in 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978 and 1979. Wade won Alabama's first three titles in 1925, 1926 and 1930. Thomas then led Alabama to championships in 1934 and 1941 while Stallings' 1992 team has proven to be one of the best in college football history.

Saban's 2009 team carved an identity of its own with suffocating defense and an efficient and explosive offense. That 14-0 team produced the school and conference record for wins in a season, defeated No. 1 Florida in the SEC Championship Game and bested No. 2 Texas in the BCS National Championship Game to claim the title. The 2011 team avenged a regular-season loss to LSU in the BCS National Championship with a resounding 21-0 shutout of the Tigers in New Orleans. The defense was historic in 2011, leading all four major categories nationally, while the offense averaged almost 35 points per game. In 2012, Alabama beat LSU with a last-second comeback in Death Valley, escaped the SEC Championship Game with a thrilling 32-28 win over Georgia, and finished the year off by crushing then-No. 1 Notre Dame 42-14 in the BCS National Championship Game.

In 2015, the second year of the College Football Playoff, the Tide shut out Michigan State, 38-0, in the CFP Semifinal at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic and followed that up with a 45-40 win over Clemson to claim Alabama's first CFP National Championship. Saban's fifth title in Tuscaloosa in 2017 was punctuated with a dramatic come-from-behind 26-23 victory over Georgia in the CFP National Championship Game. Alabama trailed the Bulldogs 13-0 at halftime and made the move to Tua Tagovailoa at quarterback who helped engineer a comeback for the ages. Tagovailoa threw three touchdown passes after halftime, including a 41-yard strike on second-and-26 in overtime to DeVonta Smith to seal the victory. Alabama exacted sweet revenge over Clemson just seven days prior in the semifinal game at the Sugar Bowl with a 24-6 win.

The Alabama football team won its 18th national championship Monday, January 12, 2021 at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla., with a dominating 52-24 win over No. 3 Ohio State in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game. Alabama finished its season with a clean 13-0 record. In addition to it being the Crimson Tide's 18th national football championship overall, it was Nick Saban's seventh as a head coach, giving him the most in collegiate football history, and his sixth at Alabama.

THE FIRST TITLE 1925

Alabama's football history has been about champions and the 1925 team garnered the first national title by posting a perfect 10-0 record and beating powerful Washington 20-19 in the Rose Bowl. It marked the first time a southern team had been to Pasadena, and the locals appeared shocked with the Tide victory.

Senior stars Johnny Mack Brown and All-American Pooley Hubert mesmerized the crowds of the 1920s with their unique skills. Known as the "Dothan Antelope," Brown was the scourge of Bama foes. Brown scored on a 58-yard reception from Grant Gillis and a 62-yard catch from Hubert in the Rose Bowl win.

In the win over Washington, Hubert also rushed for a touchdown and starred defensively. Both Brown and Hubert would become College Football Hall of Famers. Brown and guard Bill Buckler also were All-Southern Conference selections.

PASADENA BOUND

1926

Four teams (Alabama, Stanford, Navy and Lafayette) had been declared winners of the 1926 national championship before the Crimson Tide reached Pasadena to play Stanford in the Rose Bowl. A 7-7 tie between the Southern and Western Conference champions did not settle any scores New Years Day, 1927.

The 1926 squad featured All-Americans Hoyt "Wu" Winslett and Fred Pickhard. Three other Alabama men, backs Ernie Barnes and Herschel Caldwell and center Gordon "Sherlock" Holmes joined them on the 11-member All-Southern Conference team.

Besides the Rose Bowl standoff against Stanford, Alabama's only other challenge came in a 2-0 tiff with then-powerful Sewanee. A blocked punt that went out of the end zone by Pickhard proved to be the difference in the Sewanee contest. The very next week, Pickhard blocked two punts, both resulting in touchdowns, in a 24-0 win over LSU. Alabama clinched a Rose Bowl berth with a 33-6 victory over Georgia on Thanksgiving Day.

HEAD COACH
WALLACE WADE

1930 PERFECTION

A 10-0 season, along with a 24-0 whitewashing of Washington State in the Rose Bowl gave Wallace Wade his third championship and ended an era of Tide football on a glorious note.

Extraordinary tackle Fred Sington finished an unmatched career as a student-athlete being unanimously picked to the 1930 All-America teams and earning Phi Beta Kappa honors for his toils in the classroom.

Halfback John Henry Suther joined Sington on the All-America list while super sophomore Johnny Cain and guard John Miller were All-Southern Conference picks. Incredibly in the Rose Bowl, Wade defied logic by starting his second unit, feeling his team was vastly superior to the West Coast Champions. Monk Campbell earned Rose Bowl MVP honors.

Alabama shut out eight of its 10 foes with Tennessee (18-6) and Vanderbilt (12-7) holding the distinction of being the only teams to score on the 1930 Tide.

"MY BEST TEAM" 1934

Frank Thomas candidly called it his best Alabama team and the 29-13 romp over Stanford in the Rose Bowl confirmed the coach's belief that the 1934 team was special.

In an era where points were at a premium, Alabama averaged 31.4 a game while the opposition could manage but 4.5 a contest. Legendary end Don Hutson, who some 56 years later would be named to the all-time college football team, displayed the skills that would one day earn him induction into seven different Halls of Fame (Alabama, Arkansas, Green Bay Packers, NFL, College, Helms Foundation and Wisconsin).

Tailback Dixie Howell and tackle Bill Lee joined Hutson as All-Americans. The only close game all year came in the annual heavyweight thriller with Tennessee, a 13-6 Crimson Tide win. Howell, Hutson, Lee and guard Charlie Marr earned All-SEC honors.

In the Rose Bowl, Howell scored two touchdowns, one on a scintillating 67-yard scamper. He also passed 59 yards to Hutson for another score. For the game, he averaged 43.8 yards a punt, gained 111 rushing yards and 160 passing.

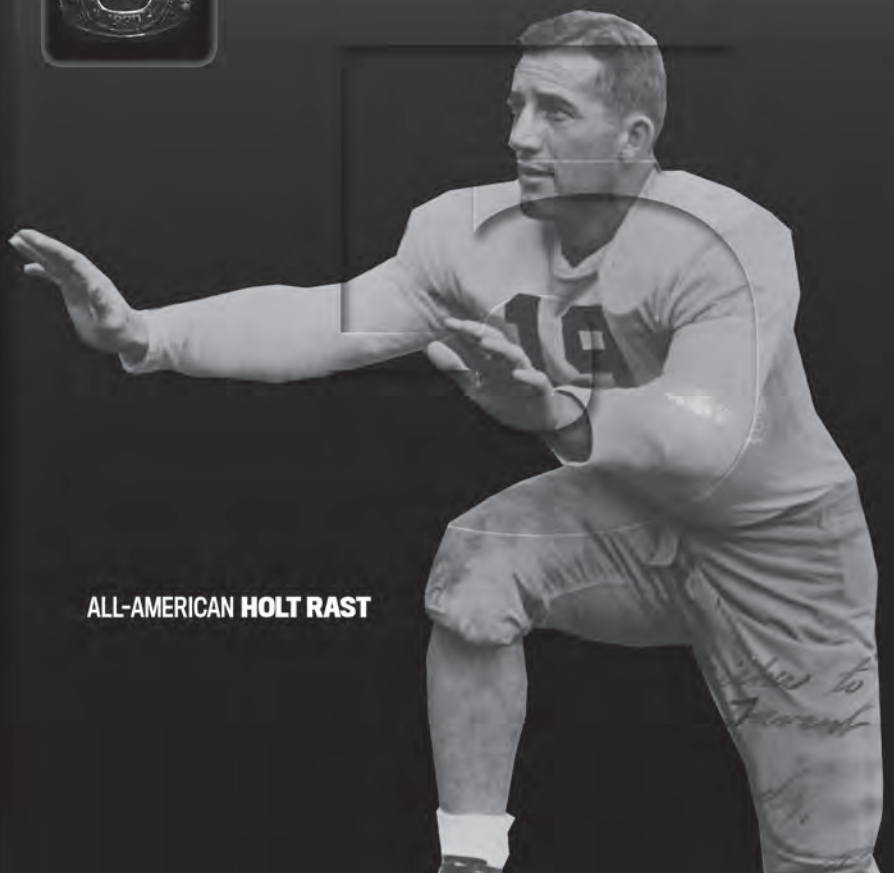

HEAD COACH
FRANK THOMAS

1941 COTTON BOWL CHAMPS

ALL-AMERICAN HOLT RAST

Alabama received a share of the 1941 title by being named to the honor roll of the Houlgate System. The Crimson Tide team finished the year 9-2 with conference losses to Mississippi State and Vanderbilt.

The 1941 team was gifted with brilliant end Holt Rast earning unanimous All-America accolades and plaudits of being one of the best 11 players in the first 50 years of Alabama football.

Along with a 29-21 victory over SWC champion Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl, significant wins for the Tide came against Georgia, featuring future Heisman Trophy winner Frank Sinkwich, along with Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Miami. In the Cotton Bowl win, halfback Jimmy Nelson returned a punt 72 yards for one touchdown and scored on a 21-yard run for another. Rast, concluding his career, returned an interception for a touchdown and Russ Craft scored twice. After the game, Nelson, Rast and Don Whitmire shared MVP honors.

SUGAR BOWL CHAMPS 1961

As far-fetched as it sounded back when he was recruiting his first class four years before, Paul Bryant's promise of a 1961 national championship proved as accurate as his precise demand for excellence.

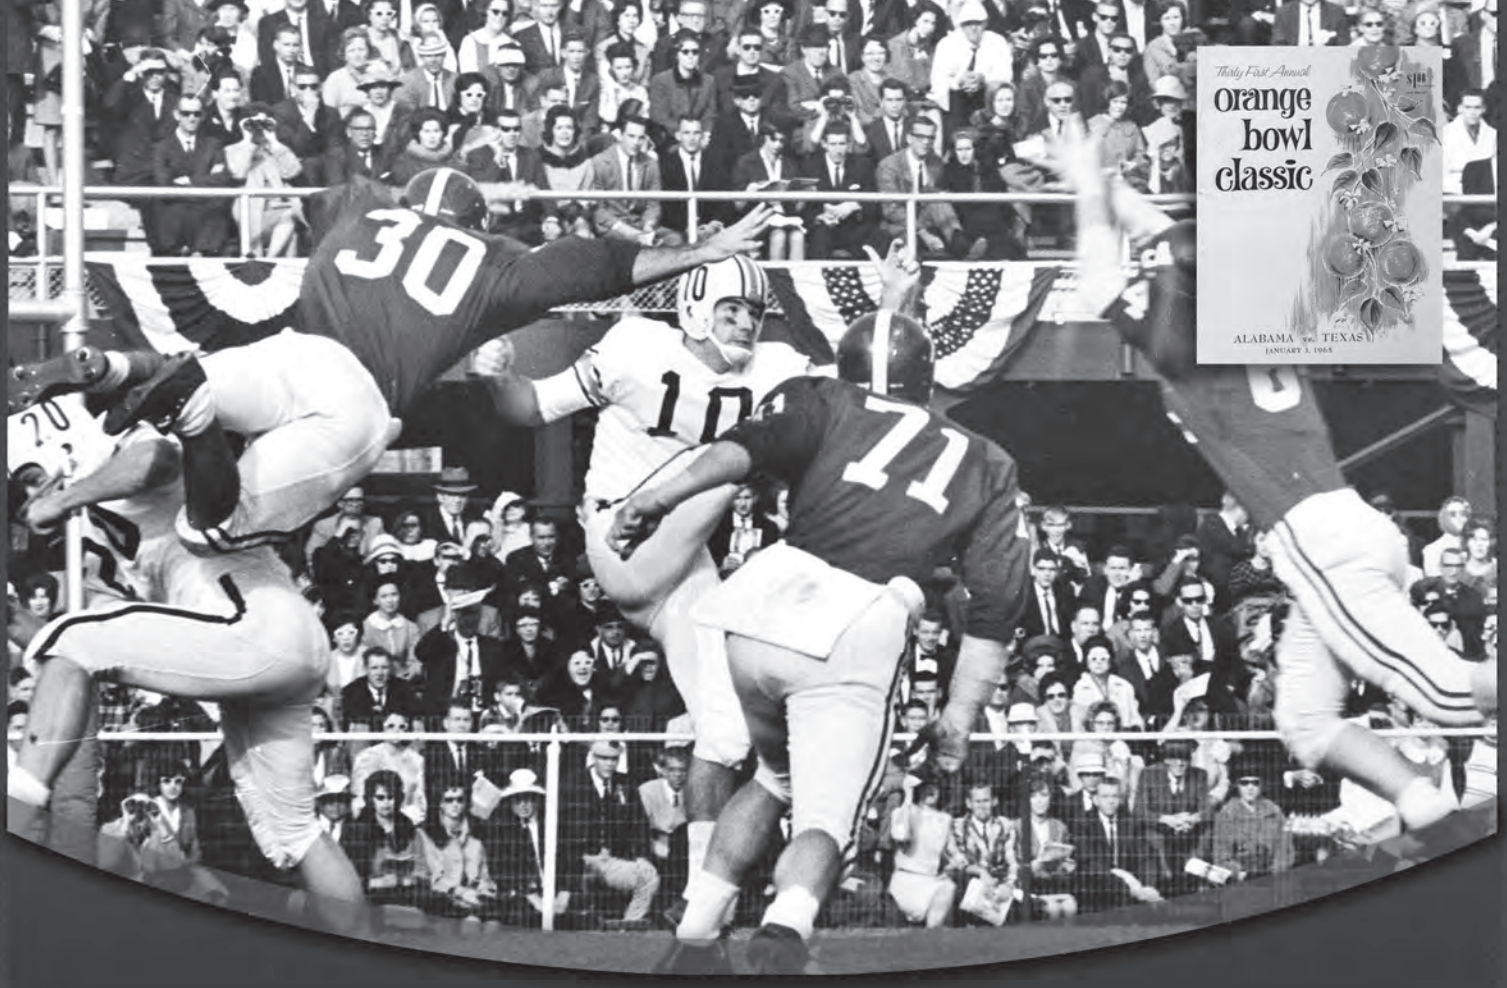

Led by quarterback Pat Trammell, center/linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and two-way line star Billy Neighbors, Alabama ascended to the pinnacle of the college football world, winning all 11 games and being named the No. 1 team in America.

Alabama outscored its opponents 297-25 and after Tennessee managed a field goal in a 34-3 loss to the Tide, no one scored again until Arkansas equaled that three-point output in the Sugar Bowl.

North Carolina State, led by future NFL star quarterback Roman Gabriel, fell to the Tide 26-7. The seven points were the most yielded to an opponent during the entire season.

Neighbors was a unanimous All-America selection while Jordan and Trammell were second-team picks. It would be the first of six national title runs for Bear Bryant during his 25-year career at Alabama.

1964 BROADWAY JOE

Gimpy-legged Joe Namath aired his immense talents to a nationally televised audience in the first ever night Orange Bowl game.

Namath and his teammates contended then, and now, that the star quarterback scored what would have been a game winner on a sneak play from the Longhorn six-inch line in the fourth quarter. One official ruled him in, the other out, and in the end it was a 21-17 Texas win.

Despite the controversial loss to Texas, Alabama was the 1964 AP and UPI National Champion. Namath's knee injury vs. North Carolina State gave backup Steve Sloan the chance to lead the Tide to wins over Florida, Tennessee, Mississippi State and LSU. Namath, who came off the bench in the final minutes against Georgia Tech, sparked a 24-7 win over the Yellow Jackets that ended the bitter series for 15 years.

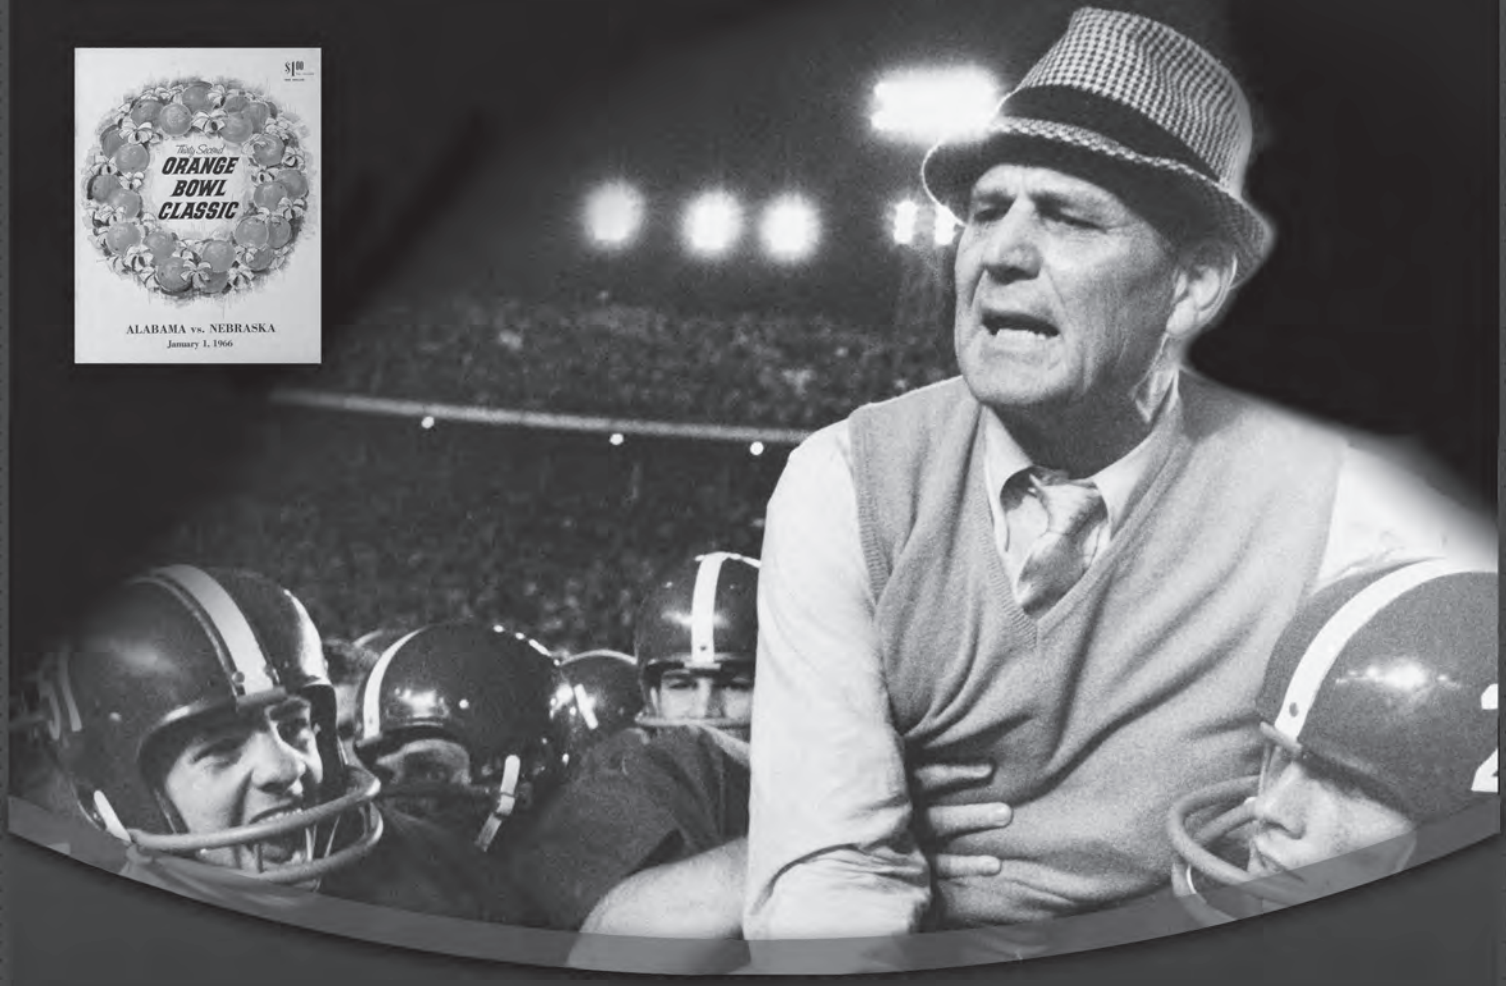

Roy Ogden's unforgettable 108-yard kickoff return and Namath-to-Ray Perkins touchdown pass were key plays in a 21-14 win over Auburn on Thanksgiving Day.

Namath, halfback/kicker David Ray, tackle Dan Kearley and guard Wayne Freeman were named to different All-America teams.

ORANGE BOWL CHAMPS 1965

The 1965 edition of the Alabama Crimson Tide got off to a slow start, losing its first game of the season to Georgia 18-17. The Crimson Tide quickly rebounded with wins over Tulane, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt. Alabama finished off the season with a 30-3 thumping of in-state rival Auburn. This victory also gave the Crimson Tide the SEC title, its second in a row.

The Crimson Tide's season earned the team a No. 4 ranking and an invitation to the 1966 Orange Bowl where they would face the Nebraska Cornhuskers. The national title seemed a long shot for both teams, but with No. 1 Michigan State falling to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and No. 2 Arkansas losing to LSU in the Cotton Bowl earlier in the day, it appeared that the outcome of the Orange Bowl would decide the national champion.

The teams traded blows for much of the game but the arm of Steve Sloan proved too much for the Huskers. Sloan went 20-of-28 passing to break the Orange Bowl pass completion record set one year earlier by fellow Tide quarterback Joe Namath. Sloan finished the game with 296 passing yards, also setting an Orange Bowl standard and giving Alabama a 39-28 victory and the 1965 national championship.

1973 CLASH OF THE TITANS

HALFBACK
WILBUR JACKSON

It was the first meeting ever between the two giants of college football and the game was promoted so heavily even the fans tired of all the advanced publicity. It was "The Game" of all-time in a lot of ways, and it certainly lived up to every inch of newspaper space and moment of radio-TV air time.

Notre Dame won, 24-23, in one of the all-time classics of college football. It had everything you could want in a football game and Notre Dame vaulted from third to first in the final AP rankings.

Alabama had finished first in both polls in the regular season and remained the UPI champion. Seldom do games live up to all the advance and frenzied billing. But when Ara Parseghian of Notre Dame and Bear Bryant of Alabama unleashed two of the finest college teams in history onto the Sugar Bowl's soggy artificial turf, this game caught the fancy of the entire football world.

GOAL LINE STAND

Coach Bryant's 1978 Alabama Crimson Tide squad started off the season with a convincing 20-3 win over the Nebraska Cornhuskers in front of a packed house in Birmingham. Alabama went on to win 11 games in 1978. The only loss of the season came at the hands of the USC Trojans in Birmingham in a 28-14 battle. Alabama then tore through eight straight opponents on its way to a No. 2 ranking and a bid to play in the 1979 Sugar Bowl against Joe Paterno's No. 1-ranked Penn State Nittany Lions.

The game was close and physical all the way to the end of the game with Alabama outgaining Penn State on the ground 208-19 and Penn State outgaining Alabama through the air 163-91. Crimson Tide running back Major Ogilvie was quoted after the game as saying, "It was, by far, the hardest-hitting game I've participated in. There's not even a close second."

Alabama secured the win and the national championship on one of the most legendary plays in Crimson Tide history. On a fourth down and inches play from the Alabama goal line, Joe Paterno called on tailback Matt Guman to take the ball up the middle into the heart of the Crimson Tide defense. Guman was met head on by a host of Alabama defenders, led by All-America linebacker Barry Krauss who stopped Guman inches shy of the goal line to lock up the 14-7 Sugar Bowl victory and the national title.

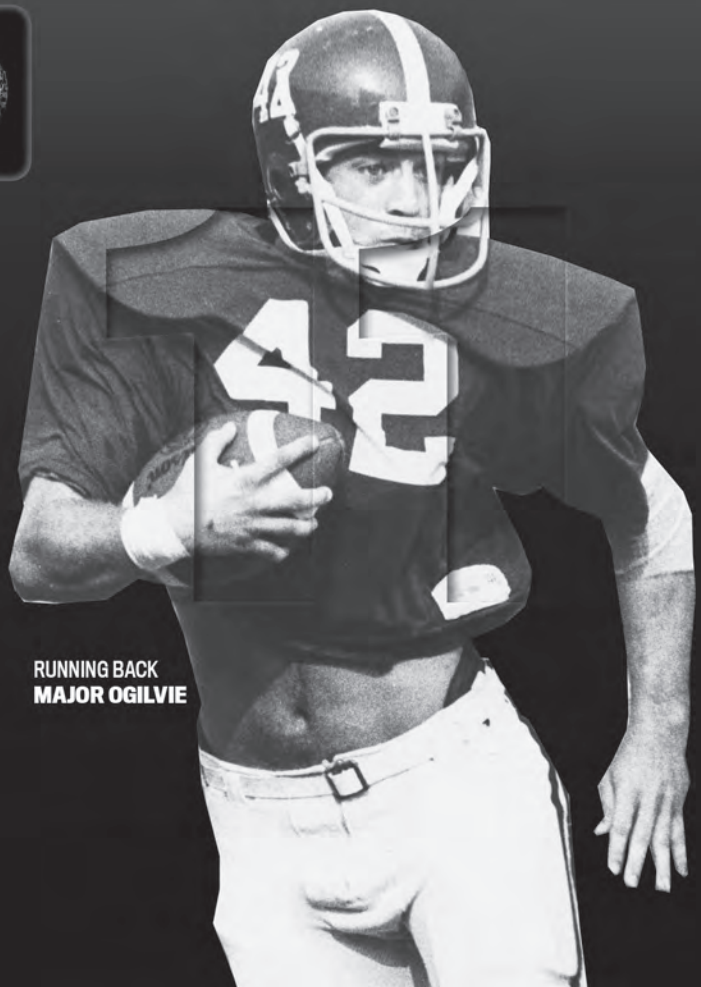

RUNNING BACK
TONY NATHAN

1979

BACK-TO-BACK

RUNNING BACK
MAJOR OGILVIE

The 1979 Alabama Crimson Tide was fierce to say the least. Alabama's defense posted shutouts against Baylor, Wichita State, Florida, LSU and Miami. Alabama outscored five of its opponents on the season by 30 points or more with the biggest margin of victory coming against Vanderbilt in a 66-3 game. Alabama capped off the undefeated regular season by beating Auburn 25-18 and Miami 30-0.

After its perfect 11-0 regular season, Coach Bryant's Crimson Tide team returned to the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans again for the second straight year. This time the Crimson Tide faced its future SEC West rival in the University of Arkansas Razorbacks, who then were a part of the Southwest Conference.

Alabama was led by running back Major Ogilvie as the Tide outgained the Razorbacks 284-97 in rushing yards. Ogilvie scored two touchdowns in a 24-9 victory that gave the Crimson Tide its 11th national title and Bryant his sixth and final championship.

HIGH TIDE

Head Coach Gene Stallings' Crimson Tide team was led in the 1992 season by a tenacious defense that held 10 of its 13 opponents under 12 points. The offense was led by the arm of quarterback Jay Barker who threw for 1,614 yards, and the legs of running back Derrick Lassic, who ran for 905 yards. The Alabama defense had 22 interceptions with defensive backs Antonio Langham and George Teague tied with six a piece.

The Crimson Tide started off the season with a 25-8 win over SEC rival Vanderbilt and continued this winning streak all the way to the Sugar Bowl. Some of the highlights of this perfect season were a 17-10 victory over Tennessee, a 17-0 win against in-state rival Auburn and a 28-21 win over Steve Spurrier's Florida Gators in the SEC Championship Game.

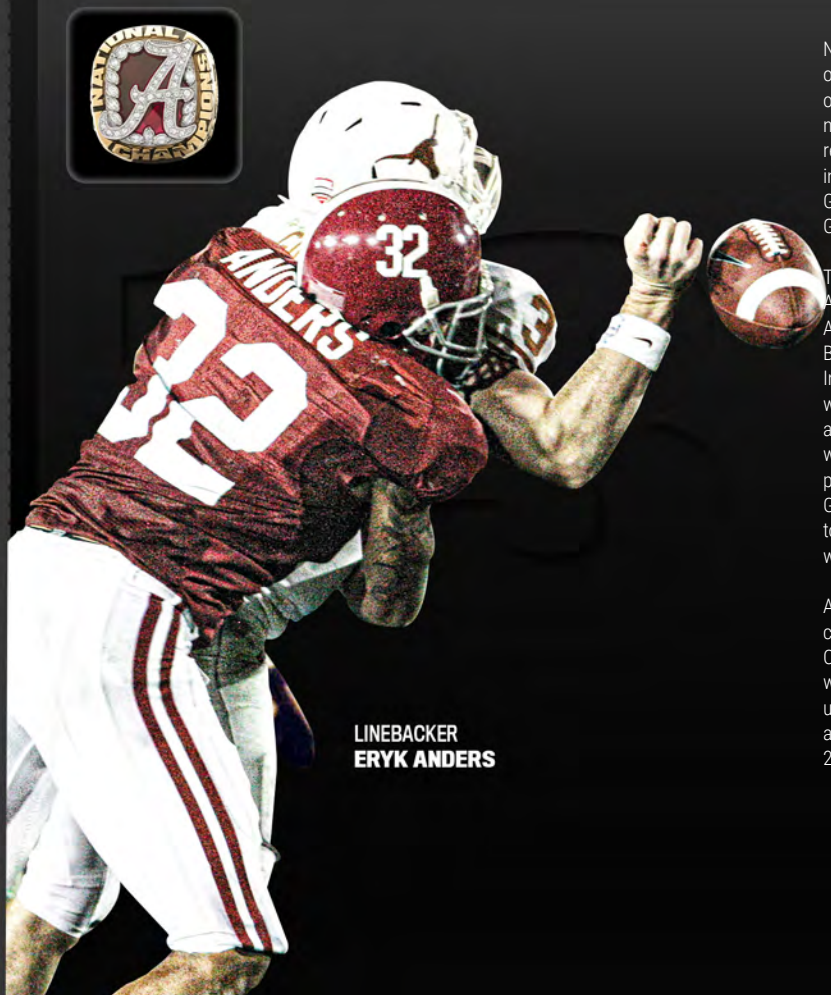

Alabama's perfect regular-season record led them to a No. 2 ranking and another visit to the Sugar Bowl to face 1992 Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Geno Torretta and the No. 1 ranked Miami Hurricanes. The Crimson Tide was a heavy underdog to the boisterous Miami team. However, from the opening kickoff to the final whistle Alabama dominated the Hurricanes en route to a 34-13 victory. Alabama finished the season with a 13-0 record and the program's 12th national championship.

LINEBACKER
ERYK ANDERS

Nick Saban's 2009 national championship team had the perfect combination of suffocating defense, a potent rushing attack, a winning quarterback and outstanding special teams. The 2009 team captured the program's 13th national championship and the school's 22nd SEC Championship with a 14-0 record. The Crimson Tide conquered every challenge placed in front of them, including a 32-13 thrashing of top-ranked Florida in the SEC Championship Game and a 37-21 triumph over Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

The Crimson Tide produced a record six first team Associated Press All-Americans and eight first team All-SEC selections. Mark Ingram became Alabama's first Heisman Trophy winner and Rolando McClain claimed the Butkus Award and the Lambert Award, presented to the nation's top linebacker. Ingram set a school record with 1,658 rushing yards with 20 total touchdowns while averaging 189.0 all-purpose yards and nine touchdowns in six games against nationally ranked opponents. McClain led the team with 105 tackles while accounting for 14.5 tackles for loss, four sacks, two interceptions, four pass breakups and 14 quarterback hurries. First-year starting quarterback Greg McElroy completed 61 percent of his passes for 2,508 yards with 17 touchdowns. His 81.25 pass attempts for every interception thrown in 2009 was the second-best mark in SEC history, behind only Peyton Manning.

Alabama knocked off six top-25 opponents on the way to the national championship with wins over No. 7 Virginia Tech, No. 16 Ole Miss, No. 22 South Carolina, No. 9 LSU, No. 1 Florida and No. 2 Texas. Maybe the Tide's toughest wins came in hotly contested games with rivals Tennessee and Auburn. UA used two blocked field goals by Terrence Cody against the Vols to escape with a 12-10 win and then used a fourth-quarter drive, engineered by McElroy, for a 26-21 win over the Tigers on the Plains.

DOMINATION IN THE DOME 2011

The 2011 Crimson Tide claimed the school's 14th national championship, handing the previously undefeated LSU Tigers a resounding 21-0 loss in the season's title game. It was the first shutout in Bowl Championship Series history and the first time since Miami in 1991 that a team pitched a shutout to secure the national title.

Alabama produced an astounding seven first-team All-Americans, including Mark Barron, Barrett Jones, Dont'a Hightower, Dre Kirkpatrick, DeQuan Menzie, Trent Richardson and Courtney Upshaw. Richardson became Alabama's first Doak Walker Award winner and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting. Jones received the Outland Trophy, the Wuerffel Trophy and the ARA Sportsmanship Award. Carson Tinker accepted the Disney Spirit Award for the team's efforts following the April 27, 2011, tornado that ravaged Tuscaloosa.

Richardson set a school record with 1,679 rushing yards to go along with 24 total touchdowns and 21 rushing scores. Hightower led the team with 85 total tackles while Upshaw accounted for a team-high 18 tackles for loss (-90 yards) and 9.5 sacks (-62 yards) plus one interception return for a touchdown, two forced fumbles and 11 quarterback hurries. First-year starting quarterback AJ McCarron completed 66.8 percent of his passes for 2,634 yards with 16 touchdowns. McCarron threw only five interceptions or one every 65.6 pass attempts in 2011, which was the third-best mark in SEC history, behind only Peyton Manning and Greg McElroy.

Defensively, Alabama put together one of the best seasons in the modern era of college football. The Crimson Tide led the nation in the four major categories: scoring defense (8.2 ppg), total defense (183.6 ypg), rush defense (72.2 ppg) and pass efficiency defense (83.69) while also leading the nation in pass defense at 111.46 ypg. Alabama was only the second team to lead the nation in all four defensive categories and the first since Oklahoma in 1986. On the offensive side of the football, the Tide averaged 429.6 yards per game while scoring 34.85 points per game, statistics that ranked fourth and fifth, respectively, in school history.

2012 BACK-TO-BACK

The Alabama football team established its dominance early against Notre Dame on its way to an overwhelming performance as the Crimson Tide earned the programs 15th national championship in football with a 42-14 victory over Notre Dame in the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game.

Alabama's 2012 senior class won a school record 49 games over a four-year span while losing only five contests. The 49 wins tied Nebraska for the most in college football history and ranks among the best four-year totals in Southeastern Conference history (Florida won 48 games from 2006-09 and Alabama won 48 from 2008-11).

Alabama produced four first team All-Americans in 2012, giving them 22 All-America honors by 19 different players from 2008-12. The 2012 first team All-Americans included Barrett Jones, Dee Milliner, C.J. Mosley and Chance Warmack. D.J. Fluker was also a second-team All-American and AJ McCarron garnered third-team honors. Jones also became Alabama's first William V. Campbell and Rimington Trophy winner.

McCarron led the Alabama offense with a school-record 30 touchdown passes while leading the nation with a 175.28 pass efficiency rating. He threw for 2,933 yards with only three interceptions while completing 67.2 percent of his passes. Lacy led the way on the ground with 1,322 yards and 17 scores. Yeldon added a freshman record 1,108 yards and 12 rushing touchdowns. Cooper led all receivers with a freshman-record 59 receptions for 1,000 yards and 11 scores.

Defensively, Alabama put together another outstanding season, leading the nation in three major categories: scoring defense (10.9 ppg), total defense (250.0 ypg) and rush defense (76.4 ppg). Alabama pitched four shutouts, the most since the 1979 team had five. On the offensive side of the football, the Tide averaged 445.5 yards per game while scoring 38.7 points per game. UA's 542 points in 2012 was a school record.

In a top-ranked matchup of contrasting styles, the Alabama Crimson Tide showed incredible resourcefulness and resilience to earn its 16th national championship against the Clemson Tigers in the College Football Playoff National Championship by a score of 45-40.

The title, Alabama's fourth in the last seven seasons, concluded a 14-1 year for the Tide while Clemson suffered its first loss of the 2015 campaign. It was head coach Nick Saban's fifth national title, four of which came at UA, joining Paul "Bear" Bryant as the only two coaches in college football history to win at least five national championships during their tenure.

Tight end O.J. Howard caught five passes for a career-high 208 yards on his way to Offensive MVP honors in the season's final game. Jake Coker passed for a career-best 335 yards, while running back Derrick Henry rushed for 158 yards and three scores. Senior Kenyan Drake returned a kickoff for 95 yards and a score to lift the Tide to the 45-40 win in front of 75,756 (capacity: 71,000) at University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz.

Derrick Henry was the catalyst for the Alabama offense, recording school records in yards (2,219), rushing touchdowns (28), attempts (395) and all-purpose yards (2,310). His 2,219 yards led the nation and shattered the SEC single-season rushing record previously held by Herschel Walker (1,891). First-year starter Jake Coker finished his career at Alabama a perfect 14-0 as the starting quarterback and recorded 3,110 yards through the air along with 21 touchdowns by season's end. His favorite target, Calvin Ridley, set the freshman record for yards with 1,045 receiving, eclipsing the previous freshman record of 1,000 held by Amari Cooper (2012). Ridley hauled in a team-leading 89 catches for a team-high 1,045 yards in 15 games (11 starts) and added seven touchdown catches. In total, the Crimson Tide's offense averaged 199.9 rushing yards per game and 227.1 yards through the air per contest.

Defensively, Alabama checked in as the nation's top-ranked rush defense, third in total defense and scoring defense, and eighth in pass efficiency defense. Possibly the best defense during the Saban era, the Tide recorded 49 sacks, the most by a Saban-coached team and the third-most sacks in program history. The defense also forced and SEC-leading 27 turnovers, 19 of which were interceptions which also led the conference. The 442 return yards on those picks led the nation, while the four pick-sixes by Alabama's secondary ranked second in the NCAA. Senior linebacker and defensive captain Reggie Ragland led the Tide in tackles with 102, while defensive lineman Jonathan Allen paced the defense with 12.0 sacks (-80 yards) and 14.5 tackles for a loss (-92 yards). Eddie Jackson, in his first year as the starting safety, picked off six passes for an Alabama all-time record 230 return yards, including two scores.

WIDE RECEIVER
DeVONTA SMITH

The No. 4-ranked University of Alabama football team defeated third-ranked Georgia, 26-23, on a game-winning 41-yard touchdown pass from freshman Tua Tagovailoa to fellow freshman wide receiver DeVonta Smith in the 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta.

The Crimson Tide won its 17th national championship and fifth in the last nine seasons with the win over the Bulldogs. Alabama head coach Nick Saban improved to 12-0 against his former assistants with the win over UGA's Kirby Smart.

Tagovailoa was named Offensive MVP after going 14-of-24 for 166 yards, three scores through the air and 27 yards on the ground, all in the second half.

On defense, junior Da'Ron Payne was named the Defensive MVP with six tackles in the game. Sophomore linebacker Mack Wilson led the team with 12 tackles, including two tackles-for-loss. Senior defensive back Tony Brown and sophomore defensive lineman Raekwon Davis each had an interception in the win.

Georgia received the ball first in the overtime period, starting at the UA 25-yard line. The Alabama defense pushed Georgia back nine yards to the 34-yard line, where the Bulldogs netted a 51-yard field goal attempt to go up 23-20.

Lining up on the UGA 25-yard line in Alabama's first overtime possession, Tagovailoa was sacked on the first play for a 16-yard loss to the 41-yard line. On the next play from scrimmage, Tagovailoa found Smith sprinting down the field for a 41-yard touchdown reception to give Alabama the 26-23 win in thrilling fashion.

SUPREME 18 2020

The Alabama football team won its 18th national championship Monday, January 12, 2021 at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Garden, Fla., in front of 14,926 fans with a dominating 52-24 win over No. 3 Ohio State in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game. Alabama finished its season with a clean 13-0 record, while Ohio State fell to 7-1.

In addition to it being the Crimson Tide's 18th national football championship overall, it was Nick Saban's seventh as a head coach, giving him the most in collegiate football history, and his sixth at Alabama. Under Saban, Alabama has posted 50-plus points against Associated Press Top 25 teams on seven occasions, including the Tide's 52-24 win against the Buckeyes in the 2020 National Championship Game. It also to marked UA's third 50-plus point effort on the season.

Najee Harris capped off the Tide's opening drive with a one-yard rush to put Alabama on the board first. Master Teague III's eight-yard rushing touchdown evened the score on Ohio State's second drive of the game.

In the second quarter, Mac Jones connected with DeVonta Smith from five yards out to finish off a 75-yard drive for Alabama's second touchdown of the game. Then, Teague III found the end zone for the second time, coming from four yards out, for another rushing score. Harris set the SEC single-season touchdown record (29) on his second score of the game off a 26-yard pass from Jones. Ohio State's Jake Seibert responded with a 23-yard kick through the uprights for the game's first field goal. After that, Smith trotted across the goal line after catching a five-yard pass from Jones for his second touchdown of the game, then he caught a perfectly placed 42-yard pass to give the Tide an 18-point advantage at the half.

Alabama's Will Reichard recorded his 14th field goal in as many attempts, this one from 20 yards out for the first score of the second half. The Buckeyes' Justin Fields tossed a 20-yard pass to Garrett Wilson deep in the end zone for their only receiving score of the game. Closing the third, Slade Bolden became the third different Alabama player to record a receiving touchdown, this one coming off a five-yard pass from Jones.

In the fourth quarter, the Tide's Harris carried for one yard for his second rushing touchdown and third overall in the game to put an exclamation mark on a historic season.

Smith was the game's Offensive MVP after setting championship game records for the most receptions (12) and receiving touchdowns (3), while accounting for 215 of the Crimson Tide's 464 receiving yards, all of which came in the first half. He concluded his Tide career with 3,965 receiving yards, which ranks atop both Alabama's and Southeastern Conference's all-time records.

Smith became the seventh player in the BCS/CFP era to win the Heisman and a national title in the same season.

Christian Barmore was named the Defensive MVP of the game after totaling five tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss in a disruptive performance.

Jones threw for a CFP championship game record 464 yards on 36-of-45 passing, including a CFP championship game record tying five touchdowns. His 36 passes marked a career high for the quarterback. Meanwhile, the 464 yards marked his fifth 400-plus yard performance on the season, owning five of just 11 such performances in Alabama history.

Najee Harris became just the fifth player to score both rushing and receiving touchdowns in a BCS/CFP title game with two on the ground and one through the air. He totaled 158 yards of total offense, including 79 yards rushing on 22 attempts and 79 yards receiving on seven catches in the game. With his performance, Harris recorded 30 total touchdowns during the 2020 season for the most by any Alabama or SEC player ever.

Christian Harris and Dylan Moses led the Tide defense in tackles with six each.

The Alabama offensive line concluded the season blocking for the Power 5's No. 1 scoring offense (48.5 ppg), No. 1 pass efficiency offense (198.9), No. 2 passing offense (358.2 ypg), No. 2 total offense (541.6 ypg) and No. 23 rushing attack (183.5 ypg).

The Crimson Tide moved to 8-3 all-time in College Football Playoff games since the playoff's inception in 2014 and is one of only two teams to appear in five of the six Playoffs, joining Clemson. The Crimson Tide holds the record for the most CFP wins with eight and most games played at 11.

18 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

1925 — 10-0

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Bruce Jones
Fact: Alabama outscored its 10 opponents by a combined total of 297 to 26, shutting out eight teams and clinching national honors with a monumental 20-19 win over Washington in the Rose Bowl.

1926 — 9-0-1

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Emile "Red" Barnes
Fact: The Crimson Tide won its second consecutive national title in impressive style, posting shutouts in six games and not allowing any opponent to score more than seven points in a game.

1930 — 10-0

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Charles B. Clement
Fact: What was perhaps Wallace Wade's greatest team was tested only twice - by Tennessee and Vanderbilt - on the way to an undefeated season in which Alabama outscored opponents by a combined total of 217 to 13. The Tide capped off the season with a 24-0 shellacking of Washington State in the Rose Bowl.

1934 — 10-0

Head Coach: Frank Thomas
8: William Lee
Fact: A tough October win over Tennessee (13-6) paved the way for the Tide's first national title under head coach Frank Thomas. Alabama closed its impressive undefeated season with a 29-13 domination of Stanford in the Rose Bowl.

1941 — 9-2

Head Coach: Frank Thomas
Team Captain: John Wyhonic
Fact: Rated the nation's best team by the Houlgate system, the 1941 Crimson Tide capped a 9-2 season with a remarkable 29-21 win over a powerful Texas A&M team at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas.

1961 — 11-0

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Pat Trammell, Billy Neighbors
Fact: A suffocating defense, a steady offense, and opportunistic special teams made this unit impossible to defeat. Alabama shutout six opponents overall, not allowing its final five foes in the regular season to score before capping the season with a 10-3 win over Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl.

1964 — 10-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Joe Namath, Ray Ogden
Fact: Awarded the title on a consensus basis at the end of the regular season, this squad eked out close wins over Florida (17-14), LSU (17-9) and Auburn (21-14) to earn the national title. A controversial Orange Bowl loss to Texas, 21-17, was the only blemish on Alabama's glorious season.

1965 — 9-1-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Steve Sloan, Paul Crane
Fact: The nation respected this team so much that the Tide was named consensus national champions despite a season-opening loss at Georgia (18-17) and a midseason tie with Tennessee (7-7). Alabama's stunning 39-28 Orange Bowl win over previously dominant Nebraska removed any doubt of the Tide's legitimacy as national champions.

1973 — 11-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Wilbur Jackson, Chuck Strickland
Fact: The last national champions to be crowned at the end of the regular season, the Crimson Tide outscored its first 11 opponents 454 to 89 en route to a showdown in the Sugar Bowl with Notre Dame.

1978 — 11-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Marty Lyons, Jeff Rutledge, Tony Nathan
Fact: The Crimson Tide lost only to co-national title contender Southern California in the regular season. Alabama's memorable 14-7 win over Penn State in the Sugar Bowl was the climax of an impressive season.

1979 — 12-0

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Don McNeal, Steve Whitman
Fact: The consensus national champions outscored their 12 opponents by a total of 383 to 67. After a comeback win over Auburn (25-18) to end the regular season, Alabama dominated Arkansas and leaped to the top of the polls after their win in the Sugar Bowl.

1992 — 13-0

Head Coach: Gene Stallings
Team Captains: Derrick Oden, George Teague, George Wilson, Prince Wimbley
Fact: This team had it all. After a tight win over Florida (28-21) in the SEC title game, Alabama then crushed Miami in the Sugar Bowl to seal the title for its 12th national championship.

2009 — 14-0

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Javier Arenas, Mike Johnson, Rolando McClain
Fact: Two blocked field goals propelled the Tide to a midseason win over Tennessee and into the SEC Championship Game where they exacted revenge on Florida with a dominating 32-13 win. UA then blitzed Texas in the BCS National Championship Game, 37-21.

2011 — 12-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Mark Barron, Dont'a Hightower, Trent Richardson
Fact: Alabama overcame an early November overtime loss to No. 1 LSU and earned a rematch in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game. In the Bayou Bengals' backyard, the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, the Crimson Tide won the title with a 21-0 shutout, which was the first in BCS history.

2012 — 13-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Barrett Jones, Damion Square, Chance Warmack
Fact: Alabama posted a last-minute comeback to win at No. 5 LSU and escaped with a dramatic 32-28 win over No. 3 Georgia in the SEC Championship Game. The Crimson Tide then rolled over No. 1 Notre Dame in the Discover BCS National Championship Game, 42-14, for the program's 15th title.

2015 — 14-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Jake Coker, Derrick Henry, Ryan Kelly, Reggie Ragland
Fact: In a top-ranked matchup of contrasting styles, Alabama showed incredible resourcefulness and resilience to earn its 16th national championship against the Clemson Tigers in the College Football Playoff National Championship by a score of 45-40. It was head coach Nick Saban's fifth national title, four of which came at UA, joining Paul "Bear" Bryant as the only two coaches in college football history to win at least five national championships during their tenure.

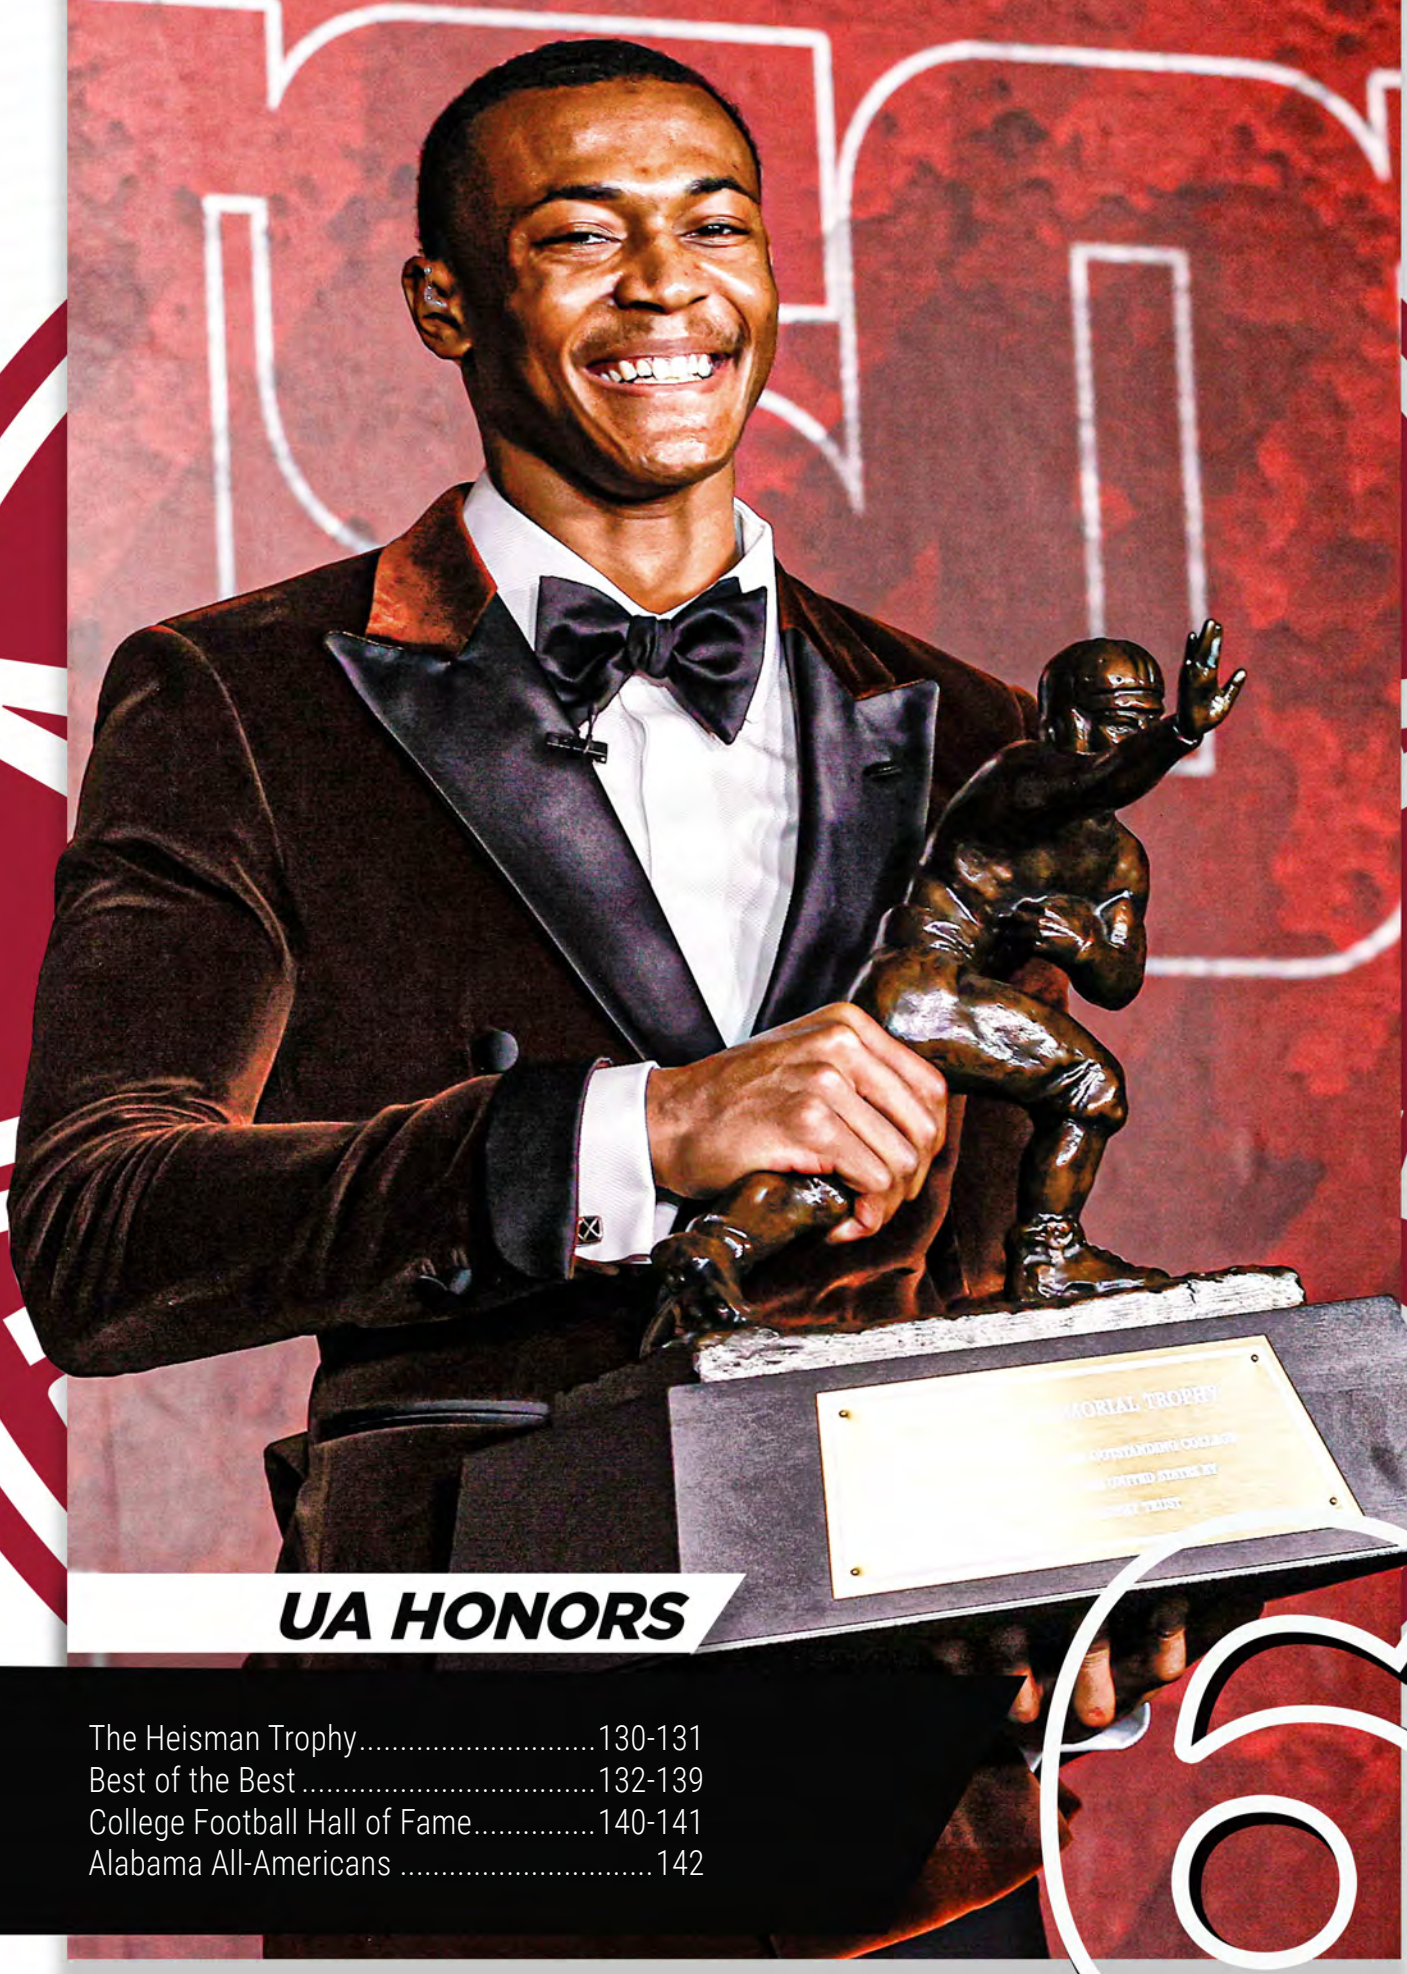

2017 — 13-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Bradley Bozeman, Rashaan Evans, Minkah Fitzpatrick, Shaun Dion Hamilton
Fact: In a matchup of SEC foes, No. 4 Alabama rallied from a 20-7 third quarter deficit to defeat No. 3 Georgia, 26-23, in the first overtime game in College Football Playoff history as Tua Tagovailoa found fellow freshman DeVonta Smith for a game-winning 41-yard scoring strike in the first extra session.

2020 — 13-0

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Landon Dickerson, Mac Jones, Alex Leatherwood, DeVonta Smith
Fact: Alabama recorded 621 yards of total offense to defeat No. 3 Ohio State (52-24), earning its 18th national title and its sixth under head coach Nick Saban. It marked just the 11th time in program history the Crimson Tide eclipsed the 600-plus yard marker and the second time on the season. In the process, DeVonta Smith broke the CFP National Championship Game record for most receiving yards in a half (215), and he became the first player to have three receiving touchdowns in a CFP National Championship Game and the most receptions with 12.

SECTION 6

THE HEISMAN

In 2009, Alabama sophomore running back Mark Ingram became the 75th recipient of the Heisman Trophy and first Crimson Tide player to take home the honor.

Derrick Henry brought home Alabama's second Heisman Trophy in 2015 after rushing for an SEC record 2,219 yards and 28 touchdowns, as he led the Crimson Tide to its 16th national championship.

DeVonta Smith is the latest Crimson Tide player to win the Heisman Trophy, after leading the nation with 117 receptions for a school-record 23 receiving touchdowns and 1,865 receiving yards in 2020.

Alabama boasts a rich and storied football history. The Crimson Tide has won an NCAA-leading 18 national championships to go with 32 conference championships, while also producing 140 first team All-Americans, 25 members of the College Football Hall of Fame and numerous national award winners. But, until 2009, Alabama had never laid claim to the most celebrated and sought-after award in college athletics – the Heisman Trophy. The Heisman is a national symbol of the collegiate football experience and unmatched competitiveness. The Crimson Tide had been represented by numerous finalists over the years, but none of the first 74 Heisman Trophies found a home in Tuscaloosa.

All of that changed as a sophomore from Flint, Mich., burst into the nation's consciousness in 2009, breaking tackles all the way to the Nokia Theater in New York City's Times Square where Mark Ingram became Alabama's first Heisman Trophy winner. He edged out Stanford's Toby Gerhart by 28 points to capture the most coveted award in college football, tallying 1,304 points and 227 first-place votes in the closest Heisman Trophy vote in the award's history.

The Crimson Tide collected its second Heisman Trophy in 2015 as Derrick Henry, a native of Yulee, Fla., set the SEC rushing record with 2,219 yards on his way to victory. Henry earned 1,832 points to capture the Heisman, including 378 first-place votes that outdistanced Stanford's Christian McCaffrey by 293 points with Deshaun Watson third (1,165 points).

Alabama's third Heisman came from an unlikely suspect as DeVonta Smith became the first wide receiver to hear his name called since Desmond Howard in 1991. Smith was joined by Alabama teammates in quarterback Mac Jones (third, 1,130 points) and running back Najee Harris (fifth, 216 points) in the top five, becoming just the second trio of teammates to finish in the top five in the award's history (Army, 1946).

Ingram, Henry and Smith are among 14 players in Southeastern Conference history to win the Heisman Trophy as the SEC has produced seven in the last 14 years, joining 2007 winner Tim Tebow (Florida), 2010 winner Cam Newton (Auburn), 2012 winner Johnny Manziel (Texas A&M) and 2019 winner Joe Burrow (LSU). Other SEC winners include Frank Sinkwich (Georgia, 1942), Billy Cannon (LSU, 1959), Steve Spurrier (Florida, 1966), Pat Sullivan (Auburn, 1971), Herschel Walker (Georgia, 1982), Bo Jackson (Auburn, 1985) and Danny Wuerffel (Florida, 1996).

Ingram produced a 2009 season that was one for the Alabama football history books. He rushed for a then-school-record 1,658 yards with 20 total touchdowns in 14 games for a 118.43 yards per game average to rank 11th nationally and second in the SEC. Ingram added 30 receptions for 322 yards and three scores. His 1,992 all-purpose yards ranked as the third-highest single-season total in school history at the time. Ingram also gained an astonishing 1,075 yards - or 54 percent of his all-purpose yards - after contact. His numbers climbed even higher when the Crimson Tide's opponent was ranked in the top 25, accounting for 1,134 all-purpose yards, or 189.0 yards per game, in six games against top-25 foes, including four against top-10 teams.

Henry's 2,219 yards in his junior campaign were the fifth-best rushing total by a running back in the history of the Football Bowl Subdivision following the '15 season. He also set school records for rushing touchdowns (28), rushing yards per game (147.9), all-purpose yards (2,310), carries (395) and points scored (168). Henry seemed to play even better against the best competition, averaging 138.8 yards per game (10 games) against teams with rush defenses ranked in the top 50 and 166.6 yards per game against teams ranked in the top 25 (nine).

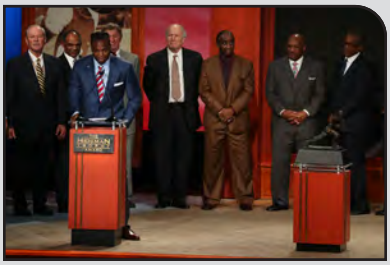

Smith led the nation in receptions (117), receiving touchdowns (23) and receiving yards (1,856) in 2020, setting school records in each category and claiming the SEC records for touchdowns and receiving yards. He averaged 142.8 receiving yards per game and converted a first down or scored a touchdown on 85 of his 117 catches. He also scored a rushing touchdown and returned a punt for a score at Arkansas. He was a unanimous All-American, while also capturing the Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year, Associated Press Player of the Year, the Biletnikoff Award and the Paul Hornung Award.

Known as the DAC Trophy when it first was presented to Jay Berwagner, the legendary "one man gang" of the University of Chicago on Dec. 9, 1935, the bronze statue depicts a football player side-stepping and straight arming a tackler. Cast in the highly artistic method known as the lost wax process of bronze medal molding, the statue weighs 45 pounds and is 14 inches long, 13 and a half inches in height and six and a half inches in width. It was designed by New York sculptor Frank Eliscu, who was commissioned by the Downtown Athletic Club to create a figure of a football player in imperishable bronze to serve as an annual trophy award. Eliscu used his friend, Ed Smith, a starter on the New York University Football team, as the player model for his initial creations.

However, reference to the award as the DAC Trophy was only used once. Following the death of John Heisman in October of 1936 (Heisman at the time was the Director of Athletics at the Downtown Athletic Club), the award was renamed the Heisman Memorial Trophy. Today, the annual award involves the use of two statues. One is presented to the college football player selected for excellence and this remains the permanent possession of the winner. A second trophy is awarded to the school represented by the winner.

CHUCK BEDNARIK AWARD

Created in 1995, the Chuck Bednarik Award is presented annually to the top defensive player in college football as chosen by the Maxwell Football Club. The award is named for Chuck Bednarik, a former college and professional American football player. Voters for the Maxwell College Awards are NCAA head college football coaches, members of the Maxwell Football Club, and sportswriters and sportscasters from across the country.

BILETNIKOFF AWARD

The Biletnikoff Award is presented annually to the nation's outstanding college football receiver (the award defines receiver as any player who catches a pass) by the Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation, Inc. The award is named for Fred Biletnikoff, who starred for Florida State and then the Oakland Raiders. Amari Cooper was the first Alabama football player to win the Award (2014) after a record-setting season with 124 catches for 1,727 yards and 16 touchdowns. Jerry Jeudy joined Cooper in 2018 after putting up similar numbers, with 14 touchdowns and 1,315 receiving yards. DeVonta Smith received the honor in 2020 after leading the nation with 117 receptions to go with a school-record 23 receiving touchdowns and 1,865 receiving yards.

BROYLES AWARD

The Frank Broyles Award was established to recognize some of the most dedicated, hardest-working people in America – the college football assistant coach. And, over the years, the award has done just that. Each head coach can nominate one assistant coach from his staff, while the five Broyles Award finalists are chosen from almost 1,500 assistant coaches representing the College Football Bowl Subdivision. Kirby Smart became Alabama's first Broyles Award Recipient in 2009. Mike Locksley became the second in 2018 after guiding one of the nation's top offenses to a national championship appearance. Steve Sarkisian was the winner of the 25th annual Broyles Award, helping Alabama to its 18th national title with the Power 5's No. 1 scoring offense (48.5 ppg) and No. 1 pass efficiency offense (198.9).

BUTKUS AWARD

Created in 1985, the Butkus Award is given annually to college football's top linebacker. The award is named in honor of College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame linebacker Dick Butkus, widely regarded as one of the best linebackers of all time and a star at the University of Illinois and the Chicago Bears. A 1979 inductee of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Butkus played in the NFL for the Chicago Bears and earned a reputation as one of the most intimidating players in the history of the game.

WALTER CAMP PLAYER OF THE YEAR

The Walter Camp Trophy is awarded to the outstanding player of the year in college football who has exemplified the qualities of self-discipline, unselfish team play, desire to excel, mature judgement and respect for leadership. His performance on the playing field must be accompanied by an equally strong effort to contribute off the field. He must exhibit an awareness of the need to fulfill his role as a leader. He must espouse the ideals adhered to by Walter Camp, the "Father of American Football." Derrick Henry brought home Alabama's first Walter Camp Player of the Year honor in 2015 after rushing for 2,219 yards and 28 touchdowns. Tua Tagovailoa became the second recipient in 2018 after passing 3,966 yards and 43 touchdowns. DeVonta Smith was the winner in 2020 after leading the nation with 117 receptions for a school-record 23 receiving touchdowns and 1,865 receiving yards.

WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL TROPHY

The William V. Campbell Trophy has become the most prestigious and desirable "academic" award in college football. The trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his academic success, football performance and exemplary community leadership. The finalists receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class. The winner of the Campbell Trophy has his postgraduate scholarship increased to $25,000. Alabama offensive lineman Barrett Jones was the sixth Alabama player selected as a finalist and became the program's first winner in 2012.

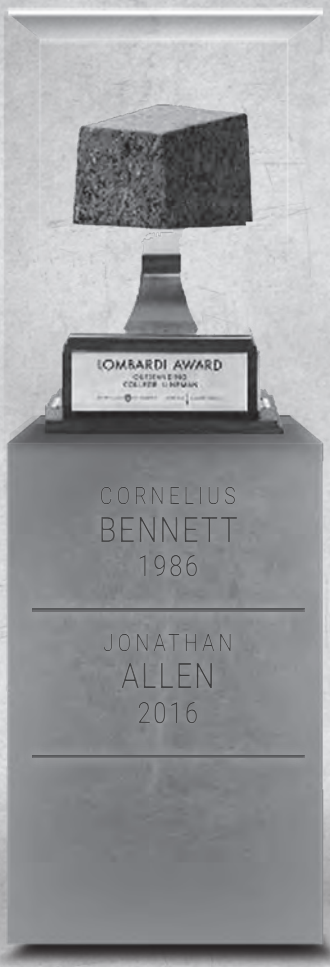

DISNEY SPIRIT AWARD

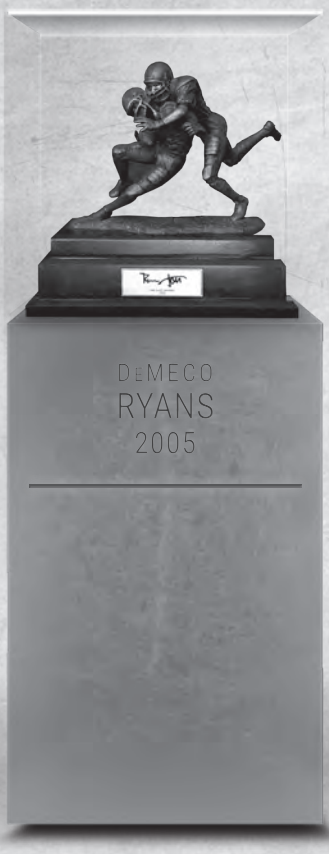

The Disney Sports Spirit Award has been presented each year since 1996 to college football's most inspirational player, team or figure. The Alabama football team, represented by Carson Tinker, was recognized for its efforts following the April 27, 2011, tornado that tore through Tuscaloosa. The award is not based on statistics or other on-field records or achievements, but rather for bravery, courage, overcoming adversity, and the love of college football.

JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM

The Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award is given annually to the nation's outstanding senior or fourth year quarterback in college football. It was established in 1987 by a foundation named for Johnny Unitas, the Hall of Fame quarterback who played at the University of Louisville before going on to a legendary career for the NFL's Baltimore Colts. Jay Barker (1994) and AJ McCarron (2013) both captured the award during their senior seasons at Alabama. Mac Jones received the honor in 2020 after setting Alabama's all-time single-season passing-yardage record with 4,500 yards.

TED HENDRICKS AWARD

Created in 2002, the Ted Hendricks Award is given annually to college football's top defensive end. The award is named after Ted Hendricks, who is a member of both the College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame and is presented by the Ted Hendricks Foundation.

LOMBARDI AWARD

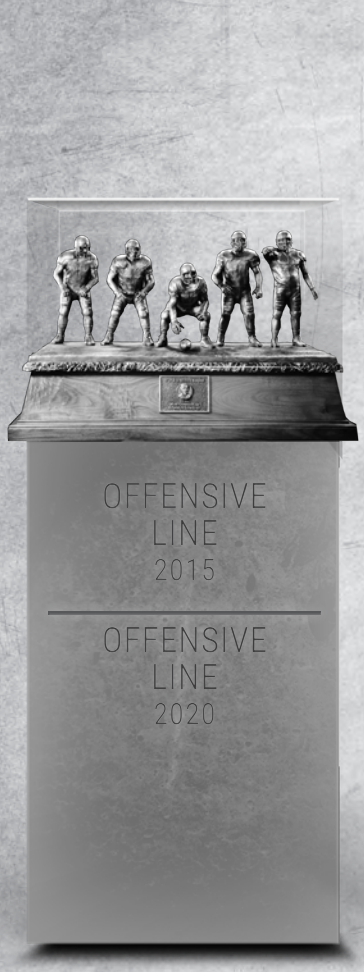

Begun in 1970, the Lombardi Award is hosted by the Rotary Club of Houston and benefits the American Cancer Society. The award goes annually to the college football lineman on offense or defense that, in addition to outstanding performance and ability, best exemplifies the discipline of Vince Lombardi. As the legendary coach of the Green Bay Packers, Lombardi first made a name for himself as the smallest but toughest member of Fordham University's "Seven Blocks of Granite," renowned in their day (1934-37) for being the most unyielding line in college football.

LOTT TROPHY

The Lott Trophy is presented annually to the college football Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year. IMPACT is an acronym for: Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community and Tenacity. The award recognizes the personal character of the winning player as well as athletic excellence and is named in honor Ronnie Lott, a defensive back who starred at Southern California and for the NFL's San Francisco 49ers. Lott is a member of both the College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

MAXWELL AWARD

The Maxwell Football Club presents the Maxwell Award for the College Football Player of the Year. This award is presented in honor of Robert W. (Tiny) Maxwell, legendary college player, official and sports columnist. The award has been given annually since 1937 when Yale's Clint Frank was honored. The Maxwell Award is voted on by head coaches, members of the Maxwell Football Club and sportswriters and sportscasters from across the country. Tua Tagovailoa became Alabama's third winner in 2018, joining AJ McCarron (2013) and Derrick Henry (2015). DeVonta Smith became Alabama's fourth winner in 2020 thanks to his record-setting senior season.

JOE MOORE AWARD

The Joe Moore Award, presented by the Joe Moore Foundation for Teamwork, awarded Alabama the inaugural trophy in 2015 and again in 2020. It is given annually to college football's best offensive line unit. The award is designed to preserve the legacy of Joe Moore, who coached most notably at Pittsburgh and Notre Dame. Moore was responsible for developing the skills of several All-Americans throughout his storied career, including Bill Fralic, Mark May, Russ Grimm, Jimbo Covert, Mark Stepnowski, Aaron Taylor, and Andy Heck. Coach Moore sent 52 players on to the NFL, several of whom are in the Pro and College Football Hall of Fame.

BRONKO NAGURSKI TROPHY

The Bronko Nagurski Trophy has been awarded annually since 1993 to the top defensive player in college football as voted on by the membership of the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). The award is presented by the Charlotte Touchdown Club and the FWAA and is named for Bronko Nagurski, who played football for the University of Minnesota and the Chicago Bears.

OUTLAND TROPHY

The Outland Trophy is awarded to the best United States college football interior lineman by the Football Writers Association of America. It is named after John H. Outland, one of a select few players ever named All-America at two positions. Outland earned consensus All-America honors in 1898 at tackle and consensus All-America honors at halfback in 1899 for the University of Pennsylvania. Alex Leatherwood became Alabama's sixth winner in 2020, joining Quinnen Williams (2018), Cam Robinson (2016), Chris Samuels (1999), Andre Smith (2008) and Barrett Jones (2011).

RIMINGTON TROPHY

The Rimington Trophy was created to recognize the most outstanding center in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The trophy is named after former Nebraska center Dave Rimington, who won the Outland Trophy in consecutive years, was a two-time first team All-American and the 1982 Big Eight Offensive Player of the Year. The trophy is presented by the Boomer Esiason Foundation, which was created when his son, Gunnar, was diagnosed with cystic fibrosis. The Rimington Trophy has played a major role in raising money to support the CF community and is essential in honoring one of the most pivotal roles on the football field. Landon Dickerson became Alabama's third winner in 2020 after Ryan Kelly (2015) and Barrett Jones (2012) each captured the honors before him.

JIM THORPE AWARD

Created in 1986, the Jim Thorpe Award is annually presented to the top defensive back in college football. Winners are judged on their performance on the field, athletic ability and character. The award is named for Jim Thorpe, an Olympic gold medalist in 1912 who also played professional football, baseball and basketball. His football prowess enabled tiny Carlisle College to become a national college football power early in the 20th century. Thorpe was widely considered the world's greatest athlete of the first half of the 20th Century.

DOAK WALKER AWARD

Created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievement in the classroom and citizenship in the community, the Doak Walker Award is the only major collegiate football award that requires all candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification. Named for famed SMU running back Doak Walker, a three-time All-American and the 1948 Heisman Trophy winner. Trent Richardson became the first Alabama player to win the award in 2011 after rushing for 1,679 yards and 21 touchdowns. Derrick Henry was the second Crimson Tide player to see his name etched on the trophy in 2015 after rushing for an SEC-record 2,219 yards and 28 touchdowns. Najee Harris received the honor in 2020 after leading the nation in total touchdowns (30), rushing touchdowns (26) and scoring (180).

WUERFFEL TROPHY

The Wuerffel Trophy is presented by the All Sports Association of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., to the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement. It is named for former University of Florida quarterback Danny Wuerffel, the 1996 Heisman Trophy winner.

POLYNESIAN AWARD

The Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Award recognizes the most outstanding player of Polynesian ancestry who epitomizes great ability and integrity. The Polynesian Football Hall of Fame honors Polynesia's greatest players, coaches and contributors. It also serves as a resource for Polynesian football history, provides academic scholarships and supports educational programs for Polynesian youth. Its permanent home is located at the Polynesian Cultural Center (O'ahu's North Shore) and was established in 2013 by Super Bowl Champions Jesse Sapolu and Ma'a Tanuvasa.

DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD

The Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award is the nation's oldest national quarterback award. In November 1977, just before O'Brien passed away from cancer, O'Brien's longtime friend and business partner, Charles Ringler, and other members of The Fort Worth Club established the Davey O'Brien Foundation and the Davey O'Brien Memorial Trophy. The Davey O'Brien Award honors candidates who exemplify Davey O'Brien's enduring character while exhibiting teamwork, sportsmanship and leadership in both academics and athletics. Mac Jones was the first Alabama quarterback to earn this award, doing so after setting Alabama's all-time single-season passing-yardage record with 4,500 yards in 2020.

PAUL HORNUNG AWARD

The Paul Hornung Award is given annually by the Louisville Sports Commission (LSC) to the most versatile player in major college football. The Award was created by the LSC in January 2010 with the support of the Golden Boy himself, Paul Hornung, a native and lifelong resident of Louisville and member of the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame. DeVonta Smith brought home Alabama's first Paul Hornung Award after converting 60 percent of his receptions into scores or first downs and leading the nation with 117 receptions to go with a school-record 23 receiving touchdowns and a school-record 1,865 receiving yards in 2020.

MANNING AWARD

Prior to the 2004 college football season, the Manning Award was created by the Allstate Sugar Bowl in honor of the college football accomplishments of Archie, Peyton and Eli Manning. It is the only college football quarterback award that includes the candidates' bowl performances in its balloting; therefore, it is presented annually following the completion of the bowl season. Mac Jones won UA's first Manning Award after leading the nation and setting the Alabama single-season record by passing for 4,500 yards in 2020.

PATRICK MANNELLY AWARD

ALEXANDER FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

Shaun Alexander is a former All-Pro running back. He finished a four-year career with the Crimson Tide holding 15 records including 3,565 career rushing yards and most touchdowns (five) in a game. He was drafted by Seattle as the 19th overall pick in the 2000 NFL Draft, and in his second season had a breakout year with 1,318 yards and 14 touchdowns, including a franchise-record 266 yards on 35 carries in a memorable ESPN Sunday Night Football game against Oakland. Will Anderson Jr. won the Tide's first Shaun Alexander-FWAA Freshman of the Year honor after dominating in his first season at the Capstone. He totaled 52 tackles, including 10.5 for loss and seven sacks, to go with eight quarterback pressures.

ASSOCIATED PRESS PLAYER OF THE YEAR

DeVonta Smith won Alabama's first Associated Press College Football Player of the Year, picking up the honor in 2020. He became the first wide receiver to win the award since it was established in 1998. Smith is the only receiver in SEC history to record multiple career games with four or more receiving touchdowns, while also holding the league record in career receiving touchdowns (46) and career receiving yards (3,965). In 2020, he led the nation in receptions (117), receiving touchdowns (23) and receiving yards (1,856), while ranking second in Division I in receptions per game (9.0) and receiving yards per game (142.8)

E.J. JUNIOR

ALABAMA 1977-80

Former Alabama defensive lineman E.J. Junior was named to the 2020 class of the College Football Hall of Fame by the National Football Foundation.

Junior became the 21st Crimson Tide player to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. He was an imposing threat on the defensive line and led Alabama to two national championships as part of a remarkable four years in Tuscaloosa.

A unanimous First Team All-American in 1980, Junior was a finalist for the Lombardi Award and helped guide Alabama to consecutive national championships in 1978 and 1979. Junior and the 1979 Crimson Tide squad went 12-0, winning the program's third straight Sugar Bowl and completing a run of eight SEC Championships in nine years. He was part of only four losses during his Alabama career, helping the Tide post an astounding 44-4 record, which included a 28-game winning streak, while never finishing lower than No. 6 in the national rankings.

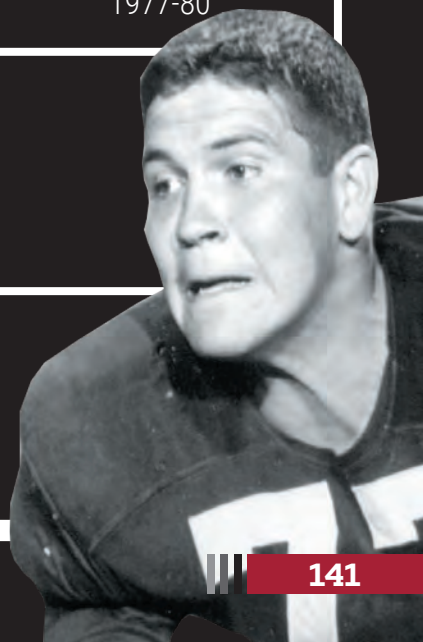

The three-time First Team All-SEC selection capped his career with a dominant 30-2 win over Baylor in the 1981 Cotton Bowl. Selected as the 1980 SEC Lineman of the Year by both the Atlanta Touchdown Club and the Birmingham Monday Morning Quarterback Club, Junior was the leader of a defense that allowed only 98 points during his senior campaign and just 67 in 1979. He racked up 190 tackles and 21 sacks for the Crimson Tide while playing alongside fellow Hall of Famers Marty Lyons and Ozzie Newsome, and his 10 career forced fumbles are tied for the school record. Junior is enshrined in the Senior Bowl, State of Alabama Sports and State of Tennessee halls of fame.

The fifth overall pick in the 1981 NFL Draft, Junior was a two-time Pro Bowl selection while playing with the St. Louis/Phoenix Cardinals (1981-88). He subsequently played for the Miami Dolphins (1989-91), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1992) and Seattle Seahawks (1992-93).

Junior became an ordained minister after retiring from the NFL while also entering the coaching ranks. He started out as a linebackers coach with the Seahawks and had stints with the Dolphins, Minnesota Vikings, Jacksonville Jaguars and Rhein Fire of NFL Europe. After time as an assistant at Southwest Baptist (Mo.), Junior served as the head coach at Central State (Ohio) from 2009-13, and he was later an assistant and interim head coach at Delaware State.

THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

NFL DRAFT

Names such as Shaun Alexander, Cornelius Bennett, Joe Namath, Chris Samuels, Kenny Stabler and Derrick Thomas have starred on the NFL gridiron after their career at the Capstone. The most recent history of the draft has been dominated by Alabama, as the Crimson Tide has produced 39 first round draft picks and 106 total picks over the last 13 years. That total is the most by any program in college football during that span.

This past season, the Crimson Tide saw six former standouts go in the first round including Jaylen Waddle (No. 6, Miami Dolphins), Patrick Surtain II, (No.9 Denver Broncos), DeVonta Smith (No. 10, Philadelphia Eagles), Mac Jones, (No. 15, New England Patriots), Alex Leatherwood, (No. 17, Las Vegas Raiders) and Najee Harris, (No. 24, Pittsburgh Steelers). In 2021, Alabama tied Miami for most first-round draft picks in a single year ever with the six selections.

The Crimson Tide's 10 total selections in the 2021 NFL Draft are tied for the second-most draft picks in a single draft in program history. Alabama has had at least 10 draft picks in a single draft five total times in program history, including four instances under head coach Nick Saban (10 in 1945, 2017, 2019 and 2021 and 12 in 2018).

The Crimson Tide has had at least five players taken in the first 35 picks in the 2012, 2017 and 2021 NFL Drafts. In 2021, eight Tide players were selected in the first 60 picks, one-upping 2020's total of seven across the first 60 selections.

HALL OF FAME

DON HUTSON
1963

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1935-45
ALABAMA 1932-34

Don Hutson could outmaneuver and outrace virtually every defender in the league. He led the NFL in receiving in eight of his 11 seasons and in scoring five straight years. Twice, in 1941 and 1942, he was named the league's MVP.

When Hutson retired in 1945 after 11 superb seasons, he held 18 NFL records, including 488 career receptions.

BART STARR
1977

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1956-71
ALABAMA 1952-55

Bart Starr was a 17th-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1956. Three years later, his playing time still was limited and his football future appeared in doubt. That's when Vince Lombardi took over as the Packers coach, an event that may have saved Starr's NFL career.

Lombardi, in tireless study of films, found that he liked Bart's mechanics, his arm, his ball-handling techniques and, most of all, his decision-making abilities. Under Lombardi's careful nurturing, Starr gained the confidence to become one of the NFL's great field leaders.

JOE NAMATH
1985

NEW YORK JETS 1965-76
ALABAMA 1962-64

Joe Namath is best remembered for his performance in the New York Jets' stunning 16-7 upset of the heavily favored Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III. However, during his 13-year tenure from 1965 through 1977 he was one of the game's most exciting, proficient and publicized quarterbacks.

Namath earned all-league accolades four times in his career (1967, 1968, 1969, and 1972) and was named to the all-time AFL honor team in 1969. He also was elected to four AFL all-star games and one AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

JOHN HANNAH
1991

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 1973-85
ALABAMA 1970-72

John Hannah, a 6-2, 265-pound guard from Alabama, was the first-round pick of the New England Patriots and the fourth player selected in the 1973 National Football League Draft. He was an eight-letterman star in football, track and wrestling and a two-time gridiron All-America at Alabama.

Hannah finished his career after the 1985 season on a high note. His final campaign had produced an AFC championship and Super Bowl XX appearance for the Patriots, and All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl invitation for the veteran lineman.

DWIGHT STEPHENSON

MIAMI DOLPHINS 1980-87
ALABAMA 1977-79

Dwight Stephenson was born Nov. 20, 1957, in Murfreesboro, N.C. He was a quiet, intense, hard-working and competitive offensive lineman out of the University of Alabama. He was an exceptionally quick blocker and possessed an explosive charge off the snap. Stephenson was the Dolphins offensive captain and his presence as the anchor of the offensive line was a major factor in the Dolphins' record of allowing the fewest quarterback sacks in the NFL for six straight years.

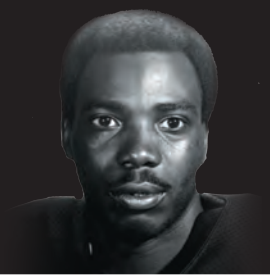

OZZIE NEWSOME

CLEVELAND BROWNS 1978-90
ALABAMA 1974-77

Throughout his 13-season, 198-game NFL career with the Cleveland Browns from 1978 to 1990, Ozzie Newsome was a fixture at tight end, a true team leader in every respect, and one of only five players in Browns history to play in parts of three decades.

Nicknamed the "Wizard of Oz," Newsome became the leading tight end receiver in NFL history with 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 touchdowns. He ranked as the fourth-leading receiver when he retired. Newsome is now the general manager of the Baltimore Ravens.

DERRICK THOMAS

KANSAS CITY CHIEFS 1989-99
ALABAMA 1985-88

Derrick Thomas displayed extraordinary pass-rushing skills throughout his 11-season career that tragically was cut short by his death following an automobile accident shortly after the 1999 NFL regular season.

No player amassed more sacks during the decade of 1990s than the 116.5 sacks by Thomas. He finished his career with 126.5 sacks, which was the fourth-highest total by a linebacker in NFL history. Thomas had 10 or more sacks in a season seven times and recorded multi-sack games 27 times during his 169-game career.

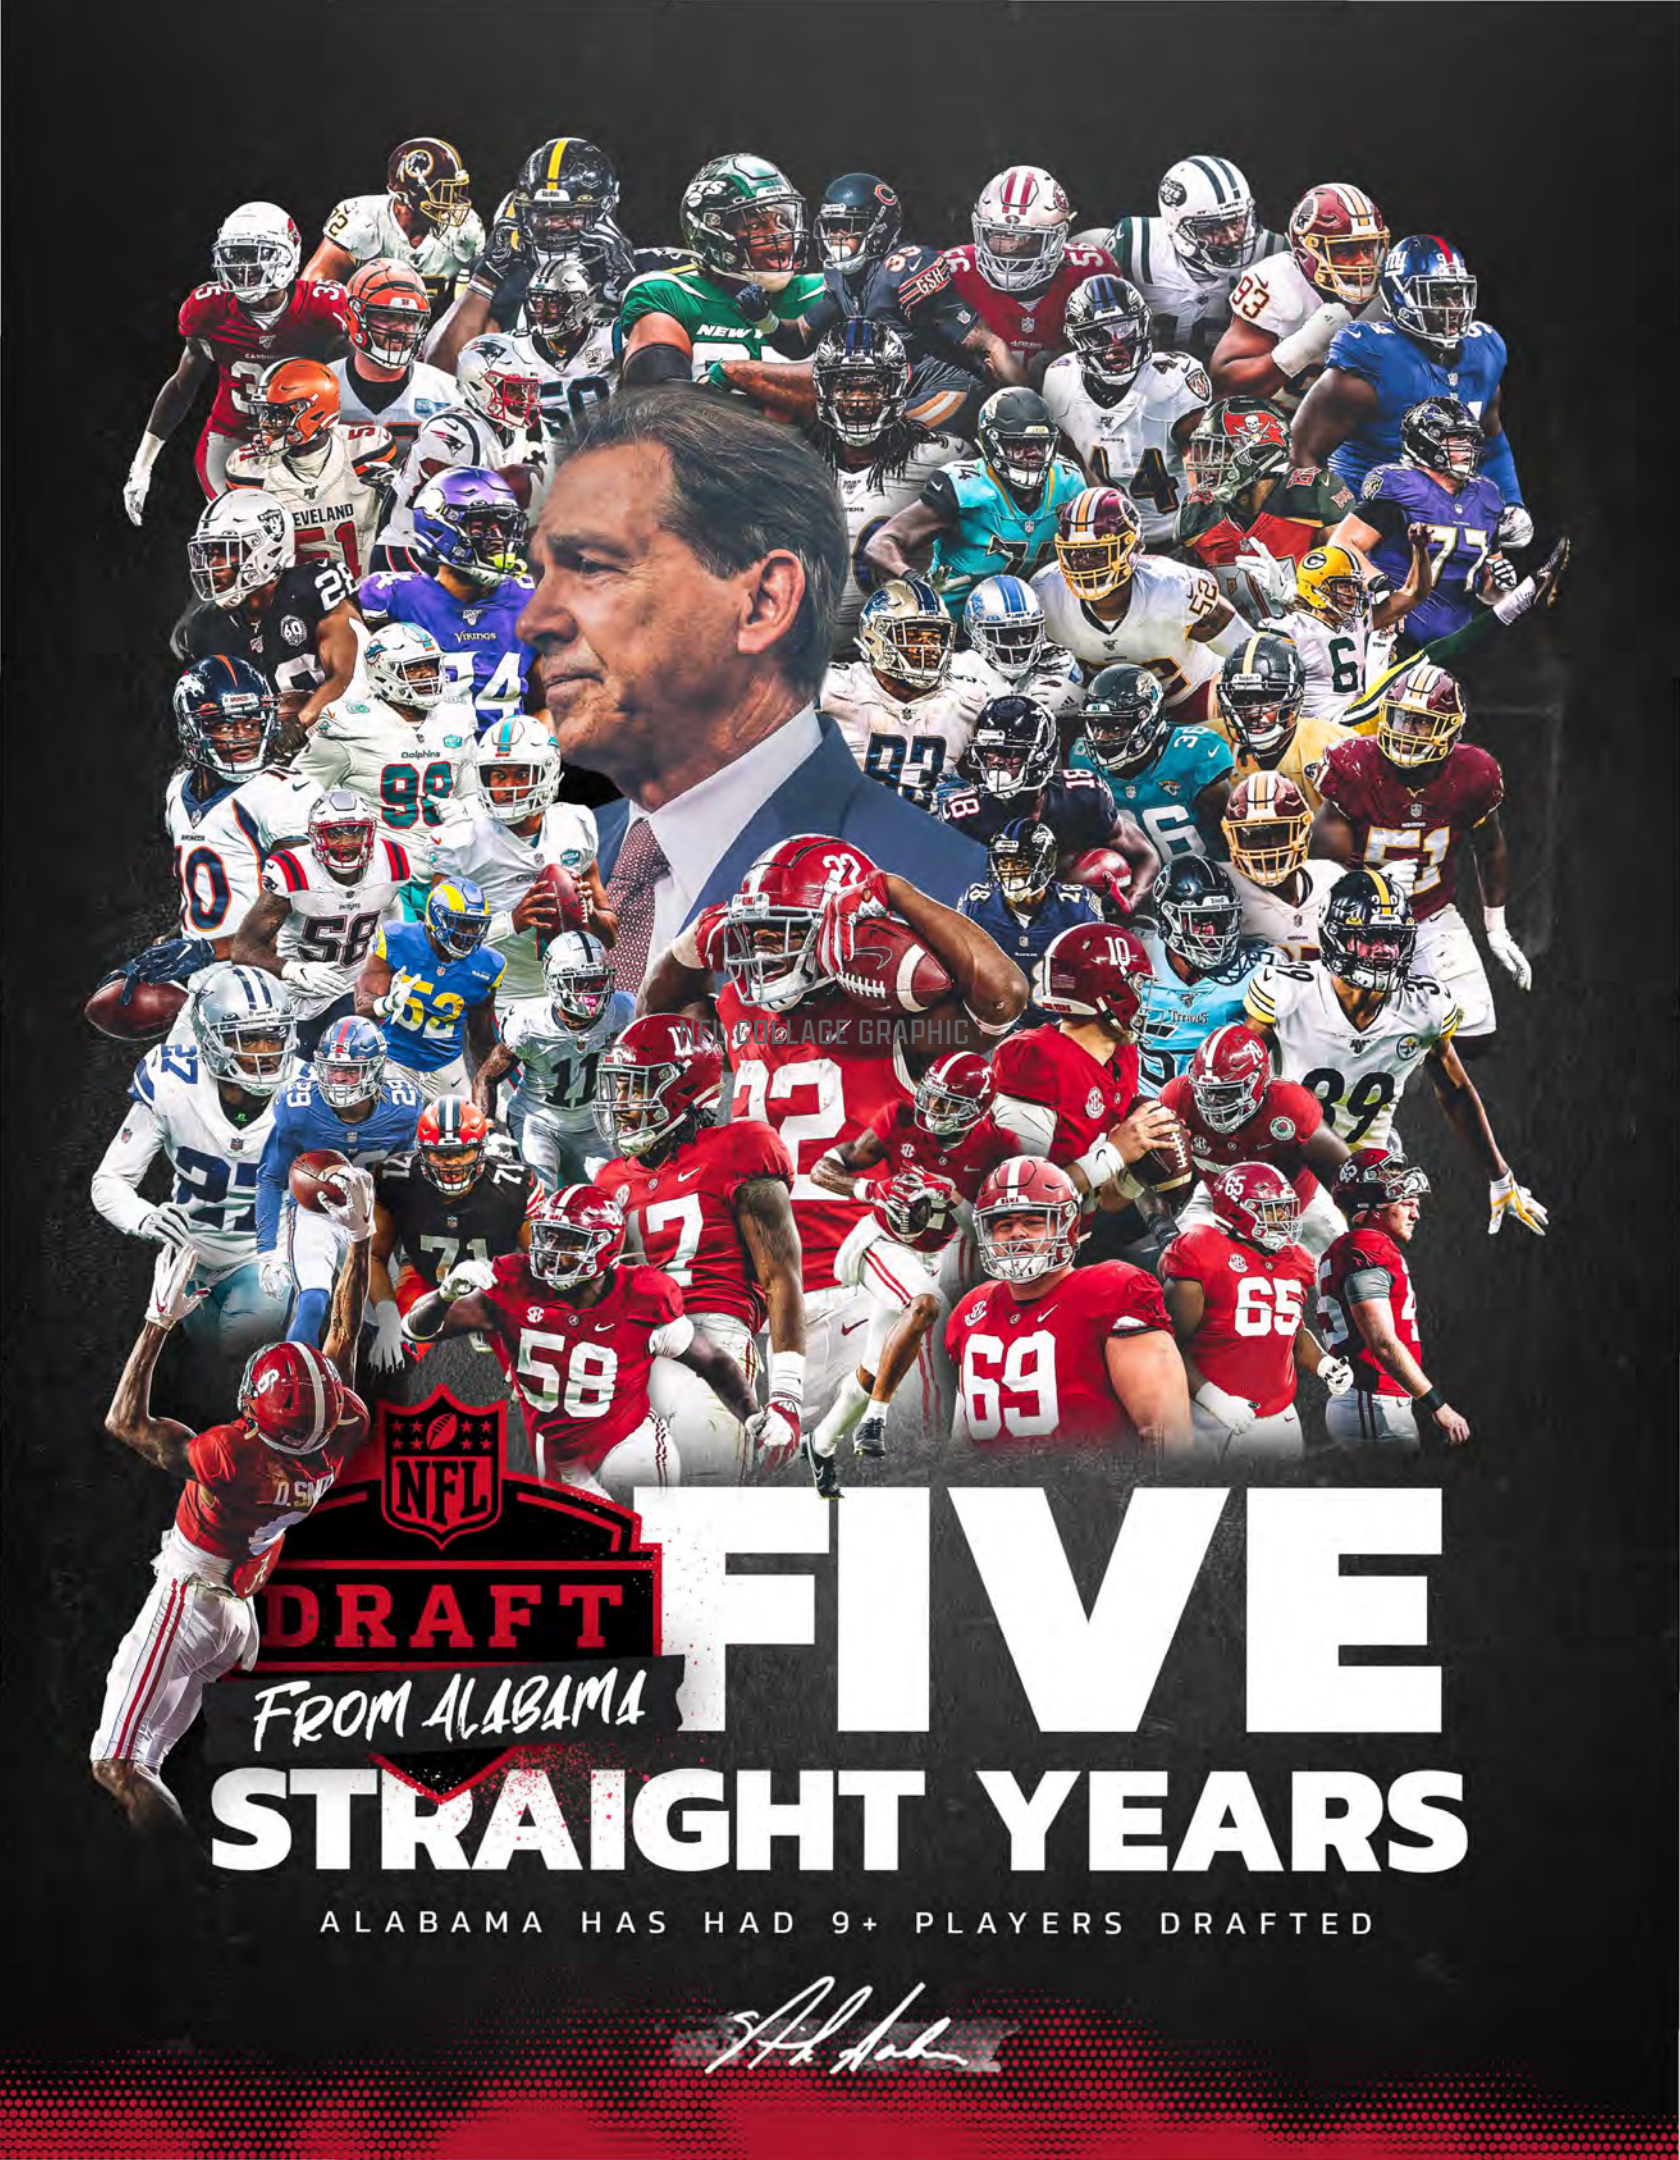

KENNY STABLER

OAKLAND RAIDERS 1970-79
ALABAMA 1965-67

A four-time Pro Bowl selection and two-time AFC Player of the Year, Kenny Stabler led the Oakland Raiders to their first Super Bowl championship with a victory over the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl XI.

Stabler was named the NFL's MVP in 1974 when he led the Raiders to a 12-2 record and a berth in the AFC Championship game. He remains Oakland's career leader in victories, passing yardage, completions and touchdown passes.

CTSM

Crimson Tide Sports Marketing

From opening day on September 4 through the bowl game, Alabama fans will hear all the action of Alabama football on the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN). Nearly 90 radio stations across the country, including Hawaii, will broadcast Alabama football games during the 2021 season.

Eli Gold is in his third decade as the voice of the Tide and has called the action of every Crimson Tide game since 1989. A nationally known sportscaster, Gold's broadcasting career includes play-by-play for NFL, Arena Football League and NHL games on radio and television.

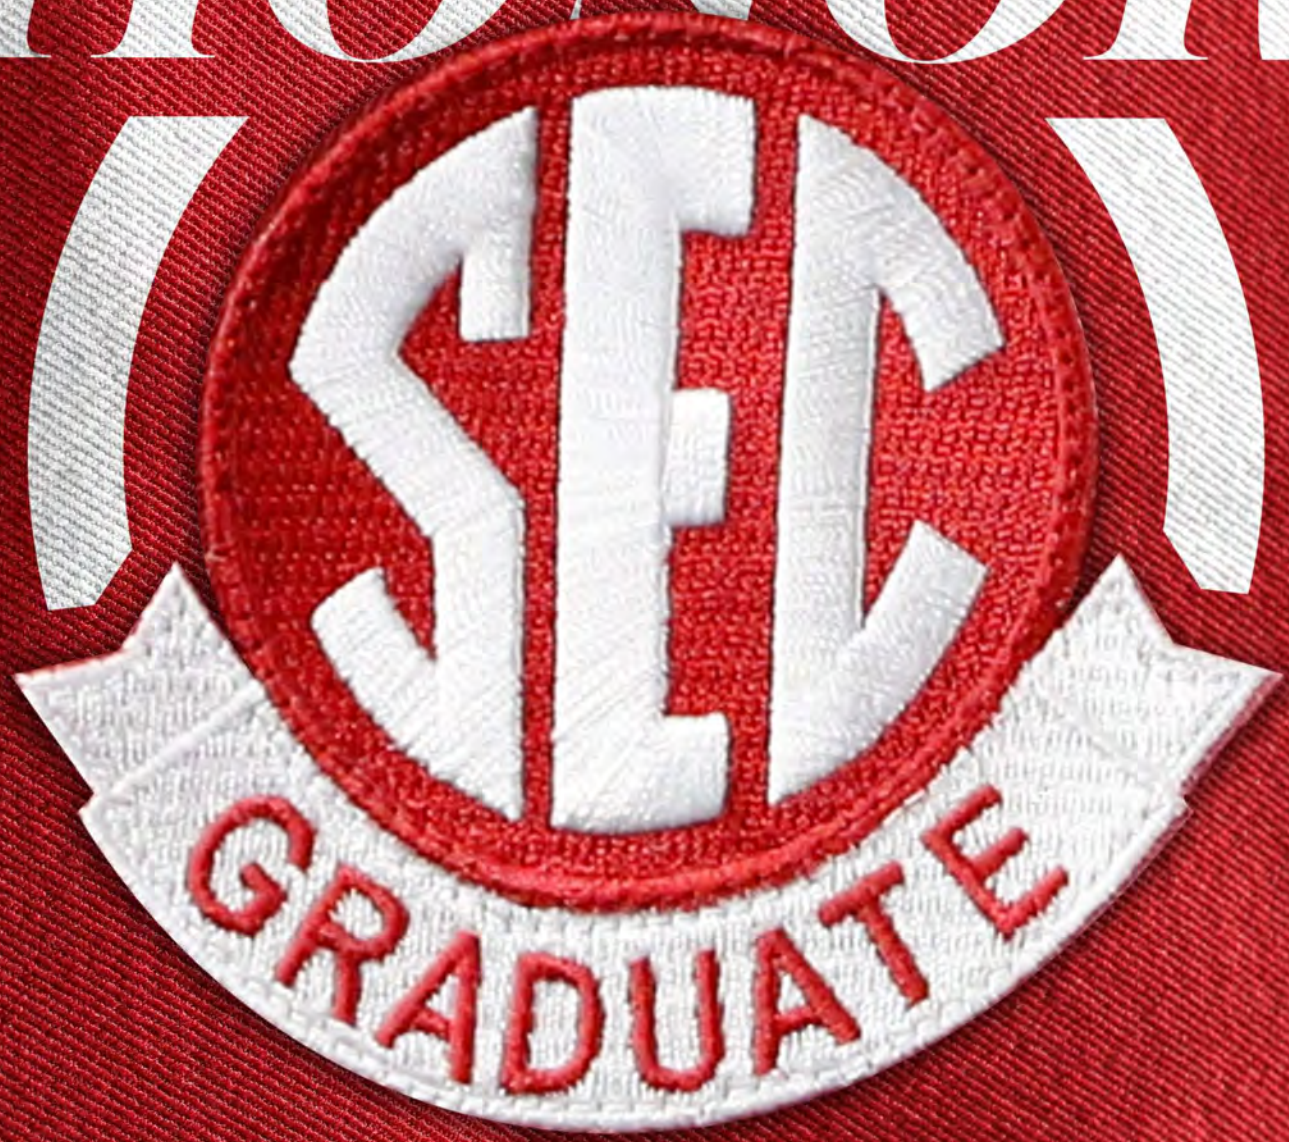

Chris Stewart will anchor the radio broadcast for a fourth season as his portfolio expanded to hosting the Pregame Tailgate Show and the Halftime Show in 2018, while continuing to provide in-game updates and hosting The Nick Saban Show. A member of the crew since 1999, Stewart also is the voice of Alabama men's basketball and baseball.

John Parker Wilson enters his fourth season as the color analyst after joining the crew in 2018. Wilson, who was a three-year starter at quarterback for the Crimson Tide from 2006-08, finished as the school's all-time leader in completions, passing yards, attempts, passing touchdowns and total yards.

Now in his fourth season, Rashad Johnson will continue his sideline duties after taking over for Stewart in 2018. Johnson joined the broadcast team after an eight-year stint in the NFL with the Arizona Cardinals and Tennessee Titans. He originally came to Tuscaloosa as a walk-on running back who made the move to the defensive side of the football, earned a scholarship and capped his senior season by earning first team All-America honors as a player for the Crimson Tide.

Starting in 1984, Tom Stipe has produced the CTSN football broadcasts and he also serves as president of the Southeastern Conference Broadcasters Association. Butch Owens has stood behind Gold every week as the spotter since 1989. Jim Carabin oversees the Alabama broadcasts in his role as Vice President/General Manager of Crimson Tide Sports Marketing.
